- A rare and curious work, being a kind of Encyclopædia on maritime affairs; there is a geographical description of the world, with upwards of 20 maps; of Africa, with 1 map; of America, with 3 maps; thus rendering it of great interest for the history of early geographical discovery. At the end of each description in this portion of the book is a list of the names of towns and places differing from the Latin nomenclature. Amongst the illustrations may be noticed a boat with paddle-wheels, worked by bulls, p. 712.

"Few persons combine so many qualifications for a traveller as Sir Robert Kerr Porter, who is an elegant scholar, an accomplished gentleman, a skilful artist, an intelligent observer, and an agreeable writer. To such an individual, the countries he has travelled over presented a field of incomparable richness and abundance; and as he gleaned copiously—yet with great discrimination—he has produced one of the most valuable and interesting works of the day. No one is more competent than he to the task of ascertaining and making us acquainted with the antiquities, manners, and customs of the nations among whom he journeys, and great reliance may be placed both on his judgment and integrity."—*Lit. - "Edition la plus complète de cet ouvrage estimé; vend. 110 fr. Herisson; 120 fr. Courbonne."—Brunet. Latest and best edition of the most esteemed work on oriental antiquities and literature. "Herbelot received the most splendid reward of his industry: he was invited to Italy by Ferdinand II. Duke of Tuscany, who entertained him with that striking magnificence which always distinguished the race of the Medici. After the death of Ferdinand the illustrious Colbert recalled him to Paris, where he enjoyed the fruits of his labour, and spent the remainder of his days in easy retirement."—Sir W. Jones. "For solid literature, extensive and profound oriental learning, no man ever surpassed Herbelot; he that came nearest him was the late Sir W. Jones. The work is a treasure of useful and ornamental knowledge and has done more to draw the attention of Europeans to the writings of the Asiaticists than all the other works yet published on the subject.—Bibliogr. Dict. "Bartholomew D'Herbelot was born in Paris in 1625. He was first among the French who understood the oriental languages and history. He was at first but little regarded in his own country. He was recalled by Ferdinand the Second, Duke of Tuscany, with a distinction which taught France to prize his merits. He was recalled and encouraged by Colbert, who encouraged everything. 'Bibliothèque Orientale' is equally curious and profound. He died in 1695."—Voltaire.

- "This is the original and only complete edition. It was printed at the expense of the author; the composition was the labour and amusement of many years. It abounds with striking pictures of the manners, customs, and the habits of the people of India. In the 'Quarterly Review,' No. XII. is an elaborate account of the work, which occupies 47 pages. The Reviewer observes, 'A work more splendid or more complete in its decorations we have seldom seen.' At the death of Mr. Forbes some reserved copies were deposited in a warehouse and forgotten, or not a single copy would have remained unsoiled. It had long been considered scarce, and in consequence his daughter, the late Countess Montalembert, was induced to re-publish the work in an abridged form, with a portion of the plates, which edition, from the impossibility of securing the present, obtained a rapid sale, and is now out of print. The drawings and collections of Mr. Forbes seem almost to exceed the powers of human industry and perseverance, and this literary monument to his name may fairly be considered the essence of his extraordinary researches. The whole work is very entertaining as well as instructive."—Literary Gazette.

- The grandest and most sumptuous work of Engravings ever published, and the most glorious monument of Napoleon's patronage of the Fine Arts. The expense of producing it was enormous.
 "By its care for scientific and literary interests, the mind of France conquered even when the sword fell from her hand. France brought back a pure and permanent conquest from Egypt—a conquest unsullied by a crime and undimmed by a tear. The labours of her learned commissioners on the Nile will continue a portion of her intellectual empire to the end of time. No disaster can ever rob her of that glory—so worthily won and so modestly worn.”

Athenæum, April 1st, 1854.

 This is one of the most magnificent productions of France since the Revolution. Napoleon wished to cover his Egyptian defeat with the splendour of Victory, and to intimate to the French, by this work, that conquest was within his grasp but not his Destiny recalled him to a more important career. Accordingly, the first artists were engaged to bestow on this work their most brilliant efforts. Success was sure to be remunerated with Imperial munificence, whilst failure or even negligence would be attended with inevitable disgrace. In consequence, the plates are all executed on the most extensive scale, and in the most splendid manner, and form a grand and brilliant exhibition of the remains of ancient Egypt, and of whatever is most striking in the Palaces, Buildings, Scenery, Arts and Sciences of Modern Egypt. The Plates of Natural History are highly coloured.

- "L'Archéologie de l'Inde par M. Lassen donne l'exemple le plus brillant de la manière dont on peut reconstruire, avec des matériaux épars, l'histoire d'un pays. La fin du quatrième volume de cet ouvrage, qui a paru l'an passé, contient surtout le tableau de la civilisation hindoue du IV^e. au XI^e siècle; elle traite de l'histoire de la religion et des sectes brahminiques pendant cette époque, du bouddhisme, de son extinction dans la péninsule, et de ses conquêtes en dehors de l'Inde, de la secte des Djainas, de l'histoire de la langue et de l'écriture, de la poésie épique et du théâtre, de l'astronomie, de l'architecture et du commerce de l'Inde. "It must be borne in mind that the ancient traditions of the people of India are household words in every quarter of the Peninsula; that they have not passed away from the land in the same way that Stonehenge and Druidism, the worship of Thor and Odin, and the wars of the Heptarchy, have passed away from the people of England, but that they are living realities, exercising the same degree of influence over the Hindú as is exercised by the Bible, the Library, and the Newspaper, over the European. Chinese.

- 8243 DRAWINGS. 14 Native Sketches in Indian Ink, a little coloured, of Landscapes, etc. with short descriptions in Chinese MS. folded in royal 8vo. size, occupying 28 pp. mounted, the outer leaves attached to wooden bds. 36s ca. 1830

Taken from the Summer Palace in Pekin; and exhibiting a better knowledge of perspective than is usually shown by native artists.

- 8244 CHINESE MYTHOLOGY, a volume royal folio, containing 100 beautiful DRAWINGS BY NATIVE ARTISTS, painted on the finest cotton-paper, and mounted on thick drawing paper, all COLOURED in the most elaborate and artistic manner, representing the Deities, Demi-gods, Sages, and Heroes, of the various systems of Chinese Mythology, with an explanatory Index in MS. by Dr. John B. Morrison, son of the Lexicographer, and, equally with his father, a profound Chinese scholar, bound in red morocco extra, gilt edges, £100. China, cir. 1830

A SUPERB VOLUME. It forms such a Gallery of Chinese Mythological Paintings, as could scarcely be collected now in China. The work is done with admirable taste and skill, and could not have cost the original possessor less than £200. It would now be more expensive still, as the number of real artists is daily diminishing in China; and the distracting civil wars of late years have worked so much destruction amongst the public monuments and collections, all over the empire.—Independently of the pictorial and ornamental attractiveness of this volume, it possesses a high value for the student of Races and Religions. There is a singular interest in examining the ideas embodied in the figures that represent the divinities of the Chinese mind; and in noting how frequently they differ from the ordinary type of Chinese humanity. The obliquity of eyesight peculiar to the Mongolian race is not visible in more than half of these drawings, and it would seem likely that much of the modern Chinese faith or superstition is derived from a source still more ancient than the earliest ages of that ancient people itself—that is, from the aboriginal inhabitants of the country who still hold an independent footing there, and harass the imperial government under the name of the Miao-tze Mountaineers. This race is also found in Formosa and some others of the islands in the Chinese seas.

The demi-gods and deities, who appear in the above drawings, are not taken from the calendar of any one religion; but comprise alike Buddhist figures, Confucian sages, and the idols of the Taoou-sze, or Rationalists—the least numerous sect of the three that divide China amongst them.

Hebrew.

- 8245 PRECES ET PRÆCEPTA HEBRÆORUM, Hebraice, sm. 4to. a beautiful specimen of Calligraphy, written in very elegant Romano-Jewish Characters, with points, and having the commencing words in LETTERS OF GOLD, surrounded by ornamental borders, painted in various colours, upon vellum, richly bound in green velvet, the sides and edges protected with centres, (having a lion rampant and three stars, as arms, engraved upon them), corners and clasps of solid silver, £35. Saec. XV.

Illuminated Hebrew MSS. by Italian Artists are of very rare occurrence. This elegant specimen of Italian Art was a marriage gift, and is in the purest state of preservation. Some of the Prayers are intermixed with Benedictions in Italian, but written in Hebrew characters.

Indian.

- 8246 MYTHOLOGIE ICONOLOGIQUE DES BRAMES, par le Chevalier ARTAUD DE BEAUVILLETTE, sm. folio, 52 COLOURED AND ILLUMINATED DRAWINGS of Hindoo Deities, copied "avec la plus soignée exactitude" by this French savant from native originals, the names of the divinities all added, with a MS. title and prefatory notice, old French green morocco extra, gilt edges, £10. 1790

This is not the work of a mere copyist; but that of a scholar and man of learning, who would preserve faithfully even the defects and rudeness of the original drawings, rather than lose any possible symbolism that might have an interest for the student of Mythology.

- 8247 HINDOO MYTHOLOGY: A FULL SERIES OF ALL THE DEITIES AND INCARNATIONS OF THE HINDOO RELIGION, with some PORTRAITS OF INDIAN AND PERSO-INDIAN PRINCES, together 111 EXQUISITE DRAWINGS, comprising about 250 subjects, the largest measuring 14 inches by 10 designed and executed in RICH COLOURS AND GOLD, by most a

A Collection important for its artistic and Mythological value. The Hindoo Pantheon surpasses that of Greece by the extraordinary variety in the forms of its Gods, and by their still more wonderful achievements. The belief of the Hindoos in these Heroes of the Vedas is universal, and likely to remain so, in spite of civilising and missionary efforts. To all students of the Vedantic philosophy the above collection will be highly instructive; it ought to find a resting place in some Public Library in England or on the Continent.

Pali.

8248 THE KAMMAVACHA, a code of Regulations concerning the admission of novices to the Buddhist priesthood, chapters 1 and 4, a beautiful MS. written on fourteen leaves of the Palmyra Tree, in the square Pali character, richly lacquered, gold ground, in fine condition, 21 inches long and 4 wide, £2. 10s

8250 شاهنامه. Sec. XVIII.

The Miniatures in this volume exhibit so much spirit, grace, and artistic finish, and are in a state of preservation so perfect, as to render it, in this respect, ONE OF THE FINEST KNOWN MANUSCRIPTS OF THE SHÁH NÁMEH.

8251 فرس نامه: FARS NÁMEH. The Book of the Horse, by Abdallah Khán, a Persian work composed in the fifteenth century, 8vo. illuminated Anwón, and 21 fine spirited Miniatures, representing horses of various colours and kinds, with instructions how to distinguish good and bad breeds, directions for curing their diseases, etc. native gilt binding, 86s Transcribed circ. 1700

8252 SÁDI. گلستان و بوستان. The Gulistán and the Bústán, folio, fine Persian MS. in elegant Tálîq characters, with illuminated Anwón, and 19 MINIATURES, morocco, gilt back and edges, £5. 5s Sec. XVIII.

Sanskrit.

8253 SRI BHAGAVAT. LIFE OF KRISHNA, in SANSKRIT, stout sm. 4to. a fine Brahminical MS. of 960 pp. written in a bold and plain hand, in the Devanagari character, with 147 LARGE DRAWINGS, each the full size of the page, all brightly coloured and many of them silvered, representing the incidents of this incarnation or Avatar, oriental stamped binding, from the library of Dr. Clarke, £27. 1233 (A.D. 1817)

The style of the illustrations is rude, the character of the incidents depicted singular and but this MS. forms nevertheless a remarkable specimen of Indian Art from the great number, freedom, and variety of the drawings.

The text of this Codex offers variations from those of the Boulak and the Calcutta editions. It is well known that perfect MSS. of the Alf Leileh are extremely rare.
- 8277 ALF LEILEH WE LEILEH : الف ليلة و ليلة : Tausend und Eine Nacht, Arabisch, nach einer Handschrift aus Tunis herausg. von HABICHT, nach seinem Tode fortgesetzt von Fleischer, 12 vols. 16mo. sewed, £5. Breslau, 1824-43

- 8278 الف ليلة و ليلة : Thousand and one Nights, in Arabic, 2 vols. 4to. best edition, bound, very rare, £10. Bulâq, A. H. 1251
The whole of Egypt has been scoured to obtain copies of this edition, but in vain, as the few copies printed have met with eager purchasers, who on no account will part with the book. The reason why Arabic scholars prefer the above to the Breslau and the Calcutta edition is based upon the fact, that the Boulac edition was made really from the best existing MSS. and has further every story unabridged (however repugnant to European morality) with all the coarse details which Orientals delight to read. Whoever wants the real book of "Arabian Nights" must have this edition.

- 8358 HAMASA. The same, THICK PAPER, 3 vols. in 2, hf. morocco extra, gilt top, uncut, £5. 1828-51

This famous work is a collection of all the Songs of the Arabs, previous to and for a couple of centuries after the establishment of Islamism. The word Hamasa, which signifies "Warlike Glory," was used by the Arabs to designate all their national poetry; and it is probable that many of the pieces included in this great compilation were handed down from the most remote antiquity to the time in which they were first collected. This was the work of the celebrated poet Abu Tamman, who flourished in the commencement of the third century. Returning from Khorassan to Irak, he was delayed by a heavy fall of snow in the town of Hamadan; and making a long stay there, he was invited by Abu'l Wefa ben Salamah to collect and arrange the works in his immense library. The poet beguiled his stay with this congenial labour; and selecting all those ancient poems which possessed merit, he compiled from them "the Hamasah," a work which holds in Arabic literature a position similar to that of Homer in the Greek.

- Vendu 55 fl. Creveana.—Brunet.
- Very rare. The first edition of this rare work, which De Rossi proves to have been produced at Mantua, sometime between 1476 and 1480, under the editorship of Abraham Conato, a Jewish physician. There was an edition at Constantinople in 1510, in small 4to. size, less elegantly printed, but with some additions to the text. The work is a garbled Hebrew version of Josephus, interwoven with numerous Rabbinical fictions; and it is supposed, the author, who lived sometime between the sixth and ninth centuries intended that his co-religionists should look upon it as the original of Josephus.

The only complete edition of this famous epic. There exist two widely differing texts of the Ramayana, as issued from two ancient Indian schools, which may almost be considered as two distinct works. Of these texts, Schlegel chose one, and Gorresio has chosen the other for publication; but the former remains an incomplete labour, while the latter has been fully and thoroughly accomplished by the learning and industry of the Italian scholar. The edition by Carey and Marshman is also imperfect: it only contains the first two books, and is moreover unsatisfactory, because of the endeavour made by the editors to produce one text from the two distinct recensions.

- 9393 VALMEEKI, THE RAMAYUNA, in the original Sungskrit, with a Prose Translation, and explanatory notes by W. CAREY and J. MARSHMAN, 3 vols. 4to. russia gilt, VERY RARE, £10. Serampore, 1806-10

- 9414 ——— the same, SECOND EDITION, enlarged, roy. 4to. 982 pp. double cols. hf. bd. £12. 12s 1832

The high price of Wilson's Dictionary has to be ascribed to the slow progress of Professor Goldstücker's proposed new edition. The few parts published, 1 to 6, are of no practical use to students.

- 9547 BERNALDEZ (Andrés) Historia de los Reyes Catolicos D. FERNANDO y Da. ISABEL, Cronica inédita del siglo XV (con introduccion de Lafuente y Alcántara) 2 vols. 8vo. sd. 14s; or the 2 vols. in one, hf. morocco, uncut, 17s 6d Granada, 1866

A very valuable and interesting chronicle, published here for the first time, after having for three centuries and a-half shared the neglect and obscurity which Antonio deplored as the fate of all good early writers. Bernaldez was an eye-witness of the events that he describes, and on intimate terms with Ponce de Leon and the other great men of the time. Not the least interesting part of his work is the description of the Discovery of America, and his account of COLUMBUS, WHOM HE ALSO KNEW AND ADMIRER. He calls him a "Mercader de libros de estampa," which is more likely to be a correct designation than that usually given to the great navigator.

The author was born at Cordova in 1487, became page to the prince, Don Juan, son and heir to Fernando and Isabella, in 1494. He accompanied his father in his 4th voyage of discovery in 1502, and after the death of Columbus, made two voyages to the New World. He also accompanied Charles V. to Italy, Flanders, Germany, &c.; and after having travelled over all Europe and a part of Africa and Asia, died at Seville, in 1539, leaving a library of 20,000 volumes, printed and MS. to the cathedral of Seville. He was an eye-witness to the facts which he relates in the above volume, particularly the fourth voyage of his father, whose papers and charts he possessed. 'His work is an invaluable document, entitled to great faith, and is the CORNER STONE OF THE HISTORY OF THE AMERICAN CONTINENT.'

- In "A Note touching the Dutch" at the end of the Preface to the Reader in Vol. I. Purchas vindicates himself from the charge of general aspersions of the Dutch Nation, by intimating that what he had said referred to particular scoundrels, who belong to all Nations, even the English. He declares "that I am not guiltie to my selfe of hatred to that Nation," "And for this cause I have omitted some odious Greenland Relations, have altered and reprinted some more offensive generall speeches disgorged by the passionate loosers, with Titles on the tops of pages, intended to Offenders," &c.
Accordingly it has been discovered that in Vol. I. pp. 703-706, (signatures 4 M & 5) have been cancelled and reprinted, for the purpose of softening down several harsh expressions against the Dutch.
This copy contains both of these original leaves and the cancels, the first we believe that have ever occurred for sale.

ANCIENT BIBLICAL MANUSCRIPTS.

9627 PSALTERIUM, cum quibusdam PRECIBUS et HYMNIS, Græce, small 4to. fine Greek Manuscript, on VELLUM, beautifully bound in red morocco extra, by BEDFORD, enclosed in a wooden case covered with red velvet, £100.

Sec. X-XI.

A fine example of Greek workmanship in the tenth or eleventh century. Everything in the appearance of the calligraphy, the shape of the letters, and the modes of using the aspirations, indicates the high antiquity of the Manuscript. The text is remarkable for its correctness; it faithfully represents the Septuagint, and almost exactly follows the text edited by Holmes and Parsons, as modified by the more numerous section of their various Readings. The present is the only MS. of any part of the Greek Old Testament appearing in this catalogue, and as such it ought to be bought with one of the New Testament Codices. In verification of its age, it may only be observed that the letters are clearly, largely, and boldly written; there is no division or space between any of the words in one sentence; the dative iota is never marked; the breathings are similar in shape to those used in the Uncial MSS. (that is, like the two halves of the letter H); and the letters are all formed in the style peculiar to early cursives, including the cross-shaped Ψ. The stop used at the end of paragraphs is (:)—

The text of the Psalms is succeeded by the following pieces, all of the same age and handwriting:—1. Ωδη Μωυσεως εν τη Εξοδῳ; 2. Ωδη Μωυσεως εν τη Δευτερονομίῃ; 3. Ωδη Αββακουμ του Προφητου; 4. Προσευχη Ησαιου; 5. Προσευχη Ιωνα; 6. Προσευχη των ἁγιων τριων Παιδων; 7. Ωδη των ἁγιων τριων Παιδων; 8. Ωδη της Θεοτοκου Μαρίας; 9. Αινος Ζαχαριου; 10. Προσευχη Εζεκιου; 11. Προσευχη Μανασση; 12. Ὑμνος Εωθινος; 13. Ὑμνος τε Λυχνικου; 14. Προσευχη Συμεων; 15. Τυπικα της Εκκλησιας; 16. Οι Μακαρισμοι; 17. Το ἄγιον Συμβολον. The last leaf of the MS. is wanting, as the Creed lacks its second half.

9628 NOVUM TESTAMENTUM GRÆCE, very stout square small 8vo. Manuscript on VELLUM, with MINIATURES of the Four Evangelists, beautifully bound in red morocco extra, by BEDFORD, enclosed in red velvet case, £200.

Sec. XI-XII.

This elegant little MS. contains the Four Gospels, the Acts, and the Epistles, thus needing only the Apocalypse to be a perfect Codex of the New Testament. It is well known that MSS. of the Acts and Epistles are very much scarcer than those of the Gospels,—and on that account, the present MS. may justly be considered the most valuable in the collection catalogued here. The order in which the Epistles are arranged, differs wholly from that which is used in the printed editions, and the text will afford valuable matter for collation. It is noticeable that in the baptism of the Eunuch (Acts viii. 37) the formula of belief, which appears in the received text, is omitted; this fact alone being sufficient to prove that the scribe followed a good original. The statement about Silas (Acts xv. 34) is also omitted. It has the passage concerning the “three Witnesses,” and in the words concerning the Passion, is also in harmony with the received text. The inscriptions at the end of the different Epistles, differ from those in other MSS. and in printed editions.

There is a curious note at the end, written in capitals by the scribe who gives his name in it. It shews that he had not had the intention to include the Apocalypse in his New Testament; or perhaps it was wanting in the original he used. The inscription is rendered thus:

"As sweet as the tranquil haven is to sea-wanderers
So sweet to the scribe is the last line.

Of Ioannikios the Monk."

The character in which the body of the book is written is a beautiful minute cursive, with divisions generally observed between the words, but otherwise shewing all the marks of its antiquity, such as the right-angled notes of breathing, the peculiar form of the letters, the absence of the dative iota, etc. The Canon of Eusebius is not prefixed to the text, but there are tables to the Gospels, a Menology, portion of the Psalms, etc. written in an ancient hand on paper, and forming the beginning and end of the volume.

On the whole the present Manuscript is one of very great interest for the scholar and the collector.

9629 EVANGELIA IV, GRÆCE, CUM CANONE EUSEBII, sm. 4to. Splendid

Manuscript on VELLUM, beautifully written in a very clear hand, the Canon of Eusebius within elegant borders, richly illuminated in gold and colours, the headings of each Gospel in letters of gold within elaborately illuminated ornaments, numerous capitals in gold; adorned with Three large MINIATURES of St. Matthew, St. Mark and St. John, executed in colours on a gold ground in the Byzantine style, in morocco super extra, by BEDFORD, and enclosed in red velvet case, A PERFECT GEM, £250. Sæc. XI.

A Manuscript no less precious for its text, than as a specimen of Greek Art in the Eleventh Century. The paintings which represent St. Mark and St. John (that of Matthew being damaged by loss of colour) are infinitely superior to the ordinary character of the work in old MSS. The design and the execution are alike admirable. Indeed the graceful style of ornamentation used in the borders to the Canon (arches of gold richly decorated, supported by light pillars of coloured marbles) as well as the Gospel-headings, is quite sufficient to place this MS. amongst the most valuable Codices of the Greek Gospels.

The handwriting is an elegant cursive with headings in a small uncial character; and resembles that of the specimens given in the Pal. Sacra of Westwood, "Early Greek MS. No. 5," and also that of plates 46 and 49 in D'Agincourt, Vol. III. Its antiquity is clearly denoted by the absence of divisions between words (except of course at the end of sentences), and the form of the breathings, which are noted by a small broken line forming a right angle, right or left, according to the pronunciation. The iota is never written subscribed to the dative, but is generally affixed at the end of the word (and occasionally omitted). Another point for remark is the use of the epenthetic ν and ς before consonants; but this is not always seen in the text. Abbreviations are only adopted in the words and names usually so found even in the earliest MSS., and in a few places where terminations are contracted for want of space. It is often supposed that cursive MSS. are all of a comparatively modern origin, but the fact is that this kind of writing was known as early as the Sixth Century, and came into general use in the Ninth, at which period also the employment of ornamentation began. Accents and breathings were adopted in writing so far back as the Seventh Century.

The text is one of very much importance to the biblical critic; for it does not appear to have been ever collated, and yet it offers an immense number of valuable Various Readings. It agrees more nearly with the "Codex Ephraim rescriptus" (V Century) and the "Codex Beza" than with the other early ones; but it is very remarkably different from the latter (Beza's) in the Story of the Woman taken in Adultery. It has the famous passage (Mat. vi. 13)—“οτι σου εστιν η βασιλεια.” John v. 3 & 4, presents the doubtful words, cited by Tertullian, but varies very much from the Alexandrine Codex. It leaves out the words “και πυρι” in Matt. xiii. 11; but gives the “οπισω μου” in Mat. iv. 10. Indeed, the variations of reading are so frequent that it would take a volume to enumerate them.—The leaf which should contain Luke xix. 10—26, is cut away, and there is no painting of this Evangelist's figure. Otherwise it is quite complete; and there are short prologues to each Gospel, differing from the known prefaces of the Fathers as given by Erasmus and Mill.

On the last leaf is a memorandum in Greek recording the birth of a daughter, named Theodora, on the second of October (St Justin's day), in the year of the World 6828 (1320 A.C.), in a much more modern writing than the Gospels.

9630 EVANGELIA GRÆCE, 12mo. beautifully written Manuscript on VELLUM, with MINIATURES of the four Evangelists, the headings and initials in gold, elegantly bound in red morocco super extra, by BEDFORD, enclosed in a red velvet case, £125. Sec. XII.

A charming little volume, equally admirable as a production of calligraphic skill and as an elegant piece of binding. There are prefaces, postscripts, and tables of all the Gospels, and at the end of the second Gospel, there is an epigram of six lines upon St. Mark. This is no doubt a curious feature in the book. The text is accurate and keeps sufficiently close to the Received Version; but there are many various readings and transpositions. As for the penmanship, the writing is very small but clear, the dative iota still remains unnoted, the breathings are yet angularly shaped, the letter Ψ like a cross, and other peculiarities mark its antiquity; but there is a nearer approach to modern writing than in the former MSS. There are twenty-seven lines per page, and the size of the volume outside is about 5½ by 3½ inches. It is certainly a desirable article of its kind, and would be in its proper place on the shelves of a fine library.

9631 EVANGELIA GRÆCE, small 4to. Manuscript on VELLUM, bound in morocco extra, and enclosed in velvet case by BEDFORD, £100.

Sec. XII—XIII.

In a very beautiful style of penmanship, the letters being large, round, clear, and perfectly uniform. The aspirations are marked in the same manner as at present, that is, by curved lines; but on the other hand, the dative iota is only twice subscribed, and everywhere else omitted, the ι and the υ are generally crowned with two dots and the letters retain the archaic form, almost as much as the MSS. a century older. Itacism frequently occurs. The various readings which the text affords are very numerous. Even the verbal alterations are remarkable in themselves, one of the most frequent turns of phrase being to substitute the article ος and a verb for ο and a participle—as, ος αν απολελυμενην γαμηση for ο απολελυμενην γαμησας. It has the disputed words εν τω φανερω (Mat. vi. 6), but the freedom of the scribe almost wholly through the MS. in his position and use of words is very great. If Bible MSS. are to be divided into classes of versions, this one belongs to the school of the Beza Codex preserved in Cambridge.

9632 EVANGELIA GRÆCE, small 4to. Manuscript on VELLUM, bound in morocco extra, and enclosed in velvet case, by BEDFORD, £52. 10s

Sec. XII—XIII.

Elegantly written in a bold regular character, displaying great freedom of penmanship. As a specimen of ancient Greek calligraphy it is highly to be considered, although there are several lacunæ in the text, which follows pretty closely the Alexandrine version. Of course there are various readings to take the attention of the critic, but the collector will chiefly regard this

MS. for its age, in connection with the beauty and simplicity of its clear rounded penmanship. The first leaves of Matthew's Gospel are missing. The dative iota is subscribed and the curved notes of aspiration used. There are no spaces observed between the words of a sentence, and the custom of beginning a word at the end of a line and carrying it into the next, without any regard to the break, is universal through the volume. The shape of the characters is perhaps more wholly antique than in No. 9631.

9633 EVANGELIARIUM GRÆCUM, imp. 4to. ancient Greek MS of the XI century, on VELLUM, in a clear bold and square character, almost without contractions, with large ILLUMINATED INITIALS, not wholly perfect, richly bound in dark red morocco extra, gilt edges, £40. Sec. XI.

A selection from the four Gospels, used by the priests for reading aloud and preaching from. There are occasional notes added to mark the inflexions of the voice and the intonation. The character of the handwriting in this venerable relic is early cursive, and there is no distinctive space between the words except at the end of a sentence or clause. There is neither subscribed nor ascript iota to mark the dative case; and the forms of the letters in the head lines, as well as the colours used in illumination, are of archaic type. All these circumstances combine to prove the high antiquity of this MS. It forms a very valuable specimen of Byzantine calligraphy of the best kind.

9634 LECTIONARIUM SIVE EVANGELISTARIUM, Græce, large 4to. Manuscript on VELLUM, a fragment of an ancient Church Service, finely written in a large hand, in double columns, bound in red morocco extra, £10. 10s Sec. XIII.

Interesting as an example of the workmanship of the period. There are some curious initial letters, coloured; and the whole character of the handwriting is antique and primitive. The dative iota is always omitted, the ψ has the cross-shape, and the ε and υ are dotted.

9635 HOMILIES. Two Greek MS. fragments. 8 pp. 4to. 12th century, and 12 pp. 8vo. 14th century, written on vellum, 10s Sec. XII-XIV.

The older and larger fragment is a fine specimen of its kind.

9636 LITURGIA GRÆCA, cum MUSICA. The Service for the Transfiguration, in Greek, with MUSICAL NOTATIONS, 12mo. MANUSCRIPT ON PAPER, bound in morocco extra, by BEDFORD, £10. 10s Sec. XV.

This very curious MS. was written in the island of Crete, as appears from the heading—"και ταυτα καθως ψαλλονται παρα κυρ. βενεδικτου Επισκοπου του πρωτοπαπα πολεις Ρυθιμνης." The town of Rhythmna is in the north of Candia or Crete, as appears from Ptolemy, and perhaps an examination of the records of Venetian domination in that island may shew the exact time when the Protopapa flourished. The Music is singularly noted, and it is remarkable that where one syllable accompanies several notes, the vowels are duplicated or triplicated in spelling, as the case may be.

9637 BIBLIA LATINA VULGATA, cum Prologis, 12mo. MS. beautifully and very minutely written on the finest abortive VELLUM, with 44 lines per page, the writing on each page occupying a length of scarcely more than four inches, with large initials, and rubrics and capitals in red and blue, and a Table of the meanings of about 5000 Hebrew names at end, citron morocco, gilt edges, with exception of the last leaf in superb preservation, £25. Sec. XIV.

This beautiful little MS. has been in English hands for more than three hundred years, as appears by the words "Jhon Ston oweth this boke," written on the last leaf, in a handwriting of the Sixteenth Century.

9638 BIBLIA LATINA, cum prologis Sancti Hieronymi et Indice, stout small folio, fine Manuscript on VELLUM, written in double columns, within ruled lines, with the capitals in blue and red, some of the initials very neatly ornamented, bound in dark purple morocco, vellum fly-leaves, gilt edges, £18. 18s Sec. XIV.

As appears from the names scattered here and there on the margins, this MS. belonged to an English family of the name of Folliott or Ffolliott, about the time of Queen Elizabeth. This circumstance gives an additional interest beyond the intrinsic merit of the volume, and suggests the possibility that it is of English origin. Perhaps a closer examination of the text would show some peculiarities to confirm this conjecture, which, if correct, would prove the MS. to be of very great value. A few lacunæ appear in the text, and it is consequently sold not subject to collation.

9640 ——— a remarkably fine copy, 8 vols. large folio, blue Turkey morocco extra, gilt edges, bound by F. Bedford, £58. Lond. 1657-69

A magnificent copy, in the finest possible condition, ruled with red lines. It has the rare Dedication to Charles II. and the 'loyal' Preface, which was substituted for that of the Protector, on the accession of Charles II. There are but few libraries which possess a copy of this important work in the superb binding of Mr. Bedford.

"This Polyglot is of the utmost importance to a critic, not only on account of the extracts which it contains from a variety of important MSS., but particularly on account of the Oriental versions, from which he must collect various readings of the New Testament. Though several of the MSS. which are quoted in the Polyglot have since that time been more accurately collated, and no one would now have recourse to that edition for the reading of the Codex Alexandrinus or Cantabrigiensis; yet some of the MSS. which Usher had collected, have never since been examined. Mill and Wetstein have inserted those readings in their collections as they found them in the Polyglot. Now, as errors of the press are unavoidable, especially in a work like Wetstein's, it is necessary to have a recourse to the Polyglot whenever a doubt arises in regard to the accuracy of a quotation by Mill or Wetstein, in order to see whether these MSS. which were collated for the London Polyglot, have the readings in question or not."—Ep. Marsh's Michaelis.

Londini, Bagster, 1831

An excellent Polyglot edition of the Bible, in Hebrew, Greek, Latin, English, French, German, Italian and Spanish, now very scarce. All of them are printed in 12mo. size, so that the Hebrew, English, Greek and Latin occupy four quarters of each left hand page, and the others occupy the right hand. At the end of the volume are, Variæ lectiones in versionem septuaginta virorum, Novum Testamentum Græcum, Pentateuchum Hebræo-Samaritanum, and the whole of the New Testament in Syriac.

The Old Testament is in four languages; the Hebrew original, the Greek of the Septuagint, the Latin of the Vulgate, and Luther's German translation, 5 vols. Vol. VI. contains

A beautiful copy of this valuable work, the fountain head of Biblical criticism. Origen

9644 PSALTERIUM in quatuor linguis Hebræa, Græca, Chaldæa et Latina, edidit Potkenus, sm. folio, calf gilt, 30s. Colonia, 1518

The version called Chaldee on the title is Ethiopic, that language being supposed in Potken's time to be the true Chaldee, while the language known as Chaldee was considered to be simply a corrupt colloquial dialect.

- 9661 Armenian. BIBLIA SACRA, ARMENICE, stout sm. folio, plates, hf. red morocco, uncut, rare, £2. 2s Venetis, 1805

Priced, in 1831, £4. 4s. A very elegantly printed volume, with readings at the foot of each page. The edition was printed to send into the East, and is little known in Europe.

It is said that only 72 copies were printed in this form. It contains the same matter as the four volumes in 8vo. printed the same year.

- 9662 Astec. EVANGELIARIUM, EPISTOLARIUM ET LECTIONARIUM AZTECUM, sive Mexicanum, ex antiquo Codice Mexicano nuper reperto depromptum, cum præfatione, interpretatione, adnotationibus, Glossario, edidit BERNARDINUS BIONDELLI, folio, pp. xlix and 576, with facsimile, only 400 copies printed, on stout writing paper, in pts. £3. 16s; or bds. £4. Mediolani, 1856-60

The very interesting Codex, of which the above is a careful reprint, was discovered in Mexico by Beltrami in the year 1826, and came into the hands of the present editor by purchase from the heirs. It is composed in the purest and most elegant Nahuatl that ever was written, by Bernardino Sahagun, a Spanish Monk of the Franciscan order, with the assistance of two scions of royalty in Anahuac, one the son of Montezuma, the other the son of the Prince of Tezcucó—and purports to be a "postilla" on the Gospels and Epistles. Sahagun arrived at Mexico in the year 1529, and lived and laboured with great success in that country for fully sixty years. Of his many works in and on the Nahuatl language, the above is the only one which has been saved from perdition. Mr. Biondelli has accompanied Sahagun's text by a Latin version, has added a copious Vocabulary, Nahuatl and Latin, and by his introductory observations, has thrown considerable light not alone upon the Nahuatl language, its affinity to other families of languages, its grammatical peculiarities, but also upon the traditions, institutions, and monuments of the Aztecs—thus forming a complete treasury of everything appertaining to the ancient Aztecs. Altogether this is a volume which cannot be dispensed with by the student in linguistics.

- 9683 BIBLE, in which are containned the Olde and Newe Testament, translated into Englysh by THOMAS MATHEW, stout folio, black letter, with seven of the preliminary leaves, also having the title to the Prophets and Apocrypha,

£15. Grafton and Whitechurch, 1537

COLLATION: (Title and preliminary matter as far as leaf 7 of Contents, wanting). Table of pryncypall matters, etc. leaves 8 to 14, containing the large woodcut of Adam and Eve on the reverse of 14; Genesis to Solomon's Ballet, folios 1—247; title to the Prophets within the 16 woodcuts; Prophets, 1—94; Title to the Apocrypha within the 15 woodcuts; Esdras, etc. 2—18 (wanting leaves 60, 61, and the blank leaf at end); New Testament, 2—107 (wanting folios 97 and 108—112). The margins are cut into the letterpress, portions of the volume are in very poor condition, and there are some small defects.

Sir Mark Sykes' copy fetched £78. 15s; 1845, Fletcher's, £105.; Lea Wilson's copy, at Gardiner's sale, 1854, £150.

- 9684 BIBLE, THE GREAT. The Byble in Englyshe, that is to saye the content of all the holy Scripture, bothe of ye olde and newe testament, stout folio, a copy of Cromwell's Bible, commonly called the first edition of Cranmer's, not perfect, very tall copy, in the original binding, excessively rare, £45. Fynished in Apryll, Anno 1539

A most desirable copy for completion by facsimile; Mr. Harris would be glad to receive the commission.

The title and five succeeding preliminary pages, and also the title preceding the third book of Esdras, are wanting. The first couple of leaves, and the last two, as also a few in the middle of the book, are injured and defective; but the greater portion of the work is in good condition. The titles and woodcuts of the "Great Bible" are considered superb, and have been attributed to Hans Holbein; the type is large and beautiful, and the paper excellent.

The extreme rarity of the above Bible may be imagined when it is stated that Gardiner's copy fetched £121.

- 9685 BIBLE, whych is all the holy Scripture, in which are containned the Olde and Newe Testament truelye and purely translated into Englyshe, by THOMAS MATTHEWE, stout sm. fol. black letter, calf, with clasps, rare, from the late Archbishop of Canterbury's library, £10.

Raynalde and Hyll, 1549

1836, Priced by Thorpe, £21. The above very rare edition of the eventful year 1549, in which no less than five different Bibles were published, wants the first title, the sixth leaf (of preliminary matter), leaf 31 in Revelations, and the last leaf with the imprint. The description given by Lewis (pp. 109—11) evidently shows that he could only meet an imperfect copy. For a complete collation, see Lea Wilson's Catalogue, No. 14.

- 9686 BIBLE, now lately with greate industry and diligence recognized by Edm. Becke, after Taverner's Recognition, with Tindall's Notes and Prologues, Black letter, folio, numerous cuts, fine copy in the original binding, wanting Title to Old Testament, and a few pages of Index at the end of the book, otherwise a good copy, old calf, £8.

Thus there are eight leaves, including one title, altogether wanting. See Lea Wilson's Catalogue, No. 8, for the description of the book as far as the end of the first part; and No. 7 for the remainder.

The volume HAS VERY LARGE MARGINS AND IS FINE AND SOUND, with very few exceptions. From Joshua to the end of the whole Bible, this copy is the FIRST EDITION printed by Cranmer.

Josiah Forshall and SIR FREDERICK MADDEN, the two versions printed in parallel columns, and the notes underneath, cloth, £5. 5s

Oxford University Press, 1850

It is astonishing, considering the widely spread Bible Worship in England and America, that the above scholarly edition of the really FIRST ENGLISH BIBLE should be so much neglected, both by the religious world and by Philologists.

All the known Manuscripts (170 in number) of the English translations of the Old and New Testament by Wycliffe and his followers have here been most carefully collated by the first Palæographer in England, and an accurate text of Two VERSIONS has thus been obtained.

This publication is the best issued for years from the Oxford University press.—England should be proud of this Literary Monument, a glorious inheritance of the Middle Ages.

The ample critical notes and various readings will prove of great interest to Saxon and English Scholars.

The previously existing editions of the New Testament, 1731, 1810, 1848, were all printed from one Manuscript only; their value is very slender.

This work has been so long lost that no copy was known to exist. Lord Arthur Hervey lately found a copy in his library, bound in a volume with other tracts. By his Lordship's great courtesy, Mr. Fry was enabled to offer this and the following work to the public in accurate facsimile. Tyndale's version has never appeared since the original edition now copied. It is not in the first or any other edition of the Bible, called Tyndale's.

William Tyndale having completed his translation of the New Testament, went to Cologne to print it, but not being successful he removed to Worms, where he accomplished the work, and gave to his countrymen the New Testament, which was the first printed in the English language.

the usual way, to ensure the closest possible correspondence with the original.

The whole impression consists of 177 copies, of which 26 are in quarto; and the work has been effaced from the stones.

This is a reproduction of the only known copy of the first edition, perhaps the most interesting book in our language. It is a faithful representation of the original, and has been made by tracing on transfer paper, placing this on lithographic stones, and then printing it in

The Introduction contains a notice of Tyndale's life, and the evidence that Peter Schoeffer was the printer, with seven pp. of facsimiles; a description and history of the only known copy, (in the Baptist College, Bristol), with 44 pages illuminated and ruled with red lines, like the original. - 9704 WILSON (Lea) Account of EDITIONS OF BIBLES, Testaments, Psalms, and other Books of the Holy Scriptures, in English, in his Collection, 4to. vellum, uncut, PRIVATELY PRINTED, and none for sale, very scarce, £10. 1845

The extreme care taken by the late Mr. Wilson in the compilation of this will always render it a valuable book of reference for collations, &c. The number of copies printed was very small; some say 50, others 120; nearly all were given to public libraries. It is in consequence gradually rising in price.

As some irregularity occurs in the paging, the following collation is given; Title with coat of arms on reverse; Preface, 3 leaves; Appendix, pp. 129*-136*; then pp. 137-352, including Index.

nevan pastors, and richly adorned with vignettes.

- 9716 BIBLE (la) qui est toute la sainte Esriture, contenant le Vieil et le Nouveau Testament, 4 parts in 2 vols. 12mo. beautifully printed in very minute characters, with numerous woodcuts, maps, etc. fine copy in old French calf extra, RARE, £2. 16s (Génève,) François Estienne, 1567

"Jolie édition imprimée en très-petits caractères et ornée de figures sur bois finement gravées."—Brunet. It is perhaps the earliest book ever printed with types so minute and elegant. A contemporary proprietor has written on the titles "Bible Huguenotte," as a warning, no doubt, to the orthodox. The woodcut of Eden, and the map between leaves 55 and 56 of the New Testament, are missing. The Music of the Metrical Psalms is given; and in the Calendar there is a curious list of fairs.

The above is the first edition in which the Acts of the Apostles appear after the Epistles of St. Paul.

- 9722 German. BIBLIA GERMANICA. Disz durchleuchtigst Werck der gantzen heyligen Geschrift genant dy Bibel hat hie ein Ende, 2 vols. folio, very beautifully printed in a large gothic letter, with 109 large, spirited and curious woodcuts, in a superior contemporary colouring, wanting pp. 157, initial and capital letters rubricated, very fine clean copy, hf. calf, £8. 8s Nürnberg, ANT. KOBURGER, 1483

This, the NINTH GERMAN BIBLE is extremely curious, on account of its numerous grotesque woodcuts. Dr. Dibdin says, "The greater part of a rainy morning might be satisfactorily devoted to the entertainment afforded by the cuts of this Bible." Among others equally remarkable, is one in which the Pope is introduced as one of the principal of the FALLEN ANGELS! The same wood-blocks were used to illustrate the Cologne Bible, and the Bible of Halberstadt, 1522. See Goetz' ample description of this magnificent specimen of Koburger's press.

- 9723 BIBLE TEUTSCH, der ander Tayl, (Proverbs to Revelations) stout folio, the first edition of the rare Otmar Bible, slightly differing from the second, 1518, with numerous rude and curious woodcuts, in the original oak bds. with several rough leaves, 20s Augsburg, Hans Otmar, 1507
- 9724 BIBLIA: das ist: Die gantze Heilige Schrift: Deusch, auff's new zugericht, D. MART. LUTH. 2 vols. folio, titles within woodcut borders, and numerous fine woodcuts by Lucas Kranach, scattered through the text, fine copy in the original stamped hogskin, marked with the date, 1547, VERY RARE, £36. Wittenberg, Hans Lufft, 1541

Goetz gives a long description of the Bible, which he describes as "indisputably the most remarkable edition in the entire series of the Luther Bibles." His own copy he considered "one of the most precious jewels in his library." After further stating that it contains the full and perfect result of the labours which had employed Luther and his assistants for many years, he proceeds to say that "It is difficult to find a copy of this edition, and more difficult still to find a complete one." The above copy is collated and quite perfect, varying only from Goetz' description in that the woodcuts round the title of Vol. I. differ from those he mentions, and that the back of title is blank. Again, the back of title to Vol. II. is not blank, as in Goetz', but covered with a large engraving of the Saxon Arms. The woodcuts are very finely designed and executed: in some of those that illustrate Revelations, the dragon appears wearing a tiara.

- 9725 DIE GANTZE BIBEL, der unsprünglichē Ebraischenn unnd Griechischenn warheyt nach auff's aller treuwlichst verteutschet, stout sq. 12mo. fine copy, RED MOROCCO extra, gilt edges, £8. Zürich, C. Froschower, 1530

In the Swiss dialect, and printed in a peculiar type which partakes partly of the Roman and partly of the Gothic character.

- 9726 DIE HEILIGE SCHRIFT, nach Dr. Martin Luther's Übersetzung mit Einleitungen und Anmerkungen, herausg. durch GERLACH, 6 vols. in 7, 8vo. hf. calf, 28s Berlin, 1847-48

This edition of the Bible occupies in Germany the same place which Scott's Bible does in England, the editor being one of the most eminent amongst the Evangelical party.

- 9726* BIBEL, nach Luther's Uebersetz. sm. 8vo. cloth, 3s 6d 1848
- 9727 PSALTER TEUTSCH, folio, woodcut initials coloured and illuminated, fine copy in the original stamped hogskin binding, £6. 15s Nürnberg, J. Petreius, 1525

VERY RARE. This copy corresponds with the description of his own copy given by Götz, and may be the same. See his account of its rarity and peculiarities, in Vol. III, Deutsche Bibeln, p. 158.

- 9728 PROPHETEN (Alle) nach Hebraischer sprach verteutschet, sm. folio, woodcut title, in the original binding, £2. 2s Augsburg, S. Otmar, 1527

This volume cannot be identified with any published in the year 1526.

- 9731 HIOB, Deutsch, mit Einleitung von Umbreit, 8vo. ed. 2s 6d Heidelb. 1832

- 9732 [DAS NEWE TESTAMENT DEUTZSCH] Second Edition of Luther's Translation, 2 parts in 1 vol. folio, woodcuts, fine copy in the original binding, no title page, £5. (Wittenberg, 1522)

EXTREMELY RARE. This is apparently an unknown second edition of Luther's Testament. To judge from the comparisons afforded by Goetz, it must have followed the first, and preceded the so-called second edition of 1522. The first part is foliated I—CI; a blank leaf follows, then a "Vorred" of 5 leaves, and afterwards the second part numbered I—LXXVIII leaves.

- 9733 TESTAMENT (Das New) yetzund recht grüntlich teutsch, mit gantz gelerten Vorreden, sm. folio, title within borders, and many spirited woodcuts through the text, a few small wormholes in the latter part of the volume, original stamped calf, £2. 16s Basel, Adam Petri, 1522

- 9734 DAS NEWE TESTAMENT mit fleyss verteutsch; fol. large and beautiful woodcut of the Adoration, and small cuts at the commencement of each book, as well as woodcut capitals throughout, a few insignificant wormholes, large copy in the original stamped binding, oak covers, very rare., £4. 4s Nürnberg, Frid. Peypus, 1524

This edition is curious from a typographical error in the V. chapter of the Epistle to the Galatians, v. 6, where the words 'Glaube,' and 'Liebe,' are made to usurp each other's places. It is one of the most beautifully printed editions, and contains the prefaces to each book; and so rare as to have been unknown to Palm, whilst Goetz emphatically places it "amongst the greatest book-rarities."

- 9735 NEWE TESTAMENT gantz yetzt klärlich ausz dem rechten grundt teutsch, mit gargelerten Vorreden, etc. 12mo. numerous woodcuts, very fine copy in old Venetian morocco, gilt gauffré edges, £8. 10s Basel, T. Wolff, 1524

This third Basel edition by Wolff—which is a republication of Luther's text,—is very rare.

- 9736 NEW TESTAMENT durch L. Emser säligē vteuscht, 12mo. woodcuts, some of which have been coloured, in the original binding, £3. Leyptick, 1528

- 9737 ANDER THAYL des Evangelii S. Lucas von der APOSTEL GESCHICHTE (durch M. LUTHER), 12mo. PRINTED ON VELIUM, with initial woodcut, green morocco extra, gilt edges, VERY RARE, £3. 16s (? 1522-30)

This portion of Luther's translation of the New Testament contains the entire Acts of the Apostles, and is only called "Ander Thayl" because the Acts were formerly treated as the second part of St. Luke's Gospel. There is no date, nor can a description of this edition be found in Goetz or elsewhere; but from a comparison with the other editions, it must have been printed between 1522 and 1530.

- 9738 Low German or Saxon. BIBLIA, dat ys: de gantze Hillige Schrift, vordüdeschet dorch Doct. MART. RARE. Dr. Theodore Williams' copy fetched £4. 14s 6d.

- 9739 BIBLIA dat ys de gantze Hillige Schrift, Düdesch, de M. Luther, 3 parts in 1 vol. sm. folio, one leaf mended, titles within woodcut borders largely illustrated, russia, good copy, £4. 4s

Magdeborch, Wolfgang Kirchner, 1578

RARE. Goetz devotes four pages of his edition." It is the first edition of the Low Saxon Bible with marginal notes.

- 9740 OLLDE TESTAMENT (the Pentateuch) Düdesch MART. LUTHER, 12mo. in the dialect of Lower Saxony, woodcuts, fine copy in the original stamped pigskin, clasps, EXCEEDINGLY RARE, £8. 8s Wittenberch, N. Schyrlenz, 1525

This edition is not mentioned by Götz or Brunet.

This is a Concordance of the Alexandrine copy of the Greek Septuagint, with the corresponding Hebrew words. The Index of the second volume furnishes a valuable Hebrew-Greek Lexicon, by giving the Hebrew words with their various renderings in Greek. For methodical and judicious arrangement, it is perhaps the best Concordance published in any language; and it is particularly useful as a key to the Alexandrine Greek, which is the basis of the Evangelical.—DR. HALES.

s. l. typ. nom. et anno (Basileæ, typis B. Rodt et B. Richel, 1470-1)

The following extract is taken from Bibliotheca Susexiana. Vol. I. page 103:—"I regard this edition of the Vulgate as of the greatest rarity, and I do not know of any public or private library in which another copy is to be found. It is a very fine edition printed on stout paper, with remarkably black ink, and is the joint work of two printers. The first volume is attributed to Berthold Rodt, the first who exercised the art of printing at Basle, and this Bible is most likely the first work printed in that city. Of the works of Rodt there is no specimen to be found with a date. The second volume is said to have been printed by Bernard Richel, and the characters employed appear to be the same as those used by this artist in the "Decretum Gratiani of 1476."

"Braun has given a detailed account of this edition, of which he says he has seen three copies, and that they were all printed in the same manner; from which it is to be presumed that the two printers united together to complete this work, an enterprise too considerable for any single artist of that period to undertake. Braun subscribes to the opinion of this Bible being executed between 1460 and 1465, but there does not appear to be sufficient reason to date the impression so early."

"Santander (an excellent authority) has placed the edition between 1470 and 1471, &c."

- 9847 BIBLIA cum Concordantiis Veteris et Novi Testamenti et Sacrorum Canonum, stout folio, numerous woodcuts, rubricated headings and initials, in the original boards, covered with leather, fine large copy with numerous rough lower edges, £3. 10s

Lugduni, J. Sacon, expensis A. Koberger de Nuremburgis, 1513

Above the title is a woodcut figure, representing St. Jerome kneeling, headed by these words in large Gothic characters,—"Sanctus Hieronymus interpres Biblie." The woodcuts are 144 in number, and some are of very curious character.—It is curious to find the "vir notabilis," Koberger, the illustrious printer of Nuremberg, resorting to a Lyons printer after more than forty years experience of typography.

- "A MOST INTERESTING VOLUME TO THE BIBLICAL COLLECTOR. The first work containing two impressions of the large woodcut of St. Matthew, which occurs in the only known fragment of THE NEWE TESTAMENT, IN ENGLISHE (TRANSLATED BY WILLIAM TYNDALE), assumed to have been begun at Cologne in the office of Peter Quentell, and finished printing at Worms by Peter Schoeffer, 1525, (now in the Grenville Collection).
- The Apocalypse contains about 20 large well-executed woodcuts (one of them dated 1525) which were no doubt originally intended for Tyndale's New Testament, the printing of which was so strangely interrupted by the treachery of JOHANN COCHLEUS, then residing at Cologne, seeing this very book of Rupertus through the Press, who in another work confesses that he contrived to seduce some of the workmen of the neighbouring printer, Quentell, into a pot house, and having loosed their tongues, drew out from them their secret that they were working on a New Testament in English for a certain Englishman (Tyndale). The opponent of Luther thus became the frustrator of Tyndale.
- This curious volume also contains some of the excessively rare ornamented Capital letters (large and small) from the identical wood blocks used in Coverdale's Bible of 1535. "Sunbeams, it is said, may be extracted from cucumbers, but the process is difficult." Perhaps from the above facts an expert bibliographer may extract light and evidence regarding the secret printing abroad of Tyndale's Testament and Coverdale's Bible."

This version, made for the use of the Protestants of the Grison country, and printed under the patronage of George I. of England, is rarely to be found in fine condition. In the second vol. sheets N, O, P, Q, are printed on smaller paper of rather a finer quality, and probably intended to match, as in two other copies these sheets are similar to this. This copy has the dedication to George I., which was inserted only in the copies intended for England.

The Editor has collected a series of the plans of many different designers, best adapted to the requirements of modern husbandry under all its phases of breeding, feeding, and dairying, in various localities and climates, thus supplying the landowner, farmer and architect with an exposition of the leading principles of this branch of constructive art, as they are illustrated by accomplished results on the farms of our foremost agriculturalists; and setting forth at one view the present state of our knowledge on this subject. This work, therefore, is one which must prove of essential service to those interested in farming.

Mr. Denton has represented 24 specimens of homesteads, the plans being accompanied with descriptive matter not only concerning the buildings, but also the farms upon which they are situated, and the mode of husbandry to which they apply. They embrace covered homesteads, and homesteads distinguished by special accommodation for the rearing and feeding of all descriptions of stock; care having been taken to select examples from farms of various sizes, as well as from those characteristic of different localities, in order that persons concerned may study precedents analogous to their particular requirements.

"The Royal Monastery of Batalha is one of the most celebrated edifices in Europe. Its beautiful arches are fretted and pinnaced and crocketed in the best style of Gothic at its best period, and the graceful arching of the roof, unsupported by console or column, is unequalled. Every object so pure in taste, so harmonious in colour; and the Plantagenet cast of the whole building conveyed home to my bosom a feeling so interesting, so congenial, that I could hardly persuade myself to move away."—Beckford.

The history of the most ancient maritime nations affords conclusive evidence of the importance which they attached to the construction of secure and extensive Harbours, as indispensably necessary to the extension of commerce and navigation, and to the successful establishment of colonies in distant parts of the globe.

To this important subject, and more especially with reference to the vast extension of our commerce with foreign nations, the attention of the British Government has of late years been worthily directed; and as this may be reasonably expected to enhance the value of any information which may add to our existing stock of knowledge in a department of Civil Engineering as yet but imperfectly understood, its contribution at the present time may become generally useful to the Engineering Profession.

The Plates are executed by the best mechanical Engravers; the views finely engraved under the direction of Pye: all the Engineering Plates have dimensions, with every explanatory detail for professional use.

"The leading characteristics of this publication are derived from a large collection of documents inherited by the Author from his father, the late Mr. RENNIE, in addition to many others resulting from his own extensive professional experience both at home and abroad; and contributions from the most distinguished British and Foreign Engineers, and in all cases from the most authentic and hitherto inaccessible sources of information, have been obtained.

This Work is now submitted to the notice of the British and Foreign Governments, to Professional Engineers, and others of all nations who feel interested in the perfect construction and maintenance of Docks and Harbours—so indispensable in the formation and equipment of naval armaments for the protection of trade and commerce with every portion of the civilised world, and invaluable as asylums for mariners.”

133 The preceding 4 lots, consisting of 133 bound volumes, and altogether of nearly 1000 Tracts and Opera minora, illustrative of the History of Engineering, were collected by Mr. John Rennie and Sir John Rennie, the two great Engineers, and they ought to be secured for some Public Library. It would be impossible to get again together such a collection, as from the trifling value of many of these books and tracts at the time of publication, they were read and destroyed.

The four lots, priced separately £36. 16s, will be sold together for £25.

This splendid volume is worthy the attention of the connoisseur. Very little is known of this English Artist, who excelled in depicting pastoral landscapes, figures of cattle, etc. rivaling even Cuyt and Berghem.

VORAGINE (Jacopo di) Legende di tutte i Sancti et le Sancte, dalla Romana Sedia acceptati & honorati (tradotte da Nicolao de Manerbi), folio, FIRST EDITION, slightly stained, and several leaves mended, the margin ornamented with 52 original pen and ink DRAWINGS, by Andrea MANTEGNA, in the master's best style, russia extra, gilt edges, from Dr. Wellesley's library, £36. "EXTREMELY RARE. De Bure had not seen it, when he wrote his Bibliographie Instructive, and Crofts had it not"—MS. Note by the late Mr. Heber. "Belle et très-rare édition, ornée de figures assez bien gravées sur bois."—Brunet. The woodcuts are very remarkable for their spirit and effect, and are finished with a delicacy seldom observable in works of the period.

The present is a beautiful copy of one of the most curious publications of the Fifteenth Century. It contains the Life of Æsop and his Fables with an Italian Version and a moral explanation, a paraphrase and a parallel story extracted from the Chronicles of Italy, or from some event of recent occurrence and affixed to each Fable.

The division of this grand work is into three parts: Architecture, 73 plates; II Sculpture, 51 plates; III. Painting, 204 plates. To Antiquaries and lovers of the Fine Arts, this work is indispensable; it connects the works of Winckelman and Cicognara, and forms with them a most interesting series.

"This fine work was the first in which the idea of exhibiting the Progress of Art, by a series of its noblest monuments, was perfectly carried out. By a series of accurate Engravings from celebrated Monuments, we trace the transitions of Art from the classic period to our own times. Sculpture, Painting, the Art of Illumination, and the Art of Engraving on Wood, on Gems, and on Medals are similarly represented.

"It is a work that has long been sought and prized by all who could afford the high price at which only it was to be procured. No Library, Architect, Painter, Sculptor, or any one connected with the Fine Arts, should be without such a work."

"Mr. Binns' book is an important addition to ceramic literature, and will always be a local treasure. Mr. Binns writes tersely and well, tells what he has to tell in good simple English, and there is method in his arrangement of the various phases of his subject. Commencing with a history of ancient pottery and porcelain, he gives us a succinct account of the various early receipts for making porcelain; and then after a passing notice of the various European manufactures in 1750, he introduces us to Worcester ware, which he traces through all its various peculiarities, styles, and changes. Meanwhile we congratulate him on the production of a valuable and interesting book, which we heartily commend to our readers."

The cuneiform system of letters was a species of picture writing, invented, not by the Semitic inhabitants of Babylon, but by those who preceded them. This writing was, however, reduced by the Semitic race to letters, and adapted to the articulation of their language. Their mode of writing consisted of several elements. There was the ideographic, or picture-writing, and the phonetic, which was equivalent to the alphabet of their language. The cuneiform inscriptions were divided into three branches, Persian, Scythic, and Assyrian.

This series contains early views of London, Edinburgh, Bristol, Cambridge, Norwich, Canterbury, Chester, Exeter, and York, also views of the Palaces at Windsor, Non-such, and Richmond, with the Costume of the English and other Nations at the period. The sixth part is very uncommon.

George Braun ou Bruin, prêtre et Chanoine de Cologne, né en 1541 et mort en 1622, est l'auteur de cet ouvrage : les figures sont gravées par Franc. Hogenberg, de Malines, et Simon Novelanus (van den noel). Cet ouvrage, dont il est difficile de réunir les six volumes, a été négligé par presque tous les bibliographes ; il mérite cependant une attention particulière et d'être placé dans les plus belles bibliothèques, surtout lorsque les planches sont enluminées. Il contient les plans topographiques et la description de grand nombre de villes, qu'il est intéressant de comparer avec les plans modernes. On a ajouté sur le plan de chaque ville le Costume des hommes et des femmes du temps. George Hoefnagel, d'Anvers, a communiqué à l'auteur plusieurs plans des villes d'Espagne, et Corn. Chaymœ ceux de plusieurs Villes d'Allemagne.

BEST EDITION of this elegant and highly esteemed work, invaluable to artists.

This has Sessa the printer's large woodcut of a cat, respecting which it is observed in Dibdin's Decameron, that "the late Bishop of Ely

"Having several times had occasion to refer to Mr. Cotman's Sepulchral Brasses of Norfolk, perhaps our feeble voice may be allowed to bear testimony to the antiquarian research, and the correctness of drawing, which pervade this publication; a work highly interesting to the antiquary and the man of taste; as throwing much light on the early history of this country; and bearing an equal degree of artistical merit with the 'Antiquities of Norfolk' by the same artist."

A truly handsome book, the most sumptuous publication of Murray's press, and necessary to all Art Lovers. Whoever has been to Italy, or is about to go there, must have this book.

"The book is a welcome contribution to the library of Art, none the less so that it deals with the personal and human element of the subject, and avoids as is not always the case, to treat as paramount, the merely historical section of the same. An excellent index with which this book is furnished places it far above that of Kugler in serviceableness."—Athenaeum, Dec. 3, 1864.

"This work is by far the richest mine of information upon Italian painting that has been opened to us for many a long day; and is also rich in views and facts new to England."

"When we noticed, some time ago, the Cavaliere De Rossi's Inscriptiones Christianae Urbis Romae, we mentioned that he was engaged upon a new history and description of the Roman Catacombs. Of this great work the first volume now lies before us, and we hasten to give some account of it to those of our readers who are interested in this most curious and important branch of Christian archaeology. Every one who knows anything of the modern literature of the subject, and every one who has visited Rome itself, knows that the Cavaliere de Rossi is the highest living authority on all questions about the Catacombs and their contents. And he has never been even suspected of a wish to invent or to distort facts for a polemical object. So that we believe he may be implicitly trusted in matters which have given occasion before now, in other hands, for much angry theological controversy. It is some credit to the Pontifical Government that so learned and valuable work as this should be published under its auspices. The book is, moreover, a beautiful specimen of typography, and the plans and chromo-lithographs are well executed. Nor is the price at all excessive for a quarto volume of above four hundred pages, with so many good illustrations. We mention this because we hope that no public libraries will be deterred by a fear of its cost from purchasing this remarkable work. The history of the Catacombs ought to be accessible to all students of Christian archaeology. It is to be carefully remembered that the antiquities of the primitive Church of Rome are the common heritage of all Christendom."

"It is extremely scarce, and but for the kindness of friends both in Italy and England, I should have been unable to refer to it. The first volume of a reprint (quite void of notes) appeared in 1840. The work is a storehouse of information respecting the Neapolitan artists of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries, and many citations are also given verbatim from the MS. collections of the painters Giovanni Angelo Criscuolo, Massimo Stanzioni, and others, respecting the history of Art at Naples."—Lord Lindsay's Christian Art, Vol. II. p. 148.

This is the genuine first issue of the work, which is out of print and raised in price; it was in 1862 reproduced with a French translation added, and with inferior impressions of the engravings. The weird and fantastic character of these illustrations, their gloomy sublimity and wild imaginativeness, are universally acknowledged.

- wise at page 203 of the Third Part (which is blank in this) there is the portrait of Anselmus de Boodt, author of the Isagoge to the Third Part, which he professes to have written not in the style that Typotius wrote those to the two First Parts, intelligible to himself "gravissimo stylo, sibi non aliis," but to readers of moderate skill in Latin. - "Collectors of engravings and old woodcuts are familiar with that class of curious books which aim at typification of moral truths by symbolical images and devices. In the middle of the 16th century this class of books assumed in Italy the character of a distinct literature; and its tendency to multiply passed to France, Germany, Holland, Spain and England, until their issue was so large as to form a considerable library, when brought together by collectors. At this day it is hardly possible to form a notion of the number of these works or of their characteristic quaintness. The symbolism of the Middle Ages was secularized for their production and art, although then eminently realistic, was inexhaustible in the eccentricity of the conceptions which it sought to turn into pictures for their embellishment.
- "Such works have long passed out of fashion, and the specimens which turn up at book sales are now so rare as to command very high prices. There is no class of books more attractive to the true bibliophile who cares for distinctive excellence rather than rarity."

This superb work is the most complete ever published in illustration of the Antiquities and Art Treasures of Spain; a country so frequently spoken of, yet so little known. Many Spanish gentlemen, numbering amongst them the most celebrated names, have bestowed their labour of love, literary and artistic, upon the "Espagne Artistique;" and the land of the Cid, in all its grand and romantic beauty, with all its old historic pride, seems present to the eye that rests upon those beautiful illustrations. In some, the outer life of the people, and scenes beneath the bright sun and pellucid atmosphere of Spain, contrasts with others which shadow forth the dark and solemn majesty of Cathedral aisles. No Art library is complete without this magnificent work.

Cette magnifique porte, faite en concours des Brunellesco, Donatello, Jacopo della Quercia, Niccolò d'Arezzo, Francesco da Vandabrina, Simone da Colle, et qui, un siècle plus tard, faisait dire à Michel Ange qu'elle était digne de fermer le paradis, est encore de nos jours l'admiration des artistes de talent et des connoisseurs.

Ghiberti's great gate from the Baptistery at Florence is one of the two pronounced by Michael Angelo to be fit for the "gates of Paradise." A pupil of Giotto, Ghiberti is said to have begun them when just of age, carrying off the palm from his rivals Donatello and Brunelleschi, finishing them after twenty years' labour, in which he was aided by his father and nine other sculptors.

"The beautiful compositions by Ghiberti, in the Gates of the Baptistery at Florence, 'fit,' as Michael Angelo said, 'to be the gates of Paradise,' are as good examples as could be brought before you, of their kind."—Athenæum, March 6, 1858.

L'un des plus beaux monumens élevés aux arts est, sans contredit, cette vaste collection d'estampes, commencée en 1802, sous le nom de Musée Français, continuée sous le titre de Musée Royal, par MM. Laurent pere et fils. A l'exposition de 1819, le medaille d'or fut décernée à Mr. Henri Laurent, jury considerant cet ouvrage comme le plus parfait qui ait eu lieu depuis l'existence de la gravure.

This very interesting publication is undoubtedly the most magnificent work that has issued from the Parisian Press; and will perpetuate the matchless collection which formerly graced the Louvre, combining, as it did, nearly all the excellence of which the various countries on the Continent could boast in painting and sculpture. And although a chain of wonderful events has restored many of the right est gems of art to their rightful owners, so much of excellence still remains, that the gallery of the Louvre is yet, to the man of taste, the greatest attraction in Paris, and the very circumstance of the dispersion of so many wonderful productions gives additional value to the work which describes them in a collected state.

It is necessary to observe, that this work is not a mere collection of Prints, as it contains many luminous and masterly dissertations upon the state of the arts in different ages, observations upon the style, excellence, and defects of the various schools in painting; a minute description of every painting, &c. drawn with extreme care and correctness.

With the ROYAL GALLERY OF PICTURES, preserved in Buckingham Palace, the private property of HER MOST GRACIOUS MAJESTY, the public are not altogether unacquainted; for at the request of the Directors of the British Institution, many of these Paintings have been permitted to enrich their annual Exhibitions of the works of the Old Masters. The taste and munificence of two successive Sovereigns have produced a Collection of Pictures, genuine, interesting, and splendid. Other galleries may be more numerous, but none have been formed on principles of such severe and scrutinizing selection. No picture is to be met with in Buckingham Palace, whose history, from the artist's time to the present day, is doubtful; none but the finest and purest specimens of genius,—none but works whose inspiration guided every line of the pencil,—have been admitted.

Some of the pictures formed part of the well-known collection of Lady Holderness; some were selected from the galleries of Lord Rendlesham, and M. Schmidt of Amsterdam. The entire collection of Dutch Pictures which belonged to the late Sir Francis Baring, was secured for his late Majesty King George the Fourth, as were also Rabens' "Portrait of his Wife," from a descendant of the artist; and the splendid picture of the "Marriage of St. Catherine," by VANDYKE, from the collection of M. de Burtin, of Brussels.

The late JOHN YOUNG, Esq., whose descriptive catalogues of the Galleries of the DUKE OF SUTHERLAND, the MARQUIS OF WESTMINSTER, the ANGERSTEIN COLLECTION, &c. &c., justly hold so conspicuous a rank in the estimation of the amateur, selected this series of Subjects, presented to the public, under the title of "THE ROYAL GALLERY OF PICTURES." It was his intention "to produce highly finished etchings, with appropriate letter-press descriptions of the Dutch and Flemish Pictures, and some of our own School;" and he was engaged upon the work at the time of his decease. Since that period the plates have been gradually progressing, in the hands of some of the most eminent engravers of the present day, without regard to cost, having been chiefly executed by J. BURNET, S. W. REYNOLDS, W. GREATBACH, J. C. ALLEN, T. JEAYONS, J. P. QUILLEY, and W. J. TAYLOR; from Drawings made expressly for the Work by ROYAL PERMISSION.

The FIFTH Series is very rare and usually wanting. The copies in the "middle state" are often mistaken for copies in the best state, though the difference in appearance, size, and power of the Impressions is very considerable.

This valuable and splendid work on the Noble Families of Italy by Count Litta, unequalled by any genealogical publication in the world, has for some time lain comparatively useless. In fact it has not existed as a book, but merely as a collection of genealogical tables, with superb plates, which could only be used with trouble and a loss of time. It has hitherto been found a great difficulty to arrange the work for binding, from the fact that no other titles and collations to the various families existed beyond those on the wrappers; no general titles, table of contents, and indexes having ever been issued with the book. The advertiser having sold many copies of this splendid publication was so much struck with the necessity of supplying those deficiencies, that he has arranged and printed at his expense Titles, Tables of Contents, and a General Index. By means of this set of Titles, &c. Fascicolo 1 to Dispensa 136 can be bound in 8 volumes. The continuation, Dispense 137-149, Milan, 1858-65, will form the commencement of volume IX. A Title and Table of Contents of Vol. 9 will be issued by the advertiser as soon as material enough for such a volume has been published.

Having had considerable experience in binding Litta's work, I offer my assistance to proprietors of sets. Gentlemen possessing incomplete copies can have imperfections and the continuation supplied.

This noble volume is further illustrated by Engravings peculiar to the County from other sources, neatly laid down; also by a copy of the Rev. Cooper Wiliams's History of Sudeley Castle, in Gloucestershire, with a View; THREE DRAWINGS, BY ROBINS, of the Thatched House, near Cheltenham, taken in 1745, the Views being those of a south-east prospect of Sudeley Castle and the Town of Winchcombe; south-east prospect of Hales Abbey, County Gloucester—both in colours; a west prospect of the Spa and Town of Cheltenham, in Indian ink—this latter is on VELLUM, and being taken when only 35 years had elapsed after the Mineral Spa had been discovered, and long before much of a place of fashionable resort had been built up around it, deserves the especial attention of the Gloucestershire collector.

The complete book is by far the grandest and most elaborate work published in any country, of its Roman Antiquities. It is supposed no province of the Roman Empire contained a greater number of extensively and richly decorated Roman Villas than England; so much at least may be inferred from the splendid vestiges of Roman Edifices and Pavements. This work was the result of twenty years' elaborate research. The greater part of the Drawings were made by Richard Smirke, Esq., an Artist distinguished for the accuracy of his pencil, and his zeal for antiquarian exactness. The plates exhibit most interesting and curious examples of Ancient Art and Magnificence.

This splendid work must always form a most important article in an English Topographical Library. Very few complete copies exist, and these may rank among the rarest works on English Topography, as the Plates have been destroyed.

In 1820 the publishers advertised—"Complete sets of this Work may be had, £37. 16s in boards, or with the volume of Woodchester Antiquities, £48. 6s. The number of complete sets is necessarily limited to Fifty. The plates of Vol. I. Vol. II. and of the Woodchester volume having been destroyed." The Large Paper Gloucestershire was already then out of print.

NO PERFECT COPY HAS OCCURRED AT ANY OF THE LONDON SALES FOR THE LAST TWELVE YEARS.

"Of the importance of this great book to the antiquarian and the historical world it is hardly possible to speak too highly. Its object was to lay before the public a vast series of objects of ancient art, of architecture, of sculpture, etc., and to illustrate the whole by plates, executed in the highest style which the age admitted of. This the learned author effected most completely; and it is to this very book that the foundation of all our most important branches of archæological knowledge at the present day may be ascribed. The obligations of the continental antiquary to Montfaucon are immense; and his work will stand the test of future ages, as one of the most astonishing and certainly one of the most extensive monuments of antiquarian research ever made by one man. The price is still from fifteen to twenty guineas, and it is likely to increase rather than to sink in value."—H. L. Jones. Gent's Mag. Dec. 1855.

"Mr. Ottley is the first among us who has treated of the early art of Engraving in a manner which it deserves to be treated; and the embellishments which he has introduced are equally distinguished for their felicity and fidelity."—Dibdin's Decameron.

"See Ottley's excellent History of Engraving."—Lord Lindsay's Christian Art, v. iii. p. 354.

Uttersen's copy, mor. fetched, 1857, £5. 15s 6d; and was priced afterwards £6. 16s 6d. The first issue, dated 1826, contains 100 facsimiles only; the second issue has 129, with a corresponding additional text (pp. 21-26).

The facsimiles of the Niello-Engravings, formerly in the possession of Sir Mark Sykes, are executed on silver, in exact imitation of the originals, besides which an impression of each plate is given on India paper. Very few copies Oxford.

This beautiful work may be fairly stated to be unpublished, as very few copies were ever distributed, and those chiefly as presents by the late Proprietor. The accurate knowledge of the late Mr. Ottley in this peculiar department of the Fine Arts is here displayed. It would be impossible for the collector to have more faithful copies of the rare specimens contained in the present elegant volume.

- 11177 ROBERTS'S HOLY LAND, Syria, Idumaea and Arabia, with historical descriptions by Croly, 3 vols. atlas folio, 125 magnificent plates, COLOURED LIKE THE ORIGINAL DRAWINGS, each plate mounted on cardboard, and fastened on guards, 1842—EGYPT and NUBIA, from Drawings made on the spot, by David Roberts, R.A., with historical descriptions by Brockedon, complete, 21 parts in 13, forming 3 vols. atlas folio, 123 PLATES MOST BEAUTIFULLY COLOURED TO IMITATE THE ORIGINAL DRAWINGS, and mounted on cardboard, (pub. at £44. 2s) 1846-9—together 6 vols. atlas folio, hf. bd. blue MOROCCO, full gilt backs, gilt edges, £70. 1842-49

A GENUINE COLOURED COPY; some speculator had a few ordinary copies coloured, but these are easily detected by the fact, that the ordinary copies have the Vignettes on the text, whilst in the PROOFS, and in the ORIGINAL COLOURED copies the vignettes are on separate plates.

Roberts' "Holy Land and Egypt" is a really noble and grand publication. The great artist has represented, in his masterly style, all the famous sites and stupendous Architectural Remains of the Land of the Bible, of Ancient Egypt, Nubia, etc. such as they appear now.

Every one of the Engravings is a perfect work of Art; to every Bible Reader, every Oriental Scholar, and to gentlemen who resided or travelled in the East, Roberts's works will afford the most pleasant reminiscences.

This grand work gives a faithful idea of the most celebrated Sites and Temples of the Land of the Bible, as well as of the most renowned Monuments of Egypt, Syria, Idumaea, and other Oriental Countries, and it will ever remain a vivid picture of that marvellous East, the cradle of our Religion.

- "The illustration of this poem was the last task for the public undertaken by the author: a task, it may be added, beyond the compass of any one less easy in fortune, since the production of that volume is said to have cost £10,000, and the days had not then set in when cheap literature on the one hand had been balanced by a luxury in typography and engraving undreamed of by our fathers. There can be no question that the taste no less than the cost, brought to bear on this volume, in which some of the most exquisite designs of Turner alternate with those of Stothard, mark a period in the history of English book illustration. To this day Rogers' 'Italy' remains without a peer."—ATHENÆUM, Dec. 22, 1855.

It is surprising how little the Human mind has changed; the same CREDULITY, by which Law ruined thousands of Families early in the 18th century, has ruined thousands of Families in this century. So many are anxious to make their fortunes by simply rushing into speculations without bestowing upon the enterprise any thought whatsoever. Forethought and patient labour is the only true source of success.

"The highest praise we can give to these is to say they so perfectly resemble the originals, that for a few shillings each the world may obtain good facsimiles of this set of landscapes. What the English School owes to these works of Turner is beyond estimate. We believe no student of Art can look even casually at them without considerable benefit. No lover of Nature can regard them without delight that increases the longer they are examined. We feel ourselves performing a duty in commending to the utmost this magnificent series. It is our conviction that more knowledge of the soundest and purest Art is to be gained by study of these marvellous drawings than by visiting the public galleries for a lifetime. They are lectures, sermons, or poems, just as the mind is fitted to receive them."—Athenaeum, Nov. 30, 1861.

The lives of the painters by Walpole, with notes by the Rev. Mr. Dallaway, form five perfectly resplendent volumes. In the good old times of Bibliomania, this work would have walked of his own accord into the mahogany book-case of half the collectors in London.—Dibdin's Bibliomania.

"So elaborate, costly, and suggestive a work as that which has been produced by Mr. J. B. Waring, with the aid of Mr. Vincent Brooks, deserves to be set prominently before those who are interested in the subject of it. To produce a work by Chromolithography, containing forty-one large folio plates, blazing with colour, on paper de luxe, solidly bound, involves no small risk financially; and the effort, when worthily made, as this is, should be supported by those who concern themselves with the arts of the country. For years our architecture has been bald and lifeless;—restricted to ill-understood imitations, and permitted no aid from her children arts. The forty-one plates in the work before us are appropriated to stained glass, eight; fresco ornament and figures, eight; wood inlay, five; and marble and enamel inlay, twenty."—Builder.

The MINIATURES and ORNAMENTS of ANGLO-SAXON and IRISH MANUSCRIPTS; One Volume, imperial folio, illustrated in a SERIES OF FIFTY-FOUR SUPERB PLATES, most elaborately executed in exact facsimile of the originals in gold and colours; with a descriptive text to each Plate, serving as a History of British Paleography and Pictorial Art, by J. O. WESTWOOD, M.A., F.L.S., &c., Oxford. 1868

THE Work now announced as nearly ready for publication may be regarded as constituting the First Chapter of a HISTORY of the FINE ARTS in this KINGDOM, extending from the Roman occupation of Great Britain to the Norman Conquest.

By most persons this "dark age," as it has been termed, will scarcely be supposed capable of affording materials for such a history; and indeed, with the exception of a very few examples given by Strutt, Astle, and Shaw, no opportunity had been afforded to the public of judging of the marvellous beauty and excessive intricacy of the ornamentation and designs of ANGLO-SAXON and IRISH MANUSCRIPTS, until the publication of my "Palaographia Sacra Pictoria," in which I devoted many plates to these marvels of Art.

The study of these Manuscripts has, indeed, brought out the singular fact that, at a period when the Fine Arts may be said to have been almost extinct in Italy and other parts of the Continent—namely, from the fifth to the end of the eighth century—a style of art had been established, cultivated, and brought to a wonderful state of perfection in these islands, absolutely distinct from that of all other parts of the civilized world, and which was adopted and imitated in the schools founded on the Continent by Charlemagne, as well as in the monastic establishments founded or visited by Anglo-Saxon and Irish Missionaries, many of which subsequently became the most famous seats of learning.

On this subject Mr. Digby Wyatt, one of the most accomplished of living artists, observes, "In delicacy of handling, and minute but faultless execution, the whole range of paleography offers nothing comparable to these early Irish Manuscripts, and those produced in the same style in England. When in Dublin some years ago, I had the opportunity of studying very carefully the most marvellous of them all—'The Book of Kells'; some of the ornaments of which I attempted to copy, but broke down in despair. Of this very work Mr. Westwood examined the pages as I did, for hours together, without ever detecting a false line or irregular interlacement."

From this fine Manuscript four entire pages are copied in the work now announced, whilst the Libraries of London, Lambeth, Oxford, Cambridge, Durham, Lichfield, Salisbury, Dublin, Paris, Rouen, Boulogne, St. Gall, Copenhagen, Stockholm, Utrecht, St. Petersburg, &c., have been laid under contribution, and have afforded materials for illustration; amongst which are numerous examples of the later Anglo-Saxon Manuscripts, in which an entirely distinct, and equally national style of ornamentation, of a very gorgeous character, was developed in the school of St. Ethelwald.

The facsimiles from the original Manuscripts have been executed by myself with the most scrupulous attention to precision of detail; the majority having, in fact, been made with the assistance of a magnifying glass. This statement will, it is hoped, be a sufficient guarantee for the truthfulness of the Plates contained in the Work. The fac-similes have been re-produced under my own eye, and the utmost care has been bestowed upon the Chromo-lithographic printing: so that the work may be regarded as a small-paper rival of the grand, but enormously expensive Work, of Count BASTARD upon the Miniatures and Ornaments of Early French Manuscripts.

A due amount of descriptive Text will be given, in which the peculiarities of the different styles with reference to their contemporaneous employment in stone and metal ornamentation, are described; together with a careful account of the various Manuscripts from which the examples are given.

Three of the Plates are supplemental, and contain illustrations of contemporary Metal Work, Ivory Carvings, &c.

In addition to the MSS. from which fac-similes are given, the Work will contain a descriptive Catalogue of every other illuminated and ornamented Anglo-Saxon and Irish MS. known to the author.

An accomplished Art Critic, in speaking of Early Celtic Art, said in "The Times" of September 3, 1867:—

"The glorious illuminations of the IRISH MSS., the most exquisitely beautiful designs with which religious art, so prolific in its creations, has ever enriched the world! It is that strangely complicated, interlacing and lacertine knot-work pattern which is so frequently found upon the crosses of the Anglo-Saxon period, and especially common within the kingdom of Northumbria. Introduced into Ireland most probably with Christianity, it there received a very high development by being engrafted upon the native Celtic stock, and thence spread with Irish and Christian teaching, not only in Scotland and the North of England, but to still more distant parts of Europe."

Oxford, September, 1867.

J. O. WESTWOOD.

(Phorceæ) s. l. 1504

L'auteur de cet ouvrage, les vers exceptés, est Georgius Relmisius Anipimius, écrivain inconnu. Les vers Latins que cite l'auteur sont tirés des poésies d'un moine nommé Pierre Rosenhaim. Son recueil a sans doute paru imprimé avant cet ouvrage. Je n'en connais qu'une édition faite Argentine in ædibus Balthasar Pistoris 1544, 8vo. dont voici le titre Sacrarum Litterarum Memoriale, etc. Petri Rosenhaim Monasterii Mellicensis Monachi. Le prologue offre cette singularité que chaque vers commence par une lettre du nom de son auteur et du titre de son ouvrage, en un mot c'est un acrostiche depuis le commencement Chiromancy.

jusqu'à la fin. On peut s'en convaincre par la lecture des lettres réunies qui présentent ce sens; Roseum Memoriale divinorum eloquiorum compilatum per Fratrem Petrum de Rosenhaim Monachum Monasterii Mellicensis.

Cet ouvrage n'est donc pas de Sebastian Brandt comme l'a mal à propos intitulé le relieur. Il a été imprimé à Phorcheim (Phorce) en 1504, par Thomas de Bade surnommé Anselmi. Je viens de découvrir que la 1re édition du Memoriale divinorum Eloquiorum de S. Rosenhaim avait été faite à Nuremberg par Frederic Kreusner en 1493 in 4to.

An arithmetical puzzle, containing a solution of one of the most difficult problems, both of the theory of numbers and geometry of position. It is dedicated to the Doge Giovanni Bembo, and on the back of the Dedication is a Table of Letters, so arranged as to read, any

This volume abounds with small woodcuts executed in outline like the Aldus Poliphilus, and with the same spirit and character. The Life affixed is of a shorter copy, and occupies 4 leaves, the title of it is especially rare. There are in it eighteen miniature cuts, representing St. Jerome, from his birth and tuition to his death and burial. The Epistles take up 266 pages; and the cuts, which are one and two in a page, are all different.

11402 DER WEISS KUNIG, eine Erzehlung von den Thaten Kaiser Maximilian des Ersten; von M. Treitzsaurwein: THE WISE KING, ILLUSTRATIVE OF THE LEARNING, WISDOM, AND ADVENTURES OF THE EMPEROR MAXIMILIAN, folio, 237 large woodcuts by Hans BURGHMAIR, from the original old blocks, a superb tall copy in red morocco extra, gilt and marbled edges, many rough leaves, by Hardy-Mennil, from the Earl of Clare's library, £12.

Wien, 1775

Added is a French text, dated Vienna, 1799.

There are 237 large cuts in this fine work, 92 contain Burghmair's mark, H. B. and one that of Schaeuffelein; they are executed in a very bold manner, all those which contain the mark of Hans Burghmair showing a decided superiority in point of engraving.

"Le livre étrange auquel nous avons emprunté la gravure et les lignes qui précèdent a été commencé en 1512 par l'empereur Maximilien lui-même, et terminé d'après son ordre, en 1514. par Marx Treitzsaurwein, l'un de ses secrétaires. L'ouvrage entier est resté inédit pendant près de trois siècles. Georges-Christophe van Schallenberg avait découvert, le premier, pendant son séjour à Vienne (1631) quelques unes des gravures sur bois du Weiss Kunig, avec une note autographe de Maximilien; il entreprit de les publier en les complétant, mais il mourut laissant son travail inachevé. Plus tard on découvrit d'autres planches à Graetz en Styrie, et on les porta à la bibliothèque impériale de Vienne, où était déjà le manuscrit de Treitzsaurwein. Enfin on publia en 1775 le texte avec les gravures sur bois, dont les planches avaient été rassemblées à grand-peine au nombre de 237. La bibliothèque impériale de Vienne possède de plus 13 gravures dont les planches n'ont pas été retrouvées. L'objet du livre est l'histoire de la naissance, de l'éducation et des actions de Maximilien; on le suit pas à pas depuis son enfance jusqu'à son âge mûr."—Magasin pittoresque, 1835.

- 11404 TEWRDANNKH. Die geuerlicheiten und eins teils der geschichten des löblichen streitbaren und hochberümbten helds und Ritters TEWRDANNKHS: An Allegorical Poem of Knight-Errantry, executed by Melchior Pfintzing, but projected by the Hero of the work himself, the subject matter being the Adventures which the Emperor Maximilian had to undergo, before he could win the beautiful and wealthy Maria of Burgundy, folio, with 118 very large and spirited woodcuts, by Hans Scheufelin and Hans Burgmaier, old calf gilt, £6. 6s

Augsburg, Schönsperger, 1519

This most singular and extraordinary Romance Poem was written for the amusement of the Emperor Charles V. when only king of Spain, by his chaplain, Melchior Pfintzing, who, however, drew his materials from a life of the Emperor Maximilian I., which that monarch had dictated to his secretary, Traut-Saurwein, and it is from this circumstance, probably, that many writers had asserted that Maximilian himself was the author of the poem.

"Schäuffelin was an excellent engraver. I would especially refer to the woodcuts of the Romance of Tewrdanck (first) published in 1517 at Nuremberg, one of the marvels of the early German press."—Lord Lindsay's Christian Art, Vol. III. p. 385.

a Saxon King; St. Rumbold, Bishop of Dublin; Thomas a Becket; and others English. For Symbolical and Sacred Art this volume is particularly suggestive. Each noble Saint has his Coat of Arms introduced.

This copy measures 18½ in. in height and nearly 13 inches in width ; it was bound by Bedford from the original oaken boards, as presented by a Duke of Anhalt, who has written on the fly-leaf and the last leaf of the book : "Hunc librum imposuit Eppūs. Adolfsus Princeps ad Anhalt, anno 1520 in festo divi Johis. baptiste patroni hujus Ducatus."

EDITIO PRINCEPS.—This is a magnificent specimen both of ancient printing and of ancient engraving. "If Koberger," says Dr. Dibdin, "had printed only this Chronicle, he would have done enough to place his name among the most distinguished of his typographical brethren."

It has always been styled, by way of distinction, the Nuremberg Chronicle, and scarcely any volume has been so celebrated for a long series of years. The engravings, which are upwards of 2,200 in number, are in wood, and were executed by Michael Wolgemut and Pleydenwurff, the former of whom was the master of Albert Dürer ; the subjects are Portraits of Illustrious Characters, Views of Towns, &c. &c. In the Bibliotheca Spenceriana it is minutely described, and facsimiles of the cuts are given ; Dr. Dibdin has appropriated no less than twenty-six pages to this article alone.

- 11422 POLIPHILI Hypnerotomachia, cioè Pugna d'Amore in Sogno, ristampato di novo, sm. folio, title mended, but the rest of the book in fine condition, the Worship of Priapus and the other beautiful woodcuts by Bellino, in perfect state, russia extra, gilt edges, £5. Vinegia, figliuoli di Aldo, 1545

This second edition is nearly as rare and valuable as the first. Priced by Thorpe, £6. 6s; Dr. Bliss's copy fetched £5. 10s; and at Libri's sale in 1860, a copy in Grolier binding fetched £28.

The extremely beautiful woodcuts which adorn this very rare and desirable volume are now generally attributed to Giovanni Bellini, the master of Titian and Giorgione, but formerly they were considered as the designs of Raffaello.

For a full and interesting description of the book, and the nature of its contents, see Dr. Dibdin's Bibliotheca Spenceriana, iv. 145-65, where it is designated, "One of the most desirable volumes in the library of a collector, while it presents the most perfect specimen of the press of Aldus, and of the tastefulness of wood engraving in the 15th century. In this latter respect there is no volume to be put in competition with it. Every thing in it conspires to charm the tasteful collector."

There are two unsigned copies of the above engraving given in the "Gravures en bois des anciens Maîtres Allemands" of Becker and Derschau, one a little finer than the other (Vol. II. A 19 and 20). The above agrees in every respect with the first and earlier of the two, with the exception of the signature. Those engravings are attributed in that work to the "premier âge de la gravure jusqu'à Albert Durer."

MANUSCRIPTS.

- 11452 ALBUM AMICORUM JACOBI LAURI, SCULPTORIS ET INCISORIS CELEBERBIMI ROMÆ, 1598-1640, stout sq. 8vo. MANUSCRIPT, with five beautifully finished and highly coloured drawings of female costume, upwards of one hundred and thirty coats of arms emblazoned in the richest gold and colours, with great nicety of execution, and numerous autographs, old calf, £15. 15s Sec. XVI.—XVII.

On the first page of this interesting volume is a large shield of arms of Prince Flavio Orsini, emblazoned on vellum; this is followed by a printed leaf, the Privilege of Clement VIII. to Giacomo Lauro in 1598, with the Arms of the Pope on the opposite side; after which are copies of letters to Lauro from the most illustrious persons of the time, exquisitely written in the finest Italian hand, probably by the artist himself, commencing with one from Sigismund the Third, King of Poland, 1601.

Among the Autographs of Persons of Note are the following:—Henricus Rantzovius, Aug. Barbosa Lusitanus, John Sobiesky, Peter Count Bethlen, George Baron Berkeley, John Ingilby, Ja. Scrymgeour, William Courteney, Nic. Oborsky, Canon of Cracow; Adolphus, Duke of Sleswig and Holstein; Sigismund, Baron of Waldstein; Sir Henry Spelman, Peter Wentworth, Richard Leveson, Joachim Wicquefort, Bernard Walcot, Tobias Potter, J. Imhoff, J. A. Truchsea, Baron Poppenheim, etc. and William Yelverton, with the following inscription:—

“I that have sene the ingennitie of Snor. Jacomo Lauro, and tasted of the delicious fruits of his much to be commended labours, am invited to make choise of these two words above (Meruisse satis) for my motto.”

It is a most interesting monument of the distinguished society of the period, and forms a collection almost unrivalled of its kind.

- 11453 ALPHABET OF ARMS, small 4to. a legibly written Manuscript of the Elizabethan period, nearly 400 pp. calf neat, from Dr. Wellesley's library, £2. 16s
Circa 1590-1600

Many thousands of names of families will be found here, with descriptions of their arms, which would surely be of immense service to the student or historian of Heraldry and Genealogy. The MS. appears to be of IRISH ORIGIN, as the book begins from one end with a list of Irish Peers and Gentry, followed only by an account of the Stanleys in England. The mention of the Desmond Earldom, and the account of the Earl of Derby, are sufficient to establish the date of the volume.

- 11454 ALPHABET OF ARMS, very copious, with the names of the Counties to which the Families belong written on the margins, stout 8vo. MANUSCRIPT of about 700 pp. very neatly written, calf, from Dr. Wellesley's library. £3. 10s
Sec. XVI. (cir. 1580)

An eminent antiquary and genealogist has described this as “a very useful volume.”

- 11455 BANKS (Sir Thomas, the Genealogist and Antiquarian) Manuscript Collections and Correspondence, bound in 3 vols. 4to. hf. morocco gilt, £15. 1812-47

A most interesting and very valuable collection. It consists of Pedigrees, Extracts from Registers (indexed), and numerous letters upon genealogical subjects, by Sir Egerton Brydges, W. Penn, T. Blore, F. M. Rice, Sach. Pole, and others. There are also some copies of an older correspondence, between Sir W. Dugdale and F. Percy. These private letters and memoranda contain some precious fruits of toil and research on the part of these learned writers, which yet by the very circumstances of their production have had no chance of publication. The acquisition of these volumes would undoubtedly be highly desirable for any antiquarian student or collector.

- 11456 BEDFORDSHIRE. Arms of the Gentry of the County of Bedford described, with a few Coats emblazoned, 12mo. neat MS. sd. from Dr. Wellesley's library, 5s
cir. 1830

- 11457 BERNARDI (S.) Epistola de Modo vivendi, Speculum Monachorum, Epistola admonitoria, de Vita Solitaria et ad Parentes, Tractatus de Ordine Vitæ et Morum Institutione; de interiori Domo; Sermones de Gradibus Humilitatis et Superbiæ, de Gradibus Confessionis, et Obedientiæ, etc. 8vo. MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, with illuminated capitals, in the original Medicean binding, £3. 3s Sec. XIV.

At the end in a later handwriting (dated 1453) is added a Sermon of St. Bernard "de Missa." On folio 201 is an early Italian Laude (in Verse, but written to look like Prose) commencing "Sempre te sia in dilecto," which merits attention.

- 11458 BLOUNT (Charles) Common Place Book. "This Vade-Mecum was begun MDCLXXXI. by Charles Blount, ætatis suæ 28," small 8vo. very neat MS. of 380 pp. closely and minutely written, calf neat, £4. 4s 1681-84

Blount was a celebrated Deist, or supposed to be such, whose writings brought down upon him a great deal of censure and persecution. He was in fact one of those men who committed the unpardonable crime of being in advance of their fellows. The present curious MS. is a miscellany of anecdotes, short criticisms, philosophical observations, proverbs, maxims, and stray thoughts, jotted down at random. It may be looked upon as an unformed and unpublished work, presenting a singular picture of the author's mind, and exhibiting a strange compound of wit, wisdom, and indecency. The headings are: Facetiæ, Magic, Mathematics, Natural Philosophy, Historical Miscellanies, Geography, Criticisms on Poets, Dramatists, and their works, especially the men of the time, on Romance writers, etc. Geography, Law, Politics, Succession of the Crown, etc. In connection with the last mentioned heading, there are many curious remarks relative to the existing state of affairs in England, and on the preface appears the following epigram:

Se saw Jalla Roy:

Monm. is a pretty boy,
And Richm. is another,
Shall I both my sons destroy,
To save one Popish brother?

- 11459 BUCKLER (George) Illustrated Description of South Ockenden Church, Essex, small folio, MS. of 25 pp. with 14 very neatly executed Drawings, one of them (a monumental brass) coloured, of which six are on the title and text, the rest separately and carefully done on Drawing Paper, hf. bd. £4. 1854

This careful and excellent Monograph by a professional Architect, who is also an accomplished Antiquary, is dedicated to Samuel Gregory, Esq.

- 11460 CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY. Leges sive Statuta Academiæ Cantabrigiensiæ, sm. 4to. neatly written, calf, from Dr. Wellesley's library, 7s 6d
Dated 1570-71, (copied circa 1680)

These are the famous Elizabethan statutes, compiled by Archbishop Whitgift, which created so much controversy and embroilment. On this head, see Huber's work on the Universities.

At the end there is copied a further English regulation passed afterwards to amend the statutes.

- 11461 CARDUINO, Relatione di Genevra, e Relatione di Genova fatta da Santolon a Luigi XIV, 8vo. UNPUBLISHED MANUSCRIPT, Italian vellum, 5s Sec. XVII.

- 11462 CRONICA di tutti li DOGI di VENETIA con le Armi loro et Origine delle Casate, small 4to. neat MS. with ornamental title and 107 coats of arms emblazoned in colours, hf. bd. from Dr. Wellesley's library, £4. 4s (Venetia, 1556-1865)

The original MS. which is in a fine bold handwriting, seems to have stopped short with the election of Laurentio Prioli in 1556. The continuator, who is vastly inferior to his predecessor in artistic skill and calligraphy, perhaps inherited the MS. and brought it down to his own time. The former part, though written in Italian, exhibits a great deal of the peculiar Venetian orthography.

- 11463 FOPPENS (J. F.) Chronique abrégée de la Ville de Bruxelles, folio, AUTOGRAPH MANUSCRIPT, hf. bd. from the Library of M. de Servais, and also that of the Rev. Dr. Wellesley, 25s cir. 1758

This is probably one of the valuable unpublished Supplements to the Bibliotheca Belgica, which were known to exist in MS.

- 11464 FIRENZE. Cose particolari per la Città di Firenze, sm. 4to. ITALIAN MANUSCRIPT, of 182 pp. hf. vellum; from Dr. Wellesley's library, 25s circa 1630

Only the first part relates to Florence. The author continues with "Varie Memorie senza osservazione di tempo," which are random readings and notes upon all subjects, history, literature, geography, statistics, and a series of Annals, besides anecdotes and scraps of various kinds, as well as a selection of poetry. It is curious as shewing the state of mind and education of an Italian Gentleman of that time. He ranks England, Naples, Portugal, and Bohemia, as on an equal footing, and says that London had not above 200,000 inhabitants. He narrates the reception of Japanese Ambassadors in Rome, 1585, and the execution of Mary Queen of Scots at the Castle of "Foderinga."

- 11465 GALLO DE MONTE SANO (Phylenio) Per la florida Madona Lyllia ve^{ta} di vertu ornatyssima SONETTI E ALTRE RIME, 8vo. first page enclosed in finely illuminated border, with Miniatures, hf. morocco, uncut, £8. 8s Sec. XV.

A MS. note of the former owner, describes the volume thus :—"Grazioso Codice del XV. Scritto ad imitazione del Petrarca. Conosciuto dal Roscoe che nella sua vita di Leone X, dice esser vissuto verso la meta del XV. Secolo. A quanto pare egli non è conosciuto né dal Quadrio né da Tiraboschi."

- 11466 GREY (Dr. Zachary) Account of the Family of Grey or De Grey, AUTOGRAPH MANUSCRIPT, of important Documents and letters, sm. 4to. 79 leaves, hf. bd. 12s (? 1720)

- 11467 HERALDIC COLLECTIONS. A very interesting and curious large folio volume of Heraldic Papers of the XVIth and XVIIth Centuries, consisting of Pedigrees, copies of Grants of Arms, (some in the Autographs of the famous Antiquaries and Herald's CAMDEN, Peter Le Neve, Sir R. St. George, R. Cooke, Dethick, and others), Arms emblazoned and in trick, &c. mounted in a volume, large folio, bound in russia, from Dr. Wellesley's library, £20.

This volume contains, among other papers, the arms and crests of the Knights of the Bath made in 1616, Pedigrees of the Families of Dowdall, Browne, Walgrave, Warren, Malpas, Tamhorn, Villers, Stafford, Strangwaies, Oxenbridge, Dod, Halse, James, Frere, Beauchamp, Martyn, Sydenham, Walcott, Savage, Bacon, Weston, Shaw, St. John, Plowden, Hare, Kendall, Cavendish, Wilson, Dixwell, Perkins, Lennard, Browne, Dering, Tindall, Tylston, Gefferey, Midleton, Bowyer, &c. &c. Many of the coats of arms are emblazoned on a large scale. This volume contains documents of incalculable value for future writers, and must be regarded as one of Dr. Wellesley's greatest treasures.

- 11468 HOLLAND (John) Heraldic Manuscripts, with Drawings of Coats of Arms in Colours, chiefly Extracts from Harleian MSS. sm. 4to. old calf, 20s ca. 1680-1800

- 11469 INNOCENTII III (Lotharii) OPERA MINORA: de Contemptu Mundi; de Virtutibus et Vitiis; Veteris ac Novi Testamenti Biblia versiculis comprehensa; Tractatus Theologici; de Sacramentis; Sermones; de Pollutione Nocturna, 12mo. MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM (310 pages), written by an English scribe, having on first leaf the autograph of P. Noy de Sandwico (Sandwich), calf gilt, £4. 4s Sec. XIV.

Of these works, by the Pope who obliged King John of England to surrender and do homage for his crown, Cave only mentions the de contemptu Mundi, and the Sermones.

- 11470 ITALIAN FAMILIES. A curious Heraldic Manuscript, stout oblong sm. folio, containing about five thousand Coats of Arms, emblazoned in colours, by different hands, many remarkably well executed and of early date, wooden boards, covered with old calf, from Rev. Dr. Wellesley's library, £6. 10s Sec. XVI-XVIII

There are also some German, French, Spanish and Slavonic Families included in this collection; and there are names such as Cavenaghi, Neale, Morgani, Dapples, Ossoreo, O'Naghten, etc. which appear to indicate English and Irish families too. It would seem as if the earlier ones were done in the Seventeenth Century, and later collectors made these the nucleus for a work which they constantly added to. The older ones are of very superior execution.

- 11471 ITALIAN ARMS. Libro de Nobili con li nomi che sono nati sino 1659. tutti li Sponsalitij, et di casata in casata la sua Arma, che in tutte sono N. 221, 12mo. Manuscript, with Index, and upwards of 200 Coats of Arms, emblazoned in gold, silver, and colours, calf, £4. 4s cir. 1660

Bound up with "Catalogue of Dukes since 1641, Walkley, 1652," and "Dugdale's Usage in bearing Arms, 1682."
- 11473 JOUANNI, Abbate del Munistero del Monte Synay . . . comuncia illibro dello Crimaco, (Santa Scala di Paradiso), 4to. FINE MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, the first page of the work itself adorned with a MAGNIFICENT BORDERED INITIAL LETTER, containing beautiful portraits of the Saint, and a view of his Monastery, richly illuminated in gold and colours, by an Italian artist, in the best style, green morocco supra extra, gilt edges, by F. Bedford, £40. cir. 1400
- The Scala Paradisi of St. Giovanni Climaco, in Italian, is one of the rarest of Manuscripts, and much sought after, as all the printed editions are very inaccurate. Count Mortara speaking of these later, says—"Stimiamo che sieno tutte pessime; onde volendosi egli citare, converrà far uso di testi a penna."
- The first prologue giving an account of the translator and his miraculous acquirement of Greek, is very curious. The translation was made in 1300, and this copy, which has all the prologues, as well as the Sermon at end, was probably made within a century after.
- 11474 LEWIS (A.) Description of the Universities of CAMBRIDGE and OXFORD, with their Armes, and the Armes of every Colledge, with the first Founders and principall Benefactors; of the number of Bishoprijcks in England and Walles, with their Armes of divers Byshope, with a Catalogue of their names, 12mo. MANUSCRIPT, 368 pp. very neatly written by A. Lewis, sometime Student in Cambridge, and 185 coloured drawings of Coats of Arms, and MS. Index added by T. Willement, Esq., purple velvet, gilt edges, £10. 1587
- The Oxford and Cambridge description | emblazoned coat of Arms of Robert Dudley, ends on page 88, and the 89th is occupied by an | Earl of Leicester, Chancellor of Oxford, 1587.

Apparently presented to the French Government.
- 11476 MONTELEON (Duca di) Cronica di Napoli (1264-1457), square 8vo. neatly written, MANUSCRIPT, vellum, from Dr. Wellesley's library, 15s Sec. XVII
- A note on the fly-leaf attributes the authorship to the Duca di Monteleone, but with what truth it cannot be stated. Lellis makes no | mention of a work written by any of the Dukes of that title.
- 11477 ORDINARY OF ARMS, square 8vo. Manuscript containing 59 Coats of Arms, chiefly of English country families, very neatly emblazoned in colours, hf. bd. 25s cir. 1600
- 11478 ORDINARY OF ARMS, square 8vo. an Ancient Manuscript, containing several hundred Coats of Arms, very neatly emblazoned in colours, with a couple of rude portraits, calf neat, from Dr. Wellesley's library, £5. cir. 1500-1650

- 11480 OXFORD. ARMORIAL BEARINGS of the Colleges within the University of Oxford, A.D. 1600, small 4to. copy from a Manuscript in the British Museum, most beautifully executed and highly finished in the richest gold and colours, an exquisitely illuminated border round the title-page, gilt binding, £10. 1600 (cir. 1840)

This beautiful MS. was apparently executed for Dr. Wellesley, his arms being emblazoned on the title. Besides the arms of the Colleges are many of those of Founders and Benefactors. The manner in which the illumination has been performed is vastly superior to most existing specimens of such work.

- 11481 POESIE INEDITE (Sonetti, &c.) square 8vo. UNPUBLISHED MANUSCRIPT, in a very clear handwriting, apparently transcribed for the press, russica gilt, from Dr. Wellesley's library, £2. 2s cir. 1640

One of the 129 Sonnets is addressed to Salvator Rosa, another to Christina of Sweden, and one is on the death of Lope de Vega. These and others indicate the time at which they were written, especially an Epithalamium on Ferdinand III. and Maria of Spain. These elegant compositions are not the works of a "nobody;" it would be an interesting study to trace their authorship. Many of the poems have autograph corrections, evidently by the author himself.

- 11482 REGISTRE DE BRIEFS, 12mo. a curious old MS. on vellum, inscribed with the preceding title by the owner (Sir W. Ouseley), containing Charters, Letters, and Ordinances issued by Edward II. in Latin, old vellum, binding, £4. Sec. XIV-XV

These copies were probably made not long after the date of the original instruments. The MS. is in itself very interesting as having almost certainly been the note book of some old English lawyer. On one page there is a list of the Judges of Assize in the year 1320.

- 11483 ROME. Ragguaglio delle Famiglie più antiche e più principali di Roma, 8vo. neatly written MANUSCRIPT, hf. morocco, from Dr. Wellesley's library, 12s cir. 1700

This unpublished Manuscript, which was apparently compiled about the year 1700, contains an account of twenty-four families.

- 11484 SCHERLI (Giacomo) Brevi Notizie delle Cose più rimarcabili della Città di Verona, square 8vo. UNPUBLISHED MANUSCRIPT of 123 pp. prepared for the press, with preface dated Verona, 1752, sd. from Dr. Wellesley's library, 25s 1752

- 11485 SCOTLAND. ARMS OF SCOTCH NOBILITY, roy. 8vo. Manuscript, with 54 coats in trick, the rough Sketch Book of John Holland, Herald Painter, with alphabetical index, bound, from Dr. Wellesley's library, 30s Cir. 1600

John Holland was only the owner of this book. It was first prepared, as will appear from the text on p. 16, before James VI. became James I. The earlier alterations were made evidently in the reign of Charles I.

- 11486 SENECAE TRAGÆDIÆ decem, cum Glossis, small folio, BEAUTIFUL MS. on fine VELLUM, with the INITIALS elegantly ILLUMINATED in GOLD and COLOURS, bound in old gilt russica in the Harleian style, £75.

Sec. XIV.

This most valuable Manuscript contains a vast number of Various Readings, very important for the collation of printed editions, and the rectification of the text. Copies, especially in complete state, are very rare; one amongst the Arandel MSS. Brit. Museum is perfect, another amongst the Burney MSS. is defective; two, in Lincoln College and All Souls' at Oxford, are defective and not so early by a century as the above. One in Merton College, equally old, has only seven Tragedies; and there is no copy in the libraries of Lambeth, Durham, the Palatine at Florence, or that of the Dukes of Burgundy, Brussels. The glosses or running comments in the present MS. afford very valuable interpretations and elucidations of the text.

- 11487 SHROPSHIRE. Alphabet of Arms of Gentry of the County of Salop, large folio, MANUSCRIPT OF THE XVIIth CENTURY, with some arms in trick, the autographs of John Richardson, 1691, at the commencement, and Isaac Richardson at the end, are cut from the old covers and inserted, hf. morocco, from Dr. Wellesley's library, £10. Cir. 1680-1700

There is also a running chronicle of events, and a list of High Sheriffs. The spelling is singularly bad; as, for example: "Mr. Salter was a lacked mare of the towne." It is a very curious and interesting Manuscript.

- 11488 SIEGE OF CARLAVEROCK. Le Assault de Karlaverok, sm. 4to. MS. *a very legibly written transcript in the autograph of Edward Ross Mores, from a copy made by R. - 11489 SLUZHEBNIK. Service Book, in the old Slavonic Church-language, sm. 4to. MS. on paper, with rubricated headings and initials, in the original bds. 36s cir. 1670
- An old MS. note on the fly-leaf describes it as "contines regulas et ordinem Liturgiam Chrysostomi, Basilii Magni, item preces matutinas et vespertinas canendi." One of the pieces is by Gregory, Pope of Rome.
- 11490 TREVISO. Diverse Particolarita della Città di Treviso, sq. 8vo. MANUSCRIPT of 108 pp. hf. bd. from the library of Dr. Wellesley, 5s Sec. XVIII

- This interesting MS. contains probably numerous details of secret history, which could only be communicated by a man in the author's position as Sardinian ambassador to the English court.
- 11492 VENICE. A volume of Arms, and short Account of most of the principal Illustrious Families of Venice, sm. 4to. a clearly written MS. containing 171 Coats of Arms, emblazoned in colours, with autograph of Wm. Ouseley on the cover, and on the sides the arms of the Latton Family, with moteo, "Mors potior macula," stamped in gold, from Dr. Wellesley's library, £4. 4s Sec. XVI

- 11493 WALES. ARMS OF THE ROYALTY, NOBILITY AND GENTRY of Wales, small 4to. neatly written, with 197 well drawn Coats emblazoned in colours, commencing with Cadwalader, the last king of the British blood, who died in 663, bds. an early and curious Manuscript, from Dr. Wellesley's library, £9. 9s cir. 1580
- At the end of the volume is the following Appendix:—"Names of such other Gents as came into Wales and there or in the marches thereof have landes and possessions where they inhabit by certaine descentes of Inheritance. | Their first ancestors being either Englishmen, Danes, Normans or Irishmen, and at this time grown to bee greates howses of worshipping in Wales, &c."

- A rare work.
 "Cet ouvrage contient les armoiries de toute la noblesse Andalousse. Il est d'une grande importance, non seulement pour le généalogiste, mais encore pour l'historien et le littérateur. Argote de Molina, en parlant des nobles enfants de sa patrie, rapporte aussi l'histoire du temps où ils vécurent, et en racontant certains faits d'armes ou batailles, il n'oublie pas de citer les romances et les compositions poétiques populaires qui les rappellent. Plusieurs de ces poésies, qui remontent au XIV^e siècle, auraient été perdues pour nous, si le savant annaliste n'eût pris le soin de les transmettre ainsi à la postérité. Soit qu'on recherche beaucoup ce livre en Espagne, soit qu'il n'ait été tiré qu'un petit nombre d'exemplaires, le fait est qu'aujourd'hui on en rencontre fort peu, et encore manquent-ils le plus souvent du titre."—Salva.

- 11765 BREYDENBACH (Bern. de) Opus transmarine Peregrinationis ad venerandū sepulchrū dominicū in Jherusalē, small folio, FIRST EDITION, black letter, fine copy, VERY RARE, £16. 16s

Priced, 1834, Pickering, £21.; Dr. Hawtrey's copy fetched £18. 18s; a copy fetched at Libri's sale in 1862, £18.

"Mr. Winter Jones, librarian of the British Museum, remarks, in his excellent "Guide to the Printed Books in the Grenville and King's Library" (p. 22), that it is the first book printed with large folding views or plans; some of these plans (those of Venice and Jerusalem, for instance) being about five feet long; and it may be conceived that in consequence of the dimensions of these plans, and of the necessity in which readers were placed to unfold and refold them frequently, they were often damaged; therefore, it is very rare to find these plates complete. It may be added that these folding plans are covered with xylographic inscriptions, and that amongst the fine plates contained in this volume there is one in which the giraffe (called seraffa) is tolerably correctly represented. In other xylographic plates are to be seen different oriental alphabets, followed by an Arabic Vocabulary, which is probably the first ever published. Bibliographers are not agreed either as to the author or the printer of this volume. Panzer thinks that Reuwich, who accompanied Breydenbach as draughtsman, only designed the plates, and that P. Schœffer printed the letterpress, and still more recently, the drawing up of the work itself has been attributed to a Dominican named Martin Roth."

- 11766 BREYDENBACH (B. de) des Saintes Peregrinations de Jherusalem et des Lieux prochains (tirées du Latin par Frere Nicole Le Huen), small folio, black letter, woodcuts, title-page in facsimile, without the large folding views, fine copy in French calf gilt, marbled edges, VERY RARE, £6. 6s Lyon, 1488

The extreme rarity of this edition is such that a perfect copy fetched at the Roxburghe sale, £84, at Borluut de Noortdonck's, 1250 fr.

11767EMANUEL (King of Portugal.) Abtruck ains lateinischen sandt-brieues an babstliche heiligkeit, von künigklicher wurde zu Portegall, dis iars ausgangen, von d'erobertē stadt Malacha, etc. (dated 8th June, 1513) sq. 12mo. woodcut on title of the Arms of Portugal in a double border, RARE, £5. 5s Getruckt zu Augspurg durch Erhart Oeglin [1513]

"This little tract, valuable in itself, is of considerable importance as it settles the important question of the approximate date of printing of the "Copia der Nemen Zeitung aus Brasilij Landt," discovered by Humboldt, "Examen Critique" Note B. Vol. V. pp. 239-258—and by Varnhagen and Ternaux Compans, as to the priority of Magellan's discoveries. This tract is by the same printer, in the same type, and with the identical woodcut arms of Portugal on the title. Oeglin succeeded Ouman who printed the Vesputius in 1504, and is not known to have printed anything after 1516. Thus we may fairly conclude that the Presilly Landt was printed by Oeglin about 1513, and hence Humboldt was wrong in dating it from internal evidences between 1525 and 1540. This tract is also curious in showing the fact that a tract printed in Rome in 1513 could be transmitted to Augsburg, translated and reprinted in 26 days."

11768 SOLINUS. Joannis Camertis in Solini Πολυιστωρα Enarrationes, small folio, title within woodcut borders, and large folding map of the World including AMERICA, very fine copy in old calf gilt, £15.

Vienna Austria, Lucas Alantae, 1520

The map in this volume is the FIRST THAT BEARS THE NAME OF AMERICA, and is different from all the Ptolemy maps afterwards issued. It was prepared by Apian the Cosmographer, "juxta Ptolomei traditionem et Americi Vesputii aliorumque lustrationes," and therefore gives the volume an interest and value infinitely beyond its worth as an edition of Solinus. The Northern continent is wholly insulated from the Southern, the latter being named "America provincia," and inscribed thus: "Anno d. 1497, 11768APIANI (Petri, Mathematici) hec terra cum adiacetib; insulis inventa est per Columbum Januensem ex mandato regis Castellae." This very note seems in itself a protest against the name, but it is, nevertheless adopted, and for the first time in any map. Copies of the book are so rare, that Brunet does not mention it, and I trace the sale of none. There seems to be no copy in any of the great American collections, as the indefatigable author of the Bibliotheca Vetusissima only describes it from that in the British Museum.

COSMOGRAPHICUS LIBER, smallest 4to. FIRST EDITION, numerous curious woodcuts, maps, and Geometrical and Astronomical Diagrams, with Volvelles and other moveable pieces, VERY FINE CLEAN COPY, hf. moracco, £3. 16s Landisuta, 1524 however only mentions 52 leaves, while this copy has 59.

"Edition très rare et la première qui ait paru de cet ouvrage."—Brunet. The Manual

11769 Ptolemy. CLAUDII PTOLEMAEI Geographicae Enarrationis libri octo Bilibaldo Pirckeymbero interprete, (acc.) annotationes J. de Regio Monte, folio, printed in Roman characters, in double columns, within woodcut borders, with curious woodcut initials, 48 large woodcut maps, without the first map of the British isles, and the last one, "Tab. totius Orbis," some of the margins slightly wormed, limp vellum, £6. 6s

Argentoraci (sic) J. Grieninger, 1525

VERY RARE: I cannot trace the sale of a single copy, and even the Bodleian Library possesses only an imperfect one. There is no copy in the Grenville Library, and Harrison (Bibl. Americanae) never saw one, describing it only from the catalogue of a private collection. The maps are the same as those in the edition of 1522, but the latter is not so rare as that of 1525. The discovery of Columbus is described on the sheet numbered 28, and the two inner pages of that sheet contain a Map of America, or rather of the Western Ocean and Terra Nova, with the Islands. The continent extends from C. del Maraisano in N. America to Rio de Cananor in S. America. There are MS. notes throughout the volume in an old Spanish hand of the 16th century, adding to and correcting the text; and the writer has added a couple of lines regarding Columbus, finishing with the famous distich from his tomb. Again, the last map, which represents Gronlandia et Russia, is really a map of the Eastern Hemisphere, but also contains portions of the American coasts.

11770 PTOLEMÆI, Geographicæ Enarrationis libri octo, ex Pirokeymheri tralatione à Michaele Villanovano (SERVETO) recogniti, folio, 50 very large woodcut maps, in the original stamped binding, £6. 6s

Lugduni, Trechsel, 1535

VERY RARE, as a great number of copies were ordered to be burned by Calvin. It is the most famous edition in the entire series of Ptolemies, in consequence of the paragraph that caused the martyrdom of Servetus. This famous paragraph is alluded to by Ebert, Brunet, Harriæse, and others, but all of them, following some original blunderer, attribute it to the third map of Africa. It is really on the map of Palestine in the second series, and the fault lay in accusing the "Biblici libri" of "injuria aut jactantia pura;" but, of course, Servetus was not the author of the passage, having merely copied it from the editions of 1522 and 1525. Indeed the labours of Servetus were not very heavy; he did but reprint those editions, with a few additions, a few omissions, and a total substitution of text in the descriptions of France, Spain, Germany, and Italy. Here, Servetus expresses freely his own opinions and prejudices, which differ extremely from those of his predecessor. With regard to Germany, he quotes "producit Hungaria boves, Bavaria sues, Francania cepas rapas et glycerisiam, Suevia meretrices, Boemia hereticos, Bavaria iterum fures, Helvetia carniſces bubſeqas, Westſalia fallaces, tota denique Germania ac totus septemtrio gulones et potatores." One of the most important features in this copy is that it has the complete series of Maps, including the final one, on which appears part of the New World, with the name "America." To the identical account of Columbus which appeared in the editions of 1522 and 1525, Servetus has appended a few remarkable words concerning the absurdity of putting the claims of Americans in precedence to those of the real discoverer.

11771 PTOLEMÆI Geographia Universalis Vetus et Nova, complectens Ptolemæi enarrationem, cum Appendice Seb. Munsteri, etc. sm. folio, 48 large woodcut maps, in the original calf binding, sides tooled in gold and stamped with the title, RARE, £10.

Basil. Henricus Petrus, 1542

The EDITIO PRINCEPS of a new series of Ptolemies. Sebastian Münster, the famous cosmographer, edited it, re-designing the maps according to the lights of fresh discovery, and thenceforward each new edition has followed or improved upon his work. Münster however arrogates too much in styling himself the sole author of the Geographical Appendix, containing descriptions of the modern state of countries, for much of it had already appeared in the editions of 1522, 1525, and 1535. In the first Map—Typus Universalis—the continent of America is divided into three parts: Francisca (Canada), Terra Florida, and America seu insula Brasilis (South America). The second map to the twenty-eighth, contain the series of Ptolemy's ancient maps, as designed by Münster. Then follow the twenty maps of the modern world, of which the seventeenth contains the Novus Orbis, that is, North and South America.

11772 PTOLEMÆI Geographia, Latine, cum tabulis ad mentem auctoris restitutis per MERCATOREM, folio, engraved title and 28 large maps engraved on steel, calf, £3. 3s

1584—in fine, Colon. 1578

First edition of Ptolemy with Mercator's series of Maps.

11773 PTOLEMÆI Geographiæ libri octo Græco-Latini cum tabulis ad mentem auctoris restitutis per MERCATOREM, à Montano recogniti, large folio, superb frontispiece, portrait of Mercator, and 28 large maps engraved on steel, amongst the 5 maps of Africa, a large MS. plan inserted, shewing the course of the Nile, from the Delta to Sennaar, according to Norden's observations, calf neat, £3. 5s

Amst. Hondii, 1605

These two editions of 1578 and 1605 contain only the ancient Geography, as restored to its most correct state by Mercator, being thus really the true text of Ptolemy's work.

11774 CARTIER (Jacques) Voyage av Canada, 1534, nouvelle édition par Michelant, avec des Documents inédits sur le Canada, par Rame, sm. 8vo. VELLUM PAPER, 2 maps, hf. morocco, gilt edges, uncut, 10s

Paris, 1865

11775 BERTELLI E FORLANI, Tavole moderne di Geografia de la raggior parte del Mondo, imp. folio, engraved title and 71 fine large folding maps, bd. £2. 16s

Roma, 1558-80

This series of maps, of which sets or copies vary considerably in their extent, was the best, most complete, and most correct Atlas that had till then appeared. In the number, there are two maps of England and Ireland, and one of Ireland, the second of England being dated "Romæ, Anglorum studio et diligentia. 1558;" and three large special maps of AMERICA, North and South, besides three World-Maps in which America also appears. It is remarkable, as shewn in these maps, how far the chorography of the regions now comprised in Canada and the States, was developed seventy years after the discovery of America. Even the quite-recent researches of Jacques Cartier were already utilized.

The forty-first plate is a folding one, larger than all the others, containing a view of the "Territorium et Dominium Kerpense et Lommerschum Ducatus Brabantie," by Gerard Stempel, of Gouda, Canon of St. George of Cologne, 1587; with two Coats of Arms. This Atlas, which shews a wonderful advance of geographical knowledge, and which we may presume to be the work of Stempel, engraved in Holland, and published in Cologne, appears unknown to the bibliographical writers.

- 11777 VERA (Gerard de) Trois Navigations admirables faites par les Hollandois et Zelandois au Septentrion lesquelles ont descouvert la mer Weygats avec grands dangers et incroyables difficultez, 12mo. maps, numerous plates illustrative of their enforced ten-months' residence at the North Pole, limp vellum, £8. 8s Paris, 1599

This copy comes from the magnificent library of the late George Smith, Esq., whose MS. note thus describes it: "Having carefully noted the condition of nearly (I might perhaps say absolutely) all the copies of this work which have been offered for sale within the last twenty years, I believe I am justified in stating that none of them was equal in dimensions to this. This copy . . . may . . . be considered an unrivalled specimen of this original edition."

- 11783 HEYLYN'S Mikrokosmos, a little description of the great World, sq. 8vo. old calf, 5s Oxford, 1939

"Ce grand ouvrage d'Henninges sur les gènesalogies est regardé comme un des plus savans et un des plus achevés parmi ceux qui ont été mis au jour sur cette partie. Il est non seulement remarquable par les dissertations intéressantes qu'il renferme, mais encore par la vérité qui les caractérise. Il est difficile d'en trouver des exemplaires complets; et quand on est parvenu à rassembler toutes les parties qui les composent, c'est un ouvrage qui devient alors précieux."—De Bure.

The extreme rarity of an entire set results from the historical fact that many copies of the work were destroyed when Magdeburg was sacked by Count Tilly.

Beautiful, in its externals, as a specimen of Irish typography, this volume is also a noble example of the author's taste, learning, and industry. Everything has been delineated and described with accurate fidelity, so that in his own words, whatever opinion may be formed of his theory (a new and strange one) he has "furnished the Archæologist . . . with a trustworthy and convenient topographical and pictorial guide to the most remarkable Ancient Ruins of Ireland." An interesting fact is noticed by the author in the following statement:—"the variety and beauty of ancient Irish illuminated books, however great, by no means exceeds the beauty and variety found on ancient Irish sculptures."

- "Moryson," says Dr. Drake, "is a sober-minded and veracious traveller, and that part of his book which relates to the manners and customs of England and Scotland is particularly useful and interesting." "He began his travels," relates Fuller, "May 1st, 1591, over a great part of Christendome, and no small share of Turkey, even to Jerusalem, and afterwards printed his observations in a large book, which, for the truth thereof, is in good reputation, for of so great a traveller, he had nothing of a traveller in him, as to stretch in his reports. At last he was secretary to Charles Blunt, Deputy of Ireland, saw and wrote the conflicts with, and conquest of Tyrone; a discourse which deserveth credit, because the writer's eye guides his pen, and the privacy of his place acquainted him with many secret passages of importance."

MANUSCRIPTS from the ENSCHEDE collection, Haarlem.

- 12038 BIBLIA LATINA VETERIS ET NOVI TESTAMENTI, cum libris apocryphicis, very stout small 4to. Manuscript on VELLUM, 424 leaves, beautifully written in very minute and elegant character, with ornamental coloured initials and above 150 small MINIATURES in gold and colours illustrative of the biblical history, each executed within a large initial letter, an elegant large border round the first page, green vellum, gilt edges, £63.

Sec. XIV-XV

A beautiful Manuscript in the finest state of preservation and written on the thinnest vellum, in letters so neat and small that each page is occupied by two columns of 57 lines each. It is apparently of French origin, judging from the lily sceptre which is held by the King in the illustration to Eccelesiasticus. Each of the miniatures represents some subject in the book of which it adorns the initial letter, and the grotesque element is almost entirely absent, which is a circumstance very unusual in the illuminated MSS. of the time. The first leaf of Genesis is wanting; otherwise the volume is quite complete and in very fine condition. The first page of prologue is particularly excellent, the ornamental borders being light and elegant, and the initial-miniature executed with remarkable delicacy and minuteness. The tout ensemble of the MS. is very attractive, and it really is a charming example of Calligraphy and Illumination.

- 12038*BREVIARIUM cum Calendario, small 8vo. Illuminated Manuscript on 173 leaves of VELLUM, with numerous MINIATURES, ornamental borders and painted initials, all richly executed in gold and colours, the "Anatomical Man" and the accompanying figures painted on one of the first pages, also having the MUSIC to part of the service, bound in old black morocco, £12.

Sec. XV

A very pretty volume of French workmanship. The initial Miniatures and borders are numerous and tastefully executed, and the style of bordering adopted is, in most places, a novel and angular one. The flowers and the figures are in many instances painted on a border of shaded gold, which gives a peculiarly rich effect. On the first page of the section "In Adventum," there is a bird-cage on the right-hand of the border, and at foot, two baboons support a blue shield, which bears three yellow Nautilus-shells. This may indicate the origin of the Manuscript. In the office for the Dead, the Music is given, written in a strange character of notation upon three lines.

- 12039 HORÆ BEATÆ VIRGINIS, cum Calendario, small 8vo. Manuscript on VELLUM, 151 leaves, with elegant painted initials, and four richly illuminated pages, which contain MINIATURES executed in Camaieu Gris, shaded with gold, within borders of prints and flowers, without the first leaf after Calendar, vellum, £28.

Sec. XIV

A beautiful specimen of an unusual style of art in Missal-painting. The execution of these Miniatures is very superior to what is usually seen in books of Hours, and the great rarity of painting in Camaieu gris, makes this volume one of extreme value and interest. The subjects of the Miniatures are: the Annunciation; King David praying; an Interment and Burial Service; and the Virgin and Child. They all display a master's hand, which is especially apparent in the disposition of the draperies. This Manuscript is also of French origin.

12040 HORÆ BEATÆ VIRGINIS, cum Calendario, 16mo. fine Manuscript on VELLUM, 187 leaves, with illuminated initials, 3 large and 24 small MINIATURES, and every page enclosed within a border of singular design containing strange figures in gold and colours, vellum, £12. Sec. XIV-XV

The colours in the large Miniatures are somewhat faded, but the smaller ones are well-preserved, and the borders are in very good condition. The most striking feature of the MS. is the exclusively and extremely grotesque character of these borders which enclose every page, and which contain a vast number of fantastic and monstrous figures, both of men and devils, mounted on strange animals and on foot, fighting, performing extraordinary actions, and in all kinds of impossible attitudes; with which are interwoven the usual embellishments of flowers, foliage, and other decorations. Few illuminated Manuscripts exhibit such a lavish expenditure of gold as this one; every page glitters with it. There are two scutcheons twice repeated, which will probably shew where the volume was executed.

12041 JOSEPHI (Flavii) Antiquitates Judaicæ, Latine versæ per Ruffinum presbyterum Aquilejensem, Liber I—XI cap. 8, folio, Manuscript on VELLUM, 167 leaves, ancient wooden binding, with the title on the side covered by transparent vellum, £72. Sec. X-XI

Written in elegant Latin characters of the Tenth or Eleventh Century, the first nine being supplied in a handwriting probably of the thirteenth century. In the added pages, the text is divided into chapters and adorned with three initials, but in the older MS. there are no divisions.

This is undoubtedly one of the most ancient MSS. of the Latin version of Josephus. I have only seen a notice of two other copies, both of the twelfth century, and one of them very imperfect, which are at Oxford.

12042 THERAMO (Jacobus de) BELIAL, in Teütsch, folio, 70 leaves, neat old German Manuscript on paper, with 35 large and spirited DRAWINGS, coloured and partly illuminated with gold, representing the various scenes of Christ's singular law-suit with the Devil, stamped Dutch vellum, £125. Dated 1450

These singular drawings are of no common order; in design and execution they recall some of the best productions of the early German artists. The volume is thus inscribed at end: "Anthonius Küttel de Paimenchingn hoc scripsit domino suo Gabriele Müller, hoc tempore scriptor suus, 1450." On the first page appears the following inscription by a former owner: Mir Matheus Swartzen geherig, 1531, vom alten Michel Ewller kaufft." The language of the translator's preface is curious; he states, "Ich han mich gedacht ich woll mich versuchen ob ich ze teütsch müg pringn daz puch daz da betracht ob Ihs. Marien sun daz recht hab gehabt da er die hell un die tufel hat beraubt."

The Spalding Club, which has done so much for Scottish Antiquities, has just completed a magnificent and valuable work, The Sculptured Stones of Scotland, under the able editorship or rather authorship of Mr. John Stuart, secretary of the Club and of the Society of Antiquaries of Scotland. This work, the first volume of which was issued in 1856, consists of an extensive series of lithographic plates, representing stones which exist in Scotland, as well as of illustrative specimens from the neighbouring districts of England. In addition to these are plates of ornamental metal work and of MS.

decoration from the early Irish Books of the Gospels. A long and elaborate introduction by Mr. Stuart enters fully into the many questions which originate in a consideration of the art and intention of these interesting memorials, and is characterized as well by learning and research, as by a thoroughly common-sense treatment of the subject.

It is in this Pictish district of Scotland that the most interesting of the memorial-pillars, figured in The Sculptured Stones of Scotland, are found.—The Times, September 3rd, 1867.

"Whitaker showed us how possible it is for a cultivated and powerful mind to condescend to writing Topographical Works, and to mix in a very agreeable manner bold conjecture, deductions of general interest, applications of events in the past to the guidance of men of his own time, and spirited delineations both of manners and scenery, with those dry details which are indispensable in works of this kind.

"Dr. Whitaker's publications have had a great influence in raising the tone and character of topographical writing in England."

Mr. Thomas was for several years "The British Resident" at Delhi, and had there peculiar advantages in collecting and describing the Coins of the Mohammedan Rulers of India. His works are of the greatest historical value.

See above PRINSEP. The great merits of his literary labours are pointed out in a Review of that work, attributed to MAX MÜLLER, in "The Guardian," Oct. 20, 1858.

TYPOGRAPHICAL MONUMENTS.

ENGLAND:

- 12694 YEAR BOOKS. Edwardi III. Annus 47, R. Pynson, 1518—Ejusdem Anni 17 et 18, in a peculiar French-Gothic type, s. a. l. typ.—Ejusdem Annus 24, Redman, s. a.—Ejusdem Annus Annus 29, Redman, s. a.—Ejusdem Annus 30, Redman, s. a.—Ejusdem Annus 38, Pynson, 1520—Ejusdem Annus 39, Redman, s. a.—all in 1 vol. stout sm. folio, a few small wormholes at end, bound, £2. 16s 1518-20

Nearly all bear Pynson's mark. A curious feature in the second and third year book is the notice at end—"The price of thys boke is xvi.d.

un bownde," and for the other, xii pence. The language of these books is the old jargon called Law or Norman French.

- 12695 CRONYCLE OF ENGLONDE, with the Fruyte of Tymes, sm. folio, black letter, woodcuts, the table in facsimile, and 2 leaves in the book itself supplied from another edition, £16. 16s R. Pynson, 1510

VERY RARE. This is the same work as that usually called the "Chronicle of St. Albans." "As this appears to be the only impression of our Chronicles printed by Pynson, the work is well worth the attention of the collector."—Dibdin.

- 12696 FROYSSART (Sir Johan) YE CRONYCL' of Englād, Fraunce, Spayne, Portyngale, Scotlande, Bretayne, Flaunders, and other places ad-joynnyng, translated out of Frenche into our maternal Englysshe tonge, by Johan Bouchier knyght Lorde Berners, 2 vols. in 1, folio, black letter, wanting titles and several other leaves at beginnings and ends, half calf, £3. 10s

(At end of Vol. I.) Imprinted at Lndon . . by Wyllyam Myddylton (1525)

Vol. I. begins with leaf 18, and ends with the colophon or leaf 322; Vol. II. begins with leaf 2 and ends with leaf 300. A complete copy of this edition would be worth Forty pounds.

- 12697 GOWER (J.) DE CONFESSIO NE AMANTIS, sm. folio, black letter, a few ancient MS. notes, otherwise a fine copy in old russias gilt, £6.

T. Berthelet, 1532

Bartholomeus de Proprietatibus Rerum, translated by John de Trevisa, sm. folio, black letter, title inlaid and surrounded by an illuminated border in water-colours, representing view of Berkeley Castle, Arms of the Berkeleys, flowers, &c. very slightly wormed, else fine copy, russias extra, £5. 5s

T. Berthelet, 1535

"Perhaps this work may be the chef-d'œuvre of Berthelet's press. It is not very rare; but from the scarcity of Wynken de Worde's edition, and the intrinsic value of the work, this second impression brings rather a considerable price."—Dibdin.

- 12699 FABIAN'S (R.) Chronicle, 2 vols. in 1, sm. folio, black letter, large copy, in old leather binding, VERY RARE, wanting title, 2 leaves, and part of another, £3. 10s

A copy of the first article in this volume fetched £3. at Sir Mark Sykes' sale. All these pieces are rare and valuable.

- 12701 RECORDE (Roberte) The Castle of Knowledge, small folio, curious woodcut title, and numerous woodcuts and diagrams in the text, fine copy in calf, from Miss Currer's library, £4. 4s Reginald Wolfe, 1556

This curious book shows how far learning had advanced and become popularised in England at the time. It is dedicated to the Princess Mary, and to Cardinal Pole; and treats of Astronomy and the System of the Universe.

- 12702 TYNDALL, FRITH and BARNES. The Whole Workes of W(illiam) Tyndall, John Frith, and Doct(or) Robert) Barnes, three worthy Martyrs and principall Teachers of this Church of England, collected and compiled in one Tome together, beyng before scattered, and now in print here exhibited to the Church, to the prayse of God, and profite of all good Christian Readers, 3 parts or 2 vols. in 1, sm. folio, black letter, with the Colophon representing Justice weighing the Bible, a very fine copy in dark morocco super extra, gilt edges, tooled in the antique style by Clarke and Bedford, RARE, £10. London, printed by John Daye, 1573

- 12703 GASCOIGNE (George) WHOLE WOORKEs, newlye compyled into one Volume, that is to say, His Flowers, Hearbes, Weedes, the Fruites of Warre, the Comedie called Supposes, the Tragedie of Iocasta, the Steele-glasse, the Complaint of Phylemone, the Storie of Ferdinando Ieronimi, and the Pleasure at Kenilworth Castle, Abell Jeffs, 1587—The Droomme of Doomesday, G. Cawood, 1576—2 vols. in 1, small 4to. fine copies, red morocco extra, gilt edges, by Bedford, EXTREMELY RARE, £28. 1576-87

This old poet belongs to the class of writers connected with Shakespeare, as the great dramatist borrowed and adapted much from him. Ellis' copy fetched £26. 10s; and another is marked £35. in the Bibliotheca Anglo-Poetica. Daniel's copy, without the Drum of Doomsday, fetched £22.

- 12704 GASCOIGNE (George) THE STEELE GLAS, A SATYRE, together with the Complainte of Phylomene, an Elegie devised by the same Author, smallest 4to. portrait, brown morocco extra, gilt edges, by F. Bedford, large copy, but the leaves pierced at top, and a portion of the head-line restored in ink, £6. 6s Printed for Richard Smith, 1576

This work is so rare, that Lowndes was unable to point out any other copy than that of the Bibliotheca Anglo-Poetica (containing several leaves MS.), priced at £12. 12s; and I cannot find any copy offered for sale either in booksellers' or auctioneers' catalogues. There is a commendatory poem among the preliminaries, by "Walter Rawely of the Middle Temple."

- 12705 HEYWOODES (John) WOORKEs: a dialogue conteynyn the number of the effectuall Proverbes in the English tongue, with (six hundred of) Epigrammes, smallest 4to. title within border and large woodcut portrait, black letter, red morocco super extra, gilt edges, by F. Bedford, RARE, £10. 10s Thomas Marsh, 1576

- 12706 HOLINSHED'S (R.) CHRONICLES OF ENGLANDE, SCOTLANDE, AND IRELAND, Vol. I, stout sm. folio, black letter, with many hundred spirited woodcuts, a few of the leaves at the beginning torn and slightly defective at the corners, otherwise perfect, in ancient calf binding, VERY RARE, £2. 16s 1577

The first and genuine edition. In the later editions the language was much altered, and the woodcuts omitted. It is one of the rarest and most desirable books in an English Historical Library, but so scarce to be met with in a perfect state that few can boast of its possession.

- 12707 RECORD (R.) Castle of Knowledge, small 4to. black letter, woodcuts, autographs of Ro. Marbeck and Hospodii Pomiloi, £1. 5s V. Sims, 1596

See also ante No. 12701.

- 12708 HALL (Jos.) VIRGIDEMIARUM, Sixe Bookes. First three Bookes, of Tooth-lesse Satyrs: 1. Poeticall; 2. Academically; 3. Morall, FIRST EDITION, burnt by order of the Archbishop of Canterbury and Bishop of London, printed by Thomas Creede, for Robert Dexter, 1597—Virgidemiarum: the three last Bookes. Of byting Satyres. Corrected and amended with some Additions, by J. H. for Robert Dexter, 1599—Certain Worethye Manuscript Poems of great Antiquitie reserved long in the studie of a Northfolke Gentleman, and now first published by J. S. [Joshua Sylvester]: 1. The Statly Tragedy of Guistard and Sismond; 2. The Northren Mother's Blessing; 3. The Way to Thrifte, for R. D. 1597—3 parts in 1 vol. 16mo. COMPLETE, with note on fly-leaf by Mr. T. Park, green morocco extra, gilt edges, from Sir F. Freeling's library, £7. 7s 1597-99

This same copy was sold from the Bibl. 1841, Thorpe, £7. 7s; a later edition fetched at Anglo-Poetica for £25. Other copies priced, Utterson's sale, £6. 8s 6d.—Warton says,

"these Satires are marked with a classical precision, to which English Poetry had yet rarely attained; they are replete with animation of style and sentiment. Their discriminations are touched with the masterly traits of genuine humour. The versification is equally energetic and elegant."

- 12709 CHAUCER. THE WORKES of our Ancient and learned English Poet, Geoffrey Chaucer, newly printed (edited by Speght, with prefatory Letter by Beaumont), folio, title within woodcut border, with full-length portrait of Chaucer, Genealogical Tree, Coats of Arms, etc. engraved on one leaf following title, fine copy in calf extra, carmine edges, by Aitkin, £A. 4s

London, for Matthew Lowndes, 1606

Lowndes quotes a copy marked in a contemporary catalogue, £21.

Extremely rare edition, published eight years before the well known edition of 1613, which has been usually considered as the genuine fourth edition. For an account of this rare volume, see "A brief account of an unique edition of Sir Philip Sydney's Arcadia, by Mr. J. O. Halliwell, (printed) for private circulation only, 1854." A transcript of which is bound with this copy, at the end.

- 12712 NAPEIR of Marchiston (John, Lord) Plaine Discovery of the whole Revelation of St. John, whereunto are annexed certaine Oracles of Sibylla, sm. 4to. fine copy in calf neat, gilt edges, by Clarke and Bedford, £2. 10s
John Norton, 1611

- 12713 BURTON'S ANATOMY OF MELANCHOLY, stout sm. 4to. first edition, fine copy in the original calf, RARE, £2. 16s
Oxford, 1621

The first edition of this famous and singular work must always be a very desirable object for acquirement by the collector.

- 12714 SHAKESPEARE'S COMEDIES, HISTORIES and TRAGEDIES, published according to the true originall copies, folio, FIRST EDITION, A LARGE, SOUND, and FINE COPY in old calf neat, £345. Jaggard and Blount, 1623

The only defects existing in this copy are, that the fifth and sixth leaves (Names of the Actors, and the page of verses by L. Digges and J. M.) are at present wanting, and that p. 145 in Henry VI. is slightly injured. (This last leaf can be supplied from the copy described below). Otherwise it is in most desirable condition; the first leaf of verses by Ben Jonson, and the title with Droeshout's portrait, both of which are generally found defective or artificially restored, being here perfect, sound, and fresh in their original state. In this circumstance the copy described is superior to almost all others; and in height it has the advantage over the fine copy sold at Daniel's sale for upwards of £700. That copy was 12½ inches in height, and a fraction over 8 inches in breadth; the present is 12¼ inches in height, by 8 in breadth.

The opportunity now afforded of securing a fine copy of the first Shakespeare, is one that may not occur again for many years, and collectors should take advantage of it.

- 12715 (SHAKESPEARE'S Comedies, Histories and Tragedies), First Edition, sm. folio, imperfect as described below, hf. bd. Ritson's copy, £25. (1623)

This fragment, which measures 12½ inches by 8, will be found useful as a specimen copy of the first Shakespeare, or for supplying leaves wanting in other copies. It contains:—Comedies, pp. 13 to 303, with imperfect leaves at pp. 13, 37, 58, 57 & 5, 105, 159, 191, 201, and two leaves (pp. 221-25) wanting; Histories, pp. 1-232, wanting 49-50; and Tragedies, pp. 1-304, with pp. 37, 112, 121, 131, and 153 imperfect; pp. 257-68 and 73-76 (these latter supplied from reprint) wanting.

- 12716 SHAKESPEARE'S Comedies, Histories and Tragedies, published according to the true original copies, the second impression, sm. folio, neat, £12. 10s

This good copy of a very rare edition wants the leaf of verses facing title, also title and dedication, 2 leaves (supplied from reprint), and leaf N iv. (p. 151) in the first series of signatures. All the body of the book is clean and perfect, and the preliminary leaves in good condition.

12717 SHAKESPEAR'S COMEDIES, HISTORIES and TRAGEDIES, published according to the true Original Copies; and unto this Impression is added, Seven Playes, never before printed in folio, third edition, folio, portrait by Droeshout, with Verses underneath, russia, gilt edges, EXTREMELY RARE, £52. London, printed for P. C. 1664

By some this third edition is considered of greater rarity than even the first edition, on account of the greater portion of the impression having been destroyed in the great fire of London.

The publishers of the fourth edition in 1685, appear to have considered the destruction of the third edition so extensive as to entitle them to treat it as a non-entity; and accordingly say on their title page, "unto which is added Seven Plays never before printed in Folio," though they had been previously printed in the third—a certain proof of its great rarity even in those days.

With the exception of the leaf of portrait and verses being supplied from the fourth impression, and the last leaf mended, the above is a good, sound, and perfect copy of this valuable volume.

Harward's copy fetched in 1858, £31. 10s; another with the portrait on the title, £51. 9s; Dr. Bliss', £51.; Miss Currier's. 1862, £43. 10s; 1864, Sotheby, £58.; 1866, Daniell's copy fetched above £125, and it is rapidly rising in price.

12718 SHAKESPEARE'S Comedies, Histories, and Tragedies, to which is added Seven Plays never before printed in folio, fourth edition, very fine copy, without the portrait by Droeshout and Ben Jonson's verses, also wanting last leaf, bound, £36. 1685

THIS VOLUME IS FULL OF VALUABLE MS. NOTES, IN A NEAT HANDWRITING OF ABOUT THE MIDDLE OF LAST CENTURY, CONTAINING ILLUSTRATIVE NOTES, CORRECTIONS AND EMBELLISHMENTS OF A MOST VARIED CHARACTER. THE REFERENCES TO EARLY ENGLISH BOOKS IN THE WRITER'S POSSESSION ARE VERY NUMEROUS, AND THESE, WITH THE CLASSICAL QUOTATIONS, SHEW THE STYLE

OF READING FAVOURED BY THE WRITER. IT WOULD SEEM AS IF HE HAD CONTEMPLATED THE PREPARATION OF A NEW EDITION, AND TREASURED HIS MATERIALS IN THIS COPY. IT IS NOT IMPROBABLE THAT THESE NOTES MAY BE FROM THE HAND OF SOME WELL-KNOWN COMMENTATOR; WHOEVER HE WAS, HIS LEARNING WAS VERY EXTENSIVE, AND HIS CRITICAL JUDGMENT GOOD.

12719 LAWRENCE (Leonard) A small Treatise betwixt ARNALTE and LUCENDA, entituled, the Evill-intreated Lover, or the Melancholy Knight, originally written in the Greek tongue by an unknown author, translated into Spanish, French, Tuscan, and now turn'd into English Verse by L. First Edition, extremely rare; Bindley's copy, in bds., £6. 16s 6d. copy sold for £16. 16s; and Thorpe priced a Gough's copy sold for £4. 14s 6d.

12721 FLETCHER (P.) Purple Island, together with Piscatorie Eclogs and other Poeticall Miscellanies, 2 vols. in 1, smallest 4to. with the Verses, "to the Spencer of this Age," by F. Quarles, fine copy in purple mor. extra, gilt edges, by C. Hering, £3. 3s Camb. 1633

12722 WELBY. The Phoenix of these late Times; or the Life of Mr. Henry Welby, Esq., who lived at his House in Grub Street forty-four Years, and in that space was never seene by any. Aged 84. With Epitaphs and Elegies by T. Brewer, John Taylor the Water Poet, and T. Heywood, sm. 4to. full length portrait of Welby sitting at a table, by W. Marshall, uncut, very scarce, £3. 3s N. Okes, 1637
Bindley's copy fetched £3. 15s; Sir Mark Sykes's sold for £5. 5s.

12723 HAINAM. The WITTY ROGUE arraigned, condemned and executed, or the History of that incomparable Thief Richard Hainam, relating his Robberies, mad Franks and Jests, smallest 4to. russia, gilt edges, RARE, £4. 10s 1656

Bindley's copy sold for £4. 12s.

- 12724 SWETNAM (J.) Arraignment of lewd, idle, froward, and unconstant Women, sm. 4to. woodcut on title, fine UNCUT COPY in red morocco, super extra, top edge gilt, by F. Bedford, £21. Richard Cotes, 1645

EXCESSIVELY RARE. This edition is not mentioned by Lowndes, nor can I find any trace of it in my bibliographical memoranda. The entirely uncut condition makes this copy probably UNIQUE.

FRANCE:

- 12725 VINCENTIUS BELLOVACENSIS. Le premier (second, troisième, quatrième, et cinquième) volume de Vincent MIROIR HISTORIAL (traduit par Jean de Vignay) 5 vols. folio, 32 large and rude woodcuts; in Vol. III. the heading of book 17 defaced, a few leaves in Vol. V. slightly wormed, and a few others a little stained, but otherwise a very fine large copy in stamped russia extra, gilt edges, £42. 10s

Paris, Anthoine Verard, 1495-96

EXCESSIVELY RARE. I cannot trace the sale of a single copy. Vincent de Beauvais was one of the most eminent of the Encyclopedists of the thirteenth century. The above work is a translation of the historical section of his voluminous work, entitled Speculum Naturale, Doctrinale, Morale, et Historiale, which was intended as a receptacle for all the knowledge of that age. "The sources of this magazine of knowledge (says Hallam, in his Literary History), are of course very multifarious. The writings of ancient authors, and of all who had treated the same subjects in the middle ages, are brought together in a comprehensive, encyclopædic manner, and with vast industry, etc."

- 12726 ROMMANT DE LA ROSE, en vers, sm. folio, Gothic Letter, numerous rude woodcuts, printer's mark on title, fine copy in old French calf, £12. 12s

Nouvellement imprime a Paris pour Clement Longis, s. d. (circ. 1495)

This is apparently the same as the undated edition of Jehan Petit, which is supposed to have been printed towards the end of the fifteenth century. Probably, the printer, Nicolas Des Prez issued a separate title to each of the two publishers. Brunet does not seem to have known that there was such a publisher as Clement Longis. He engraves the mark of Jean Longis (1530, etc.) as a striking one: it is only a reproduction of the mark used in the above volume, with the substitution of J for C.

- 12727 LUDOLPHE (Pere) LE GRANT VITA CHRISTI traslate de Latin en Francoys per venerable scientifique et eloquète personne, frere Guillaume Lemenand, Vol. II. (containing parts 3 and 4) LARGE WOODCUT ON TITLE, with initials, and others in the text, slightly stained at the end, old crimson morocco, 24s

A fine copy fetched 191 fr. at Solar's sale.

- 12728 FROISSART (J.) Croniques de France, d'Angleterre, d'Escoce, d'Espagne, de Bretagne, de Gascongne, de Flandres et lieux circonvoisins, 4 vols. in 3, sm. fol. (a little wormed, and the margins of 12 leaves in Vol. 4 mended, and wanting 2 leaves in Vol. 1, viz. o i and o ij) hf. bound, £4. 4s

Paris, pour F. Regnault et J. Petit, 1518

This edition is precisely the same as that bearing the name of A. Verard, published the same year, and it is a matter of indifference whether a copy bears the name of any one or of all three of these publishers. It is often asserted that they are different editions.

- 12729 LEGENDE DES FLAMENS, Artisiens, et Haynuyers, ou autrement leur Cronique abregee, en laquelle sont contenues plusieurs hystoires de France, Angleterre & Allemagne, &c. sm. 4to. black letter, woodcut portraits, etc. very fine copy in old calf, with the arms of the Rt. Hon. Thomas Grenville stamped in gold on sides, £12. 12s

First edition which, by Le Long, Du Verdier, and other Bibliographers, is considered the best, of a most interesting work for English History.

Impressi (sic) per Johannem Zainer in opido Ulm, (cir. 1476)

VERY RARE. This is the edition described by Brunet, v, column 1366, and by Panzer, iv, p. 458. I can only trace the sale of one other copy, which was mentioned in Thorpe's catalogue, which was mentioned in Thorpe's catalogue, which was mentioned in Thorpe's catalogue.

- 12743 TURRECREMATA (Jo. de) Expositio brevis et utilis super toto Psalterio, folio, SUPERB COPY in old Dutch calf gilt, from the Enschede library, EXTREMELY RARE, £7

Panzer says "Diese deutsche Übersetzung ist wenig bekannt." Independently of the rarity and the age of this fine specimen of ancient typography, it must have an additional interest in the eyes of amateurs from the fact that the author of the Latin original was Walter or Humphrey Burley, a learned Englishman.

- 12747 BIBLIA integra, summata, distincta, accuratius reemēdata, utriusque testamenti cōcordantiis illustrata, very stout 12mo. beautifully printed in minute character, 54 lines per column, ruled in red ink throughout, initials painted in, and two pages illuminated, old red morocco extra, with a border of green morocco on the sides, gilt edges, from the Enschede library at Haarlem, £5. Basil. Strassburg, Hans Grüninger, 1500

12751 — Ein schöne unnd warhafft History von dem teuren, gehertzten und manhafftigen Hugē Schappler, sm. folio, a different text from the preceding, black letter, numerous woodcuts, calf extra, gilt edges, £6. 6s

Strassburg, B. Grüninger, 1537

This scarce and little-known Romance of Chivalry is supposed to relate to the career of Hugh Capet. Brunet calls it a German romance which was never translated into French; but the preface to the book states that the original was French, which had been translated by Elizabeth Duchess of Lorraine. This translation was then revised and corrected by Conrad Heindorffer, and his version, in old German, was published by Hans Grüninger in 1500. The edition of 1537 was made in modernised German by a new editor, and differs very considerably at the beginning from the first one. The woodcuts are the same in both, but differently distributed.

12752 LOHER. EIN SCHÖNE WARHAPTIGE HYSTORY von Keiser Karolus sun genant Loher oder Lotarius wie er verbant ward siben jar usz dem künigreich und wie er sich die selbig zeit so ritterlich bruchte das er zuletzt Römischer keiser und im uszgeschnitten ward, sm. folio, numerous woodcuts, fine copy, in the original MS. £15. Straszb. von J. Grieninger, 1514

A prose Romance of Chivalry, and so rare that I cannot trace the sale of any copy. Brunet does not mention it, but he does quote a book printed in 1805 with the following title: "Loher and Maller eine Rittergeschichte nach einer ungedruckten Handschrift bearb. von Schlegel." Evidently, neither Schlegel nor Brunet knew that the above edition existed. That the two editions are of one and the same book, is clear from Brunet's note regarding the authorship. The romance was translated from Italian by the same literary lady who gave Hug Schäpler to the world.

There is a curious woodcut book-plate pasted in the volume, with the name, "Erhardus à Muckenthall," and dated 1634.

12753 PALTZ (Johannis de) Celifodina abasconditos Scripturæ Thesaurus pandens, cum Supplemento, 2 vols. in 1, sm. 4to. two large woodcuts on the titles, pigskin, with clasps, £2. 2s Lyptzick, 1515-16

A very curious work written by one of the missionary predecessors of Tetzl, and who, like him, was sent to dispose of indulgences.

12754 MISSALE consummatissimū scdm usum ordinis D. Benedicti de obseruantia per Germaniā, p peritissimum quendā istius ordinis monachum correctum ac emendatum, fol. title in red, within fine woodcut border, and other woodcuts through the text, with the MUSIC noted on four lines, ancient stamped binding, from the Enschede collection, £12. 12s Halberstadie, 1520

"Le titre est orné d'une bordure par le maître au monogramme C. G. (Voir BARTSCH VII 472). Les éditions de Halberstadt sont peu communes." Such is the note of the Enschede Catalogue, but indeed there appears to be only this one edition of the Halberstadt Missal known, and it is extremely rare.

12755 PSALTER IN DUTCH. DIE SOUTER wel verduytscht wt die heyliche oft Hebræusche sprake . . . Verclaringhe des . . . Psalters . . . door Johanem Bugenhäg . . . vorrede Martini Butzer, etc. sm. 4to. title within woodcut border, very fine copy in old calf, from the Enschede library, £8. 8s Gedruct te Basel bi mi Adam Anonymus, 1526

COLLATION: 24,597, and 33 pp. It is the FIRST EDITION of Bungenhagen's Psalter translated "in goeden verstandeliken Duytsche" by Adam Petri de Langendorff.

12756 CESARIS (Caii Julii) des grossmechtigen ersten Römischen Keysers Historien vom Gallier vñ der Römer burgerische Krieg, so er selbst beschriben, vñ durch sondere grosse Manheyt seiner ritterlichen Tugent gefüret hat, sm. folio, numerous large and spirited woodcuts, morocco extra, gilt edges, £3. 16s Meyntz, Johann Schiffer, 1530

The woodcuts, although possessing considerable merit, might have adorned any book on warfare as well as this, there being but one scene—his death—in which Cæsar might be recognized.

12757 BIBEL TEÜTSCH, das ist alle Bücher Alts und Neüws Testaments, den ursprünglichen Sprachen nach, auff's aller treuwlichst verteutschet, mit Concordantien, 2 parts in one stout volume, smallest folio, old red calf, gilt edges, from the Enschede collection, £8. 8s Zürich, Christ. Froschouer, 1552

A beautifully printed book in the very finest state of preservation: the paper is as clean and fresh as if it had only been printed yesterday.

12758 BIBEL (DIE GANTZE) das ist alle Bücher Alts und Neüws Testaments, den ursprünglichen Spraachen nach, auff's aller treuwlichst verteutschet, mit Concordantzen, 2 vols. in 1, very stout folio, title within woodcut borders, and numerous woodcuts throughout the text, the fourth leaf mended and slightly defective, very fine copy in Dutch calf extra, gilt edges, £11. 11s Zürich, Froschouer, 1560

This is also a magnificent specimen of Froschouer's famous press. This copy is from the Enschede collection, into which it first passed above a hundred years ago.

12758*EURIPIDIS TRAGÆDIÆ octodecim (19) [accedente ejusdem ELECTRA valde hactenus desideratâ Tragediâ, nuper demum editâ], Grace, very stout 12mo. fine copy in stamped pigskin, £15. 15s

s. l. et a. (? Francof. Burbach, 1558)

EXCESSIVELY RARE. A MS. note by the former owner states that only three copies were known and the Grenville Catalogue states that "it is so rare that the late Dr. Burney and Dr. Elmsley, editor of Euripidis, were unable to find a copy at Oxford or elsewhere, though it was known that Porson had possessed the book." Ebert describes it as very rare and remarkable, and cites the Dresden Library copy as being stamped on the binding, with the date 1563. The present copy is stamped "I. V. H. 1563."

12759 PAPACY. VON DER ERSCHROCKLICHEN ZURSTÖRUNG vñnd Niderlag dess gantzen Bapstumbs, gepropheceyet vñd geweißagt durch die propheten, Christum vñ seine Aposteln, vñ ausz Johannis Apocalypsi figürlich vñnd sichtlich gesehen, sm. folio, a curious work with 101 fine woodcuts in the style of LUCAS CRANACH, fine copy in old calf gilt, from the Enschede library at Haarlem, £25. s. l. et a. (cir. 1560)

"Ouvrage très-remarquable en vers et en prose, imprimé selon EBERT (23880) à Bâle vers 1560—70, avec de belles gravures sur bois, dans la manière de L. CRANACH, dont 7 de la grandeur du livre et 94 plus petites, y compris les figures répétées. Voir le Catalogue de la bibliothèque de A. F. DIDOT (1867) No. 5."

The first large woodcut contains the figure of a female Pope mounted on the Beast with seven heads, with several princes kneeling before her. The inscription is "Agnes ain Weib aus Engelant Johannes der Sibent genant a. 851." This is a new version of the old legend of Pope Joan, making her Agnes, an English woman.

ITALY:

EXCESSIVELY RARE. I can only trace the existence of two other copies: one in Lord Spencer's library, and an imperfect copy on vellum in the Bibl. Impériale. At Libri's sale in 1857, the eight leaves which contain the saint's life, alone fetched 51 fr. Dibdin's description of Lord Spencer's copy agrees with the above, except that he gives 4 leaves for the table, which is apparently a mistake for 4 pages. "Edition très rare. . . . Les caractères sont les mêmes que ceux d'un Horace sans date et d'un opuscul de S. Basile, imprimé en 1471." Brunet (V. 1321)

12762 DONATI Grammatici peritissimi Fabularum Breviatio Ovidii Nasonis elegans & succincta, sm. 4to. fine copy, red morocco extra, by Lortic, £6. 6s Petrus Mauser Normanus Rothomagensis civi (? Patavii, cir. 1476)

EXTREMELY RARE, and interesting as the typographical production of a Frenchman, a citizen of Rouen, although printed in Italy.

12763 PETRARCA. Incomincia il LIBRO DEGLI HOMINI FAMOSI compilato per lo inclyto poeta Miser Francisco Petrarca, folio, EDITIO PRINCEPS, vellum, large copy, £2. 2s Verona, Felix et Innocens Ziletti, 1476

In the colophon there is an observation that the book was not written "calamo anseris ve penna," but that "aere Felix impressit."

- 12764 APPIANI Civilia Bella. On first page: Ad diuum Alfonso Aragonum & utriusq; Sicilie regem in libros CIVILIVM BELLORUM ex Appiano Alexandrino in latinū traductos Prefatio (P. CANDIDI) incipit felicissime, 2 vols. folio, old calf gilt, fine copy, but not uniform, Vol. II. being smaller in size and with gilt edges, while Vol. I. is very large, from the Enschede library, £3. 16s Venet. per Bernardum Pictorem et Erhardum Ratdolt una cum Petro Loslein de Langencen correctore ac socio, 1477

"Few ancient volumes of the Classics display greater beauty of typographical execution than does the present one. Clement and See-miller may be indulged in the full scope of their warm eulogies upon it."

"Edition de la plus grande beauté . . . chef-d'œuvre de typographie."—Santander.

Brunet calls it "édition fort belle," and states that the fine Arabesque border on each first leaf was the first of the kind ever used.

Firenze, per Nicholo di Lorenzo della Magna, 1481

The third engraving is a duplicate of the second, as is generally the case.

- 12768 BIBIA dignamente vulgarizata per Nicolo de MALLERMI Venetiano, stout sm. folio, black letter, the first page of text adorned with fine MINIATURE AND ILLUMINATED ORNAMENTAL BORDER, fine copy in vellum, VERY RARE, £18. 18s

Venetia, O. Scotti, 1481

"Les 4 ff. prélim. sont tach. A la fin se trouvent 12 ff. (dont 1 pour la Vie de Joseph et 11 pour la Table). Voir Hain, 3153."

The ancient editions of Mallermi's Bible are excessively scarce, and fetch corresponding prices. I cannot trace the sale of a single copy of the above edition.

- 12769 CLAUDIANI OPERA, ex recensione B. Celsani, sm. folio, FIRST EDITION, a beautiful copy with the rare blank leaf A 1, russia, £6. 10s

The Nonnus is the scarcest of all the Christian Poets published by Aldus. It is often added to the third volume of the collection.

12788 ——— the same, 12mo. a fine large copy in old calf, gilt back, £5. 5s 1502

This is the first book in which the anchor was used as the Aldine device, and many copies are without it, but each of the present two has that mark.

"Edition dont les beaux exemplaires sont rares et recherchés. Vend. 139 fr. 50. c. bel exemplaire MacCarthy."—Brunet.

This is one of the rarer copies, bearing on the title "Propetius" instead of "Propertius," and of which not many had been issued before the mistake was perceived and corrected.

12791 SOPHOCLES Tragoediæ septem, Græce, cura Aldi Romani, 12mo. FIRST EDITION, with MS. notes, hf. bd. 28s; or fine copy in limp vellum, many uncut leaves, £2. 2s Venet. Aldus, 1502

12793 OVIDII NASONIS Opera, edidit Aldus, 3 vols. 12mo. FIRST ALDINE EDITION, veau fauve extra, gilt edges, VERY RARE, £6. 6s Venet. Ald. 1502-3

Brunet.

It is very uncommon to meet with the three volumes together, all uniform, and of this first edition. Thorpe priced a copy of Vols. I. and II. only, £12. 12s. The first volume containing the Libri amatorii was generally bought and read alone, so that, in the middle of the sixteenth century, it was no longer procurable.

12794 OVIDII Opera (ed. Navagero) præfatus est Andreas Asulanus, 3 vols. 12mo. red morocco extra, gilt edges, by Silani, £4. 4s

Venet. in ædib. Aldi, 1515-16

Ven. apud Aldum, 1503

This copy possesses the "Electra." Gr. Romæ, 1545, which is also the first edition of that Play, and EXCESSIVELY RARE, bound up at the end of the second volume.

The number of Tragedies in the Aldine edition is really 18, the Hercules Furens being added to those mentioned on title.

This edition is eagerly sought after, and a fine copy like the present seldom occurs for sale. "Vend. 140 fr. Chardin; 192 fr. MacCarthy; 7 liv. 10 sh. Heber."—Brunet. These copies being of course without the Electra.

- 12796 ÆSOPI et GABRIÆ Fabellæ, Græce et Latine, Phornutus de Naturæ Deorum, Græce; Palæphatus de non credendis Historiis, Græce; Heracles de Allegoriis, Græce; Collectio Proverbiorum, Græce, etc. small folio, fine large copy in brown morocco, gilt edges, VERY RARE, £10.

This beautiful edition is called by De Bure, "rare and much sought after by the curious ;

A book, when complete, of extraordinary rarity, and one of the most important works in the collection of the Philological student.

A full, elaborate and entertaining account of this grand work is to be met with in Renouard, who concludes thus: "Ce précieux recueil est une des productions les plus importantes de l'imprimerie Aldine, &c."

"Collection précieuse dont les exemplaires complets et bien conservés sont rares et recherchés."—Brunet.

Venetis, Aldus, 1514 (1518)

There are two different Aldine editions bearing the above date, both equally rare and of equal commercial value, but the present is the second issue—that is, the correct one, and which has received the eulogies of so many scholars, according to Brunet and Renouard.

- 12804 THEOCRITI Opera (Græce), cum scholiis græcis, cura Zachariæ Calliergii, small 8vo. fine copy in a rich green morocco extra binding, silk linings and gilt edges, by Derome, £4. 4s Romæ, 1516

- 12805 ÆSCHYLI TRAGÆDIÆ sex, Græce, sm. 8vo. EDITIO PRINCEPS, very fine copy in old red morocco extra, gilt edges, £3. 3s Venet. Aldus, 1518
"Vendu, beaux exemp. 84 fr. D'O . . . ; 90 fr. Larcher."—Brunet.

This edition, which has always been sought after by the curious on account of its rarity, possesses a far greater claim to the notice of scholars; for notwithstanding that it has been the fashion with bibliographers to decry it as "incorrect and imperfect," it was chiefly by its means that Wellauer was enabled to give a much purer text than had been done by any of his predecessors; or in his own words: "In lectionibus Aldinis complures reperiuntur, vel dignæ, quæ in textum recipiantur, vel certo ita comparatæ, ut conjecturis ab interpretibus prolati, præferendæ sunt."—Wellauer Com. Æsch.

This rare edition of a rare volume is not mentioned by Brunet, but it is a fine specimen of the Giunta typography, and very attractive to the lover of choice old books.

- 12807 HOMERI OPERA, Græce, Homeri Vita, etc. cura Aldi Pii Manutii, 2 vols. 12mo. fine copy in blue morocco extra, vellum fly-leaves, silk linings, gilt edges, by Thouvenin, £6. 6s Venetiis, Aldus, 1524

Vinegia, Francesco Bindoni & Mapheo Pasini, 1534

Each of these rare pieces bears the date on the title; the former consisting of 15 and the latter of 16 leaves, the sixteenth containing the above imprint. This is necessary to shew the erroneous description in Brunet, who seems not to have seen the book, or at least a perfect copy.

The first edition is among the most splendid monuments in the world of Greek erudition and of Greek Printing. M. Renouard well observes in the opening of his description of it—"Trésor d'erudition grecque, espece de Sanctuaire dans lequel n'ont accès que ceux qui déjà ont fait progrès dans l'étude des anciens Classiques."

Bibl. d'un Amateur, Vol. 2, p. 133.

A very uncommon metrical romance which has fetched high prices at sales. Brunet calls it a "volume peu commun," and after quoting

THE ONLY COPY KNOWN OF THIS BOOK, WHICH IS THE FIRST PRINTED AT HAARLEM WITH A DATE. The book consists of Signatures a to l in eights, the last two leaves of l being blank. The preservation of these leaves is one of the most extraordinary features of the book. The woodcuts are very singular specimens of rude and early art, yet the faces are well-done.

Les gravures sur bois dont ce livre est orné, au nombre de 32, proviennent de G. LEEU à Gouda qui s'en est servi, ainsi que de

34 autres pour sa Passion de 1482 (HOLTROP, 419). En 1488 CLAES LEEU à Anvers s'est servi des mêmes planches (de toutes, au nombre de 66); —en 1490 PETER VAN OS à Zwolle (de 3 de ces planches seulement), et en 1496 les Frères confrenciers (Collacie-broeders) à Gouda (de toutes les 66.) M. ENSCHÉDÉ, qui a observé ces particularités, y ajoute dans une note au commencement de cet ouvrage: 'Il est digne de remarquer que GERAERT LEEU s'est servi depuis 1484 des mêmes caractères avec lesquels les livres de BELLAERT sont imprimés; ils sont donc probablement taillés à Harlem.'—Dans la 9e livr. des Monuments typogr. de M. HOLTROP on trouve un fac-simile de cet ouvrage rarissime."

12835 TBOECK VANDEN LEUEN ONS HEEREN JHESU CHEISTI, (Ludolphi des Carthusers), sm. folio, 53 coloured wood engravings, singularly quaint and striking, vellum-covered boards, with clasps, £9.

Gheprint . . . t'Antwerpen bij mij Gheraert de Leeu, 1487

RARE. This copy comes from a conventual library, as appears from the MS. note "Dit boeck toe behoort die susterē vā Sinte Clare t'Enchusen." Leeu had left Gouda for Antwerp two years before the date of this remarkable production. Holtrop (178) describes the volume.

12836 ONS HEEREN PASSIE, met ter Verrisenisse ende met ten Figuren, sm. 4to. 33 rude woodcuts in contemporary colouring, vellum, £16.

Gheprent te Delf in Hollant, 1487

VERY RARE. There is no printer's name, but the book is supposed to come from the press of Jacob Jacobsson (printer of the first Dutch Bible) or of H. Eckert van Hombergh. But M.

Enschede attributed it to Christian Snellaert. It is printed in the same character as the Psalter of 1487.

12837 HOOFKIJN VAN DEVOTIEN. Hier beghint een sueuerlijck Boecxken ghenoeemt t'Hoofkijn van Devotien, smallest 4to. 18 curious woodcuts in the original colouring, beautiful copy in old Dutch calf neat, from the Enschede collection, £6. 6s

Antwerpen, Gheraerd t'Leeu, 1487

VERY RARE. The book is described by Holtrop (180). At the end is bound up with it an old MS. "die Antiffen van den Sonnendaghen," etc. 23 leaves.

Antwerpen, Adriaen van Liesvelt, 1495

EXCESSIVELY RARE, and a very pretty little book of Hours, which is described by Holtrop (225). It consists of signatures a to t, in eights.

"Tout en imitant les heures françaises dans les ornements et dans l'arrangement des bois, elles gardent leur manière flamande," etc.

Renouvier, p. 237.

All the early Dutch books of "Hours" are very rare. COLLATION: a 8 leaves, b 16 leaves, b (bis) 8 leaves, and c to g in eights.

- 12842 DAT BOEC VANDEN LEVEN ONS LIEFS HEREN Ihu Cristi, sm. folio, numerous large and small woodcuts, uncoloured, the first leaf slightly mended, but in other respects a fine well-preserved copy in the original boards, covered with leather, £18.18s

The woodcuts which give so much importance to the book, are all well-designed and full of spirit, though their character is quaint and curious, and the execution rude. The book is described by Holtrop (606), and by Renouvier. The singular circumstance that the engravings

Zwoll, by Peter Os van Breda, MCCCC cxix (1499) have remained uncoloured, notwithstanding that it was the practice of the publishers in those days to have them coloured by hand before issuing, adds a special interest and value to the present copy.

Many of the engravings are by the famous Lucas of Leyden.

- 12845 BONAVENTURA. Contemplacions de la Vida de nostre Senyor, segons lo egregi y seraphico doctor sant Joā Bonaventura, sm. 4to. beginning with the "Epistola," signature a iii, or folio III, and ending with the Table, leaf ccvi, only a fragment of the last leaf (ccvii) remaining, which bears a large woodcut mark, with some rude woodcuts, vellum, £4.

? printed at the Benedictine monastery of Montserrat, in Catalonia, about the year 1500

"VERY RARE, and unmentioned by Salvá. Brunet also ignores it, unless it be the same as the Vita Christi, described in Vol. I, column 1090. A MS. note on the last page of the table to this Catalan work states an opinion that "as de Joan de Rosembach qui imprimi en Barcelona fins á 1530."

- 12846 MARINEI (Lucii Siculi) Opus de Geneologia (sic) Regum Aragonum, sm. folio, FIRST EDITION, woodcut portraits and borders, first leaf a little damaged and defective, the remainder of the book in very good condition, calf, EXCESSIVELY RARE, £4.

Impressum in Cesaraugusta, industriá Georgii Coci Alemani, 1509
Brunet, who mentions it, apparently never saw this work, printed at Saragossa, since he quotes as something strange the circumstance that it had appeared in the Solar catalogue with a title different from his own, the fact being that that title was merely a transcription of the verses which appear on the first page below the woodcut shield. The engravings include the continuous genealogical tree, and some coins, besides the numerous portraits of the kings.

- 12847 AMADIS DE GAULA. Los Quatro libros de Amadis d'Gaula nuevamente impressos & hystoriados, folio, numerous rude woodcuts, EXTREMELY RARE, very fine copy in morocco super extra, gilt edges, by Bedford, £30.

Venecia, Juan Antonio de Sabia, a las expensas de Juan Batista Pedrazano e Compañio, 1533

According to the Priest (in Don Quixote) Amadis de Gaul was the first of the Romances of Chivalry in Spain. and as the father of so pernicious a sect deserved to be thrown into the flames, but was spared at the intercession of the Barber "as the best of all the books of the kind." Colonel Stanley's copy sold for £50.

Salvá describes this edition as extremely rare, and catalogues it without a price, merely quoting the sum fetched at Stanley's sale. He enters into long particulars concerning the excessive scarcity of this and similar works, both in Spain and elsewhere.

12848 PRIMALEON. Los tres libros del muy esforçado cauallero Primaleon et Polendos su hermano hijos del Emperador Palmerin de Oliua, folio, numerous rude woodcuts, very fine copy in red morocco extra, gilt edges, by C. Lewis, from the late Mr. Chorley's library, EXTREMELY RARE, £42.

Venecia, 1534

Colonel Stanley's copy fetched at his sale £41. at the White Knights, £33.; and afterwards at Payne and Foss' sale in 1857, £38.—The excessive rarity of this edition may be conceived from the fact that no copy is described in any of the catalogues of Salvá, the most eminent and indefatigable dealer who ever collected rare Spanish books. It was printed by the same Sabio who executed the Amadis for J. B. Padrezan "mercader de libros."

12849 GUEVARA, Libro llamado Menosprecio de Corte y Alabaca de Aldea—Aviso de Privados y Doctrina de Cortesanos, Anvers, Martin Nucio—Libro de los Inventores del Arte de Marear, Trabajos que se passan en las galeras, Anvers, Nucio—3 vols. in 1, 12mo. calf, £2. 16s

no date, circa 1539

Apparently the first edition of these works, and unmentioned by Brunet. Salvá, Ticknor, and other bibliographers. As Spanish books, the preceding volumes are catalogued here, notwithstanding the geographical classification.

12850 XIMENEZ (Francisco). Este devoto Libro se llama CARRO DE LAS DONAS, trata de la vida y muerte del hombre Christiano, 5 parts, with three separate titles, in 1 vol. folio, title cut into and slightly defective, curious woodcut on title representing the Ladies' Car driven by Death, hf. bd. £3. 10s

Valladolid, Juan de Villalquivan, 1542

EXCESSIVELY RARE. The work is a translation by a Spanish monk from the Catalan original of Ximenez, but neither the original nor the translation is mentioned by, or apparently known to, Salvá and Brunet. I can only trace the sale of one other copy, which Thorpe formerly possessed.

12851 BIBLIA en lengua Española traduzida palabra per palabra dela verdad Hebrayca por muy excelentes letrados, vista y examinada por el officio de la Inquisicion. Con privilegio del yllustrissimo Señor Duque de Ferrara, sm. folio, title facsimile, and leaf of register wanting, otherwise a fine clean copy, ruled throughout, in vellum, gilt edges, VERY RARE, £12. 10s

No copy in Salvá's catalogues. "Cette Bible, connue sous le nom de Bible des Juifs ou Bible de Ferrare, est très rare."—Brunet. This copy, like all other copies but the one on Large Paper, which was in the MacCarthy library, has not the two leaves "Tabla de las Haphtaroth."

12852 PARADIN, QUADERNOS YSTORICOS de la Biblia, square 12mo. 142 beautiful woodcuts by Le Petit Bernard, vellum, fine copy, £8. 8s

Leon (Lyon), J. de Tournes, 1553

This Spanish edition appeared in the same year as the first French one, and consequently has the earliest impressions of the engravings. As for the rhymes, they are only barbarous dog-grel. But the book itself is the rarest form of Paradin's work, as there was but one edition with Spanish text.

Anvers, Philipppo Nucio, 1566

EXTREMELY RARE. This curious and interesting volume contains 149 Romances; among others, are the Historia de los Infantes de Lara; Romance del Conde de Saldana;

XXXV Romances del Cid; Romances del Conde Fernan Gonçales; Romances de Don Sancho Don Alfonso, Rodrigo, Pyramo y Thisbe, Ecuba y Paris, Jason, Theseo, Pryamo, &c. &c.

EXCESSIVELY RARE in this perfect state; the first and second volumes are not infrequently met with, but the third is almost nigro similima cygno in the annals of book-collecting. The White Knight's copy fetched £16. 16s; and the value of the book is now much greater.

- 12856 PEREZ DE OLIVA (Fernan) Obras, sm. 4to. calf extra, gilt edges, by Bedford, £3. 8s Cordova, 1596

RARE: there is no copy of this edition in Salvá's catalogues, nor is there any price or value mentioned by Brunet, who calls it "devenu rare." I can only trace the sale of one other copy.

A HISTORY of the ART of PRINTING: Its Invention and Progress to the Middle of the Sixteenth Century, by H. NOEL HUMPHREYS, Author of "A History of the Invention of the Art of Writing," "The Illuminated Books of the Middle Ages," and other works.

A general, comprehensive, and yet popular History of the Origin of the Printing Press—an engine which has proved itself by far the most marvellous of those brought to bear upon the progressive extension of civilization—has not been produced in a compact, convenient, and at the same time complete form: at all events, not with a sufficiently copious amount of illustrations from the works of the early pioneers of the printer's art to render the form and character of their first efforts and early progress fully and clearly understood by the general reader.

The discovery of Photolithography has placed at the command of the present author the means of such an abundant series of accurate facsimiles as has not been available in the most luxuriously produced works on the subject, even when cost has been the least thing considered.

The Illustrations of the work now announced, and which, unlike facsimiles produced by hand, will necessarily be absolute reproductions of their originals, exceed 100 in number, and frequently consist of representations of entire pages from many of the most interesting books produced by the early printers. Among them may be mentioned an entire folio page from the first printed Bible, the magnificent work of Gutenberg, richly adorned with ornamental borderings by a contemporary German illuminator; and an entire page from the celebrated Psalter of Schoeffer, in which the large capitals are printed in colours, in rivalry with the illuminators of the time. Pages from the first books printed in Italy, France, Spain, Flanders, and Holland will accompany the accounts of the introduction of the printing press to those countries; and several such entire pages in facsimile will illustrate the description of the works of William Caxton, the founder of the printing press in England. In addition to these and many illustrations of other kinds will be found a very interesting and an abundant series of examples from the most richly decorated of the French "Hors," and from the profusely illustrated German books produced in the first half of the sixteenth century.

As an introduction to the main subject, the method of recording events previous to the discovery of the arts of pictorial and alphabetic writing is briefly described, as also the progress and development of those arts, and the system established for the purpose of multiplying written books before the invention of printing. In the course of the narrative of all that is known concerning the first attempts to multiply books by means of printing, the block-books of the wood engravers are sufficiently described; and the relative claims of the Dutch and the Germans to the honour of priority in the first attempt to make use of movable metallic types are fairly and impartially stated. The subsequent progress of the art of printing is carried on with abundant illustrations from the Presses of Germany, Italy, France, Spain, Holland, Belgium, and England, till the middle of the 16th century, at which period it may be said to have become fully and widely established throughout the whole of Europe; and from which epoch its modern history may be said to commence.

This copy has the plate to the 33rd Canto in duplicate, with a copy of the rare plate to the 34th Canto inserted from an English edition, but in a long note Charles Nodier says, "l'histoire de la planche insérée en double par erreur est depuis longtemps restée à sa juste valeur. Celle qui devait orner la trentième quatrième chant fut supprimée par tout, et il n'y a point d'exemplaires qui la contiennent essentiellement."

Renouard's copy, hf. calif, UNcut, £48.* Calcutta, 1832-64

All the early volumes are out of print in Calcutta, and sell there at exorbitant prices. The Bengal Journal is a continuation of the "Asiatic Researches;" it is a most valuable periodical, devoted to Oriental Literature, Science, Antiquities, Geography, &c. No public library can do without this important work; it forms, with the Asiatic Researches, one of the noblest monuments of British dominion in the East.

This extremely rare book was published in 14 Lieferungen, each with one leaf of text and 4 superb plates; the last part, which is Supplementary, has an extra plate, and carries the Series beyond "Philip the Handsome." I can trace the sale of no copy in England or on the Continent. Brunet's statement of 22 parts and 66 plates is erroneous.

A very valuable and interesting chronicle, published here for the first time, after having for three centuries and a half shared the neglect and obscurity which Antonio deplored as the fate of all good early writers. Bernaldez was an eyewitness of the events that he describes, and on intimate terms with Ponce de Leon and the other great men of the time. Not the least interesting part of his work is the description of the Discovery of America, and his account of COLUMBUS, whom HE ALSO KNEW AND ADMIRER. He calls him a "Merceder de libros de estampa," which is more likely to be a correct designation than that usually given to the great navigator.

Still the best work on Fishes as far as the plates are concerned. Perfect copies are rare in this country, owing to an accident which destroyed the greater portion of the last six volumes immediately after their publication.

"One only regrets that a work so essential to every ichthyologist should be so expensive."

woodcuts in the text, (pub. at 150 francs), in a portfolio, £4 4s

A great deal of confusion is experienced from ignorant or incorrect descriptions of Blume's works. It may be useful to state that the 'Orchidées de l'Archipel Indien' is the same as the 'Nova Series of the Flora Javæ', but was published as a separate work with another title, in order to serve as a monograph of the 'Orchids' found in that part of the world.

In the edition issued under the title of 'Orchidées,' there are, however, remarks on each plant in French (following the Latin text), which are not contained in the edition published under the title of "Flora Javæ, Nova Series."

Clar. Doctores atque celebr. Magistros, with 32 plates, rarely found complete s. l. e. a. The above two pieces in 1 vol. 12mo. red morocco, by Smith.

The present volume, Brunet observes, is little known. It appears to have been the production of a London press, and apparently of the year 1583. Bruno on his return from thence to Italy, was arrested at Venice, and from thence conducted to Rome, where he was burned by a sentence of the Inquisition as an atheist and teacher of irreligion.

The above set, 15 works in 10 vols. as de- scribed, £15. 15s

Henry Bohn had, in 1848, a set 19 vols. which he offered for £42; my set contains pieces not in that collection, and vice versa.

THE ABOVE IS A GOOD FOUNDATION TOWARDS A COMPLETE SET OF GIORDANO BRUNO'S WORKS. Abroad they are much rarer even than in this country, as may be seen in CLEMENT, Bibliothèques curieuses, where no fewer than 40 pages are devoted to the subject, and a host of authorities cited.

"GIORDANO BRUNO WAS THE FIRST PERSON AMONG THE MODERNS WHO ATTEMPTED ANY MATERIAL INNOVATION IN PHILOSOPHY. HE WAS A MAN OF EXTRAORDINARY TALENTS AND METAPHYSICAL ACUTENESS. To great powers of mind, he added a lofty spirit, which arose superior to prejudice, and would admit nothing as true without examination. Fond of retirement and study, he entered into a monas- tery of Dominicans; but the freedom of his opinions, and the boldness of the censure which he passed upon the irregularities of the fraternity, soon created him enemies, and subjected him to persecutions, which obliged him to quit his order and his country, leaving behind him all his property. In the year 1583, he withdrew to Geneva, where his heretical opinions gave offence to Calvin and Beza, and he was soon obliged to provide for his safety by flight. After a short stay at Lyons, he came to Paris. Here, his innovating spirit recommended him to the notice of multitudes, who at this time declared open hostility against the authority of Aristotle. In a public disputation, held in the Royal Academy,

In 1586, he defended three days successively, certain propositions concerning nature and the world, which, together with brief heads of the arguments, he afterwards published in Saxony, under the title of Acrotismus, or "Reasons of the physical Articles proposed against the Peripatetics at Paris." The contempt with which Bruno, in the course of these debates, treated Aristotle, exposed him to the resentment of the academic professors, who were zealous advocates for the old system; and he found it expedient to leave France. He now went to England, in the train of the French Ambassador, Castelnau, where he was hospitably received by Sir Philip Sidney, and Sir Fulke Greville, and was introduced to Queen Elizabeth. He afterwards visited Wittenberg, Helmstadt, and Frankfurt. His next residence was at Padua; there, the boldness with which he taught his new doctrines, and inveighed against the court of Rome and the clergy, soon brought him under the censure of the Court of Inquisition at Venice, as an apostate from the faith; in consequence of which, he was conveyed as a prisoner to Rome, and, after two years' confinement, was condemned to the flames. This sentence was executed in the year 1600; a severe fate, which, though it has been ascribed to the impiety of his tenets, was more properly the effect of his desertion from the Romish Church, and of his daring attacks upon the majesty of the pontificate."

Engfeld's Hist. of Philosophie.
"But the most interesting of the distinguished characters of this period, was Giordano Bruno, a man as remarkable for his fate as for his opinions and his talents. To a powerful and comprehensive mind, he joined a lively and fertile imagination, and was deeply versed in the Philosophy of the Ancients, Mathematics, Physics, and Astronomy, with a taste highly cultivated by classical reading."

Cousin, Hist. de la Philosophie.

Henry D'Escamps*, folio, seconde édition, 107 plates, executed in the best style of photography, with text, (pub. at £9.) in parts, £7. 15s Berlin, 1868

Le Musée Campana à Rome était une des collections les plus vastes, les plus variées et les plus importantes qui aient jamais été formées en Europe, soit par des particuliers, soit par des gouvernements, sans en excepter les galeries les plus célèbres.

Ce riche assemblage de Marbres antiques ne se trouve plus aujourd'hui à l'endroit où il fut formé. Ayant été acquis par le gouvernement russe et le gouvernement français, une partie a été transportée à St. Petersburg et l'autre à Paris, où elle se trouve sous le nom de Musée Napoléon II.

Les 107 Photographies dont se compose le présent ouvrage ont été prises par les meilleurs artistes à Rome, sous la direction de M. le marquis Campana, avant le transport de la collection aux endroits susdits, et n'ont jamais été publiées.

Excusum Londini opud

Reginaldum Wolfum, MDLIII.

Dr. Bl'ss' copy is the only one I can trace as having ever occurred for sale, and Dibdin (Typogr. Antiq. iv. p. 19) only knew of the existence of Heber's copy, which was probably identical with that of Dr. Bliss.

This Catechism is so rare that Heylin in his Certamen Epistolare asserts "it is so hard to come by, that scarce one scholar in 500 hath ever heard of it, and hardly one of a thousand hath ever seen it." The authorship is disputed. Strype says it was by Nowell, R. Smith by Cranmer and Ridley, Churton and Heylin by Poynter Bp. of Winchester; yet Heylin, in his History of the Reformation, attributes it to Cranmer assisted by learned men. There were two editions in this same year; this is one with the Articles numbered in the margin.

printed by Lawrence Andrewes, cir. 1520

which preceded it. Only very few copies and most of these imperfect, have turned up for sale within the last forty or fifty years. There is none mentioned in the Bodeian and Grenville catalogues, nor can I trace any amongst the papers of my bibliographical index. The present copy is unfortunately not perfect: it wants signatures l 1 and l 4, m 2 and m 3 and four leaves of y. Otherwise it is a very desirable book, and especially remarkable as containing the first known specimens of English wood engraving; the cuts being printed from the same blocks which Caxton had used in 1481.

- 12978 CHAUCER. - A publication of the greatest value and importance. The editor has not only united in one body, as had never previously been done, the famous "Cartas-Relaciones," or Commentaries of Cortés; but here also, he publishes for the first time, the fifth of those Commentaries, as well as a number of minor letters on the same subject, hitherto unprinted, from Cortés to Charles V, and others. Found in the archives of Vienna and Simancas, these documents supply fresh and very important materials for the early history of America.

- The accurate delineation and colouring of the plants in this work render it almost, if not quite, as valuable a book to the Botanist, as it is to the Entomologist. The Cypripedium Calceolus (Ladies' Slipper) represented inaccurately in Sowerby's English Botany, is correctly drawn in this work.

- 3035 EVANGELIA QUATUOR, LATINE, CUM PROLOGIS, ARGUMENTIS ET BREVIARIIS, LATINE, small folio, FINE ANCIENT MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM, with canon of Eusebius, picture of St. Matthew, and initial letter finely ornamented in the Byzantine style, without the leaf containing the commencement of St. Mark's Gospel, red morocco extra, gilt edges in a blue solander case, £72. Sec. XII.
Probably of Italian origin, this Manuscript is written in a fine clear character, with more of the Roman than of the Gothic type in it. The capital letters display the peculiar slender form in vogue at that time; V has always the appearance of a Y; and the non capital y is represented crowned with a dot. The note of Interrogation is a mark above the line, resembling a written u.
The original text was full of variations from the accepted form of the Vulgate, but a later hand (13th century) has made corrections and additions in many places. This corrector evidently regarded the codex with much veneration, since he destroyed nothing; the mode adopted by him being to write the substituted word above the original one, without touching the latter, and in the case of words and phrases which he considered superfluous or interpolated, to mark them by a line of dots beneath. But even his corrections have not always the effect of restoring what is considered the true language of St. Jerome. It is curious that in Matthew xxiv., the following verse is added on the margin, in the handwriting of the original scribe, to be inserted after the 41st verse: "Duo in lecto, unus assumetur, et alter relinquetur." As a third part to the very remarkable passage contained in verses 40 and 41, this is interesting. In a few instances the MUSIC of some passages is written above the line in red ink. The striking verses 19-22 in Matthew viii. were omitted by the original scribe, but are added at the side by the corrector.
The name of the writer is written on the last leaf "AMBROSIVS ME SCARSIVS," after four lines which indicate that he had the intention of continuing his transcription of the Testament.

The most complete book of reference to the Ornithology of Europe, and one that should be in every nobleman's and gentleman's library, for besides being beautifully illustrated. It gives in a concise manner a complete description of each bird. Every plate is a picture in itself, and the birds, admirably drawn by the author, Mrs. Gould, and Mr. Lear, are represented in the most life-like and characteristic attitudes, while the large size of the work has enabled the artist to depict almost all of the natural size. To the naturalist it is indispensable as a work of reference, while by the collector it will be found a most handsome library book, and one which for beauty of illustration will never be surpassed.

3090 HARVEY (W. H.) PHYCOLOGIA BRITANNICA; or History of British Sea Weeds, containing coloured figures of all the species of Algae found in Great Britain, arranged systematically, with descriptive letter-press, 4 vols. 4to. LARGE PAPER, 360 COLOURED plates, (pub. £20.) cloth, £12. 12s

The 'Phycologia Britannica,' forms a complete illustrated history of all the Sea-Weeds inhabiting the shores of the British Islands; an entire plate, with a few exceptions in which it is unnecessary, being appropriated to each species. In addition to a characteristic figure of the specimen of the natural size, the detail of fructification and growth is exhibited in different degrees of magnification, with that fidelity and minuteness, for the delineation of which the author is alone competent, from his knowledge of their structure, developed by the improved powers of the microscope. To effect a proper degree of delicacy in the figures, each subject is printed in its own tone of colour, the shades and varieties of tint being added by the pencil; and of the letter-press two pages are devoted to each plate or species, including generic and specific characters and ample descriptions, geographical distribution, synonyms, references, and a general summary of observations. The beauty, variety, and extraordinary delicacy of colour of the marine Algae have ever rendered this tribe of plants a favourite object of study; but hitherto a serious want has been felt of an adequately illustrated work, devoted to these plants. The admirable figures by Greville, comprise but a few of the most remarkable species, while the plates in the 'English Botany,' are, in several instances, drawn from imperfect specimens, and do not afford that justice to the subject which modern discoveries and improvements render necessary.

Extract from Dr. Needham's Preface: Hieroclis Commentarius, Cantab: 8vo. 1709:—

“Hæc autem anxie mihi animo revolventi et de Hierocle ad meliora tempora reponendo sæpius cogitanti, primum oblatum est subsidium antiqui commentarii in aurea carmina, centum plus minus annis antequam Græca Hieroclis in lucem prodirent, a B. de Val de Zoccho, Patav: excusi, A. D. 1474.

Rarissimum hunc librum diu et frustra quesitum in instructissimâ suâ Bibliothecâ, tam elegantâ quam numero codicum MSS. et impressorum, vere admirandâ, eâ, quâ omnes Literatos, tam externos quam nostrates jamdiu demeruit, humanitate libentissimâ porrexit eximius Præsul Johannes Morus, dudum Norwicensis, nunc Ellensis Episcopus.”

- 102 HOMERI ILIAS. ITEM BATRACHOMYOMACHIA ET HYMNI. Omnia Græce. 12mo. fine copy, ILLUSTRATED with a series of engravings by CRISPIN DE PASSE, calf, EXCESSIVELY RARE, £3.

Paris. apud A. Turnebum, 1534

The Batrachomyomachia and Hymni are pagæ 427 to 498, and in all probability were intended to be attached to an edition of the Odyssea contemplated by Turnebus, but never printed. Only three or four copies of this portion are known, the rest having been probably destroyed as waste paper, and are of such extraordinary rarity that Regnaud-Bretel's copy sold for 451 francs.

- 103 HOOKER (Sir W. J.) and E. K. GREVILLE, ICONES FILICUM; OR FIGURES AND DESCRIPTIONS OF FERNS, 2 vols. folio, 240 finely coloured plates (pub. at £25. 4s in parts) half green morocco extra, gilt edges, scarce, £14. 1829-31

- 104 MORATII Flacci Opera, 2 vols. 8vo. a remarkable copy of Pine's superb edition, engraved throughout, red morocco extra, gilt edges, by Bedford, probably unique, £12. Londini, Johannes Pine, 1733

A vague notion exists that there are only two issues of Pine's Horace, the first issue with the error on Cæsar's Head, Vol. II. page 108, "Postest;" the second issue, the error corrected into "Potest." This is only half the truth. Pine's coppers were worked perhaps a dozen times, and as recently as 1775 a number of impressions were taken, after which they seem to have disappeared.

The present copy is a very early one, with Pine's original printed prospectus and list of subscribers, 6 leaves, and 4 specimen leaves, proof before the issue of the work. The copy has of course the "Postest."

- "This branch of knowledge was materially advanced in 1847 by the publication of Lord Lindsay's 'History of Christian Art,' the introductory portion of which was devoted to a learned and elaborate exposition of what the writer appropriately termed 'Christian Mythology.' Lord Lindsay's book, however, was too ponderous and solemn to become generally popular. He pointed out in a very impressive manner, to those interested in the progress of Italian art, the great earnestness of purpose and self-devotion which characterized the earliest painters and sculptors of that country. And his work will long be appealed to upon questions connected with the mental development of the middle ages."—Fine Arts Quarterly, N. S. I. p. 123.

Harris, in his edition of Ware, Vol. III. p. 205, mentions the great rarity of this book, and states that he had not been able to see a copy. It is a curious and highly interesting volume to the col-

Brunet's note regarding this valuable work, is as follows: "Ouvrage généalogique et héraldique très-important, mais à peine connu chez nous, où il est excessivement rare." Ebert calls it "a highly valuable work, very rare," and says that its statements are recognised by the Austrian Government as sufficient authentication of nobility and genealogy. Probably there are not more than three copies in the British empire.

178 — another copy, probably one of the finest and tallest ever offered for sale, royal folio, quite perfect, brown MOROCCO extra, gilt edges by Bedford, £27.

This copy measures 18 in. in height and 12½ in. in width; it was bound by Bedford from the original oaken boards.

This copy belonged to an Italian gentleman residing in London in 1513, and in 1533 to his mother in Florence. The following statements are neatly written behind the title-page:—

"Hic liber est Petri de Bardis Florentini quem emit Londinis die xxvii Martii MDCIII. a xli. d. viii (12s 8d) de starlinis. In cuius manus pervenerit sciat peccatum non dimitti nisi restituat ablatum."

"Nunc autem pertinet ad dominam Margaritam genitricem dicti Petri de Bardis qui usque ad hanc diem xxv Novembris, 1533, moratur Londoni, provincie Angliæ Interim restituitur fratri Nicolao Bartholdi de Florentia ordinis predicatorum germano prefatæ domine Margharitæ:—a qua mutuo accepit dictum librum."

The family held the "Chronicle" in great favor, to judge from these notes.

EDITIO FAINCER.—This is a magnificent specimen both of ancient printing and of ancient engraving. "If Koberger," says Dr. Dibdin, "had printed only this Chronicle, he would have done enough to place his name among the most distinguished of his typographical brethren." It has always been styled, by way of distinction, the Nuremberg Chronicle, and scarcely any volume has been so celebrated for a long series of years. The engravings, which are upwards of 2,200 in number, are in wood, and were executed by Michael Wolgemut and Pleydenurf, the former of whom was the master of Albert Dürer; the subjects are Portraits of Illustrious Characters, Views of Towns, &c. &c. In the Bibliotheca Spenceriana it is minutely described, and facsimiles of the cuts are given; Dr. Dibdin has appropriated no less than twenty-six pages to this article alone.

13179 O'CALLAGHAN'S (E. B.) List of Editions of the Holy Scriptures, and parts thereof, printed in AMERICA, previous to 1860, with Introduction and Bibliographical notes, impl. 8vo. LARGE PAPER, half morocco, uncut, £4. 4s Albany, 1861

Presentation copy to Archdeacon Cotton by James Lennox, Esq.; with an interesting bibliographical letter from the author to Mr. Lennox.

The original cost of these drawings must have been at least 80 guineas; the labour bestowed upon these minute details is most surprising. Fergusson gives a woodcut of one of the Pillars in his Handbook of Architecture, Vol. I. 1855, page 97, and says: "One of the most remarkable Buildings is the Hall built by Trimul Naik at Madura. It was commenced in 1623, cost nearly a million sterling, and occupied 22 years in its erection. The building is 333 feet long by 81 ft. 10 in. wide, and is supported by 128 PILLARS OR PILES, ALL OF WHICH DIFFER, AND ARE ALL COVERED WITH THE MOST ELABORATE AND MINUTE ARCHITECTURAL ORNAMENTS, many having figures attached to the fronts of them, as well as groups on their sides. The object in building this magnificent chaultry was to provide a suitable abode for the god, who consented to leave his temple for ten days every year, and visit the king, on condition of his providing a suitable building for his reception."

On title, 1573—at end, Antwerp, 1572
The edition with German text is by far the rarest issue of the Atlas of Ortelius, and is remarkable for its peculiar and manifold specimens of type, in some instances block printing being apparently employed. The orthography and style of language are rather barbarous, but it is not merely a verbal translation of the Latin first edition, which appeared in 1570. It is a special edition, and in many parts, indications are given of its difference from the Latin text; as for instance in the preface, and at the description of Spain, where he reasserts and justifies his statement, made in the first edition, that the Spanish empire was the greatest that ever existed; in the text to Poland, where he mentions having seen an Aurochs at Antwerp in 1570; and in various other places. There are also fifteen new maps added to the original set of fifty-three which were published in 1570; and some of these are dated 1572 and 1573. Amongst the additions are fresh maps of the British Isles, furnished to Ortelius, with corresponding text, by Humphrey Lloyd, the Welsh antiquary. The map of Russia is by Antony Jenkinson, and dedicated to Sir Henry Sydney, governor of Wales. Daniel Rogers, another Englishman, also contributed assistance to the geographer, and a Latin epigram by him is prefixed to the work. The map of the New World is, for the time, singularly correct and full of detail; and the advance of discovery in North America is notably remarkable. There is a curious circumstance noted in the text relating to the New World. It is that "these lands have caused our countries to be filled with sugar; so that it is now used in every kitchen, and as an article of daily food, while formerly it was, with us, found only in apothecaries' shops and employed as a medicament." This statement will be new and interesting to the persons who have read that the cultivation of sugar was only introduced by the Spaniards into America shortly before the time of Ortelius. Another remarkable item, to illustrate the history of geographical discovery, is found in the map of Asia; in which New Guinea appears as an island, and the Terra incognita Australis is shown as a continent, separated from it by a strait. On other maps in the volume, New Guinea is spoken of thus: "It is not yet known whether it is an island, or part of the Australian continent;" but this is simply one of the numerous inconsistencies observable in a work compiled from so many sources. Now, the fact that New Guinea was an island is supposed to have first become known from the discovery and navigation of the strait by Torres, after whom it is called, in 1606; and the general belief concerning Australia has hitherto been, that the Dutch first discovered it in 1610.

In his notice of Abyssinia, he mentions that the kings were called Neguz, and the map to it is full of detail. In the text to Africa, he calls the Abyssinians, "yellow Moors," to shew that they were quite distinct from the Negro people, and makes some curious observations to disprove the old fallacy which considered that the colour of the skin depended upon the heat or cold of the climate.

- 184 OVIDII OPERA, 3 vols. folio, with the autograph of "Theodoricus de Plening Legum Doctor, 1540," and as well a number of spirited and curious drawings on the margins of Vols. II. and III. very large copy, in the original oak boards, with several rough edges, £15.

Parma, S. Corallus, 1477

The Pinelli copy sold for £17. 17s. It is a very rare edition; and copies occur for sale less frequently than even of the Rome or Venice editions previously printed. The book has an additional interest from the fact that the drawings and notes were formerly attributed to Melancthon and that it was sold at Sotheby's in a "Library of Books illustrated with the notes of Melancthon and Luther." This copy has the excessively uncommon blank leaves at the beginnings and ends, of which Brunet was ignorant; but has not leaf 6 of the first Gg in vol. II. which was apparently a blank one also.

Entirely out of print. This magnificent Publication was defrayed from funds bequeathed for the purpose by Dr. Sibthorp, aided by the subscriptions of about thirty subscribers. As the printing and colouring of each volume cost considerably more than the price charged, only fifty copies were worked off for the original subscribers, who gradually diminished until of the last three volumes only twenty-eight copies were coloured. THE ORIGINAL COST OF EACH COPY WAS £250.

This grand and magnificent work is universally allowed to be one of the most important contributions to Botanical science ever published in any country. The expenses of producing it, upwards of THIRTY THOUSAND POUNDS, were defrayed from the proceeds of an estate left by Dr. Sibthorp for that purpose; and as only 30 complete copies were sold, every one of them cost the estate upwards of a THOUSAND POUNDS.

RARE. Notwithstanding the limited nature of the title, these volumes relate almost as much to America as to the East Indies. Sixteen of the voyages in this collection were here published for the first time, and a complete copy of the whole work is not easy to find, as each piece, although the pagination is consecutive, was separately printed. Much of the information contained in the valuable maps was not generally diffused for above a century afterwards; witness the admirable map of the World in the account of Spilbergen's Voyage in Vol. II. America is most completely and accurately drawn there, in its true shape; California is correctly represented as a Peninsula, although in most Atlases and geographical books, even down to the middle of last century, it was drawn and described as an island. Hudson's Bay is called "The bay where Hibson did winter," and the discoveries of the English navigator are all set forth. There are eight of the plates missing, but this is a trifling deficiency in a collection of so much importance for the history of geography.

Still a classical work; it seems now an established fact, that the Lapps lived all over Northern Europe before the Celtic and Germanic invasions, and that the Dwarfs of our Fairy Tales were really Lapps left behind, when the other members of that tribe were either destroyed or driven northwards. The same theory would hold good for "Giants";—were they sturdy Celts who clung to their paternal strongholds disdaining to follow their brethren westwards?

- VERY RARE when the four parts are found together as in the present copy. Ludolf's History is the best work on Abyssinia; it gives an Account of the History, Literature, Natural History, Antiquities, Religion, Chronology, Language, Proverbs, and everything else curious relating to that country. The Commentary forming the second volume is very scarce; and the two Appendices which were printed at intervals later, are still more difficult to meet with.

"L'Archéologie de l'Inde par M. Lassen donne l'exemple le plus brillant de la manière dont on peut reconstruire, avec des matériaux épars, l'histoire d'un pays. La fin du quatrième volume de cet ouvrage, qui a paru l'an passé, contient surtout le tableau de la civilisation hindoue du IV^e au XI^e siècle; elle traite de l'histoire de la religion et des sectes brahminiques pendant cette époque, du bouddhisme, de son extinction dans la péninsule, et de ses conquêtes en dehors de l'Inde, de la secte des Djinaas, de l'histoire de la langue et de l'écriture, de la poésie épique et du théâtre, de l'astronomie, de l'architecture et du commerce de l'Inde. Il serait superflu de vouloir caractériser un ouvrage dont l'excellence est aussi généralement reconnue."

- The Manuscript, which is complete in itself, begins with el-Báb es-Sáti, so that there would appear to have been two chapters wanting in the original from which the present Codex was transcribed. The great rarity of this Diwán is sufficiently shown by the fact that Dr. Sprenger could only obtain an odd volume, in all the years of indefatigable research which he spent upon the collection of his library. It is not noticed in Hajl Khalifa, though a long list of other works by Abd-el-Ghani is given there.

- 939 BIBLE. تفسير الزبور تاليف انثيموس
Commentary on the Psalms, in Arabic, by Anthimos, Patriarch of Jerusalem, folio, portrait, bds. 7s 6d Vienna, 1791
- 940 BIBLICAL MANUSCRIPT. الاناجيل المقدسة : THE FOUR GOSPELS, in Arabic, with Introduction and tables to each, and preceded by an imperfect fragment of some Apostolical Epistles or Homilies, 4to. ANCIENT MANUSCRIPT beautifully written with all the vowel points, on Bombycine paper, with the headings of the chapters in gold, and a large MINIATURE, full page size, of the Virgin and Child with two other figures, painted on a ground of gold, at the beginning of Mark's Gospel, £25. Sec. XIII
A precious Manuscript, equally valuable for its text and its antiquity. Biblical MSS. in Arabic, are, as is well known, very scarce, but when they combine two important features like the codex now offered, are of the utmost rarity. The only imperfection in the text is that the first leaf of John, containing I, 1-16, has been torn away. These Gospels were formerly in the possession of the "Metropolitan Yaqûb. Lord of the Holy Sees of Jerusalem, Damietta, and Cyprus," as appears from a note at the end of the Introduction to Mark. The text, although presenting a general similarity to that printed by Erpenius, varies from it considerably in many places; some words are substituted, some added, and many others used according to a different grammatical form, as compared with the printed text. This variation is particularly striking in the Lord's Prayer, which differs so considerably from the received version that it would seem to be much more than a various reading of the same text. The calligraphy is probably Syrian of the thirteenth century, and is very elegant, large and clear; but the MS. was used in Egypt, as appears from the Coptic words that are written on the blank leaves. The fragmentary Homilies or Epistles, which precede the Gospels, are probably a hundred years later in date.

An excellent Dictionary, and the best of the kind which can be useful to an Englishman. The early Portuguese Dictionary of Edinburgh is no longer to be met with, its recent French translation is still and likely to remain, fragmentary, and of little use. Golovin is practically useless, and old Latin of Colladina has no value. This work was evidently printed in China, or perhaps in India. It is, therefore, to be regretted that the last agent for its sale should have destroyed the quantity of the book by substituting a new one. It is a true one, thus leading the public to suppose that it is of English origin and production. This regrettable practice is not confined to a single instance; individual, but is of frequent occurrence: and its effect is, not merely to mislead the public, but to render the book and its London publisher liable to every legislative enactment that affects the publications of Great Britain. That is, the five public libraries, entitled by law to receive gratis copies, have not merely the right, but are legally bound, to demand the fulfilment of this obligation.

670 Polish Bible. BIBLIA SWIETA. Biblia Polonica, large folio, FIRST EDITION OF THE SOCINIAN TRANSLATION INTO POLISH, black letter, woodcuts, EXCESSIVELY RARE, but several leaves mended, and wanting first leaf of dedication of N. Radziwili (at whose expense the book was printed), portion of a vi. (in Apocalypse) and 7 leaves of alphabetical table, sold therefore with all faults, in the original oak boards, covered with stamped rusia, £10. Breac. 1563

The rarity of this edition is so great that only three or four perfect copies are said to be in existence. The present copy is very large and would be found well adapted to form the nucleus of a perfect one. Lord Spencer, says Dr. Dibdin, gave 100 guineas for two incomplete copies to make one perfect, and Brunet records a copy wanting the table (probably this) as selling for £26. in Lieber's sale.

"Ramusio was the most learned compiler of the age."—Santarem.

"C'est une Collection précieuse, peu vantée par les libraires, peu recherchée par les amateurs des beaux livres, parce qu'elle n'est pas ornée d'estampes, mais seulement de gravures en bois qui n'ont rien d'agréable: elle est estimée par les savans, et regardée encore aujourd'hui par les géographes comme un des recueils les plus importants. Ramusio avoit, soit à raison des voyages qu'il avoit faits lui même, soit à raison de ses grandes connoissances dans l'histoire, la géographie, les langues, soit enfin à raison des correspondances multipliées avec ces personnes qui pouvoient être de quelque utilité à son entreprise, toutes les facilités nécessaires pour former une excellente collection."—Camus.

"Ramusio recueillit dès le 5me. siècle les relations qui pouvaient faire connaître les côtes de l'Afrique, une partie de l'Asie et les découvertes faites jusqu'alors dans le Nouveau Monde; il enrichit ces voyages de savantes préfaces, et composa des dissertations importantes."—DARU.

"Ramusio's collection of Voyages and Travels, the most perfect work of that nature extant in any language whatsoever; containing all the discoveries to the East, West, North and South; with full descriptions of all the countries discovered; judiciously compiled, and free from that great mass of useless matter, which swells our English Hacknuyt and Purchas; much more complete and full than the Latin De Bry, and, in fine, the noblest work of this nature."—LOCKE.

- This is a most interesting and neatly written manuscript. It contains the arms of all the Colleges, and also the family arms of all the Masters of Colleges, Chancellor, Steward, Commissary, Proctors, Counsellors, Professors and other Officers of the University in the year 1614. The arms are executed in a very good style, emblazoned in gold and colours. Opposite the dedication is a very large emblazoned shield of the arms of Sir Miles Sands.

BASQUE BIBLE AND TESTAMENT, translated as well as printed for the first time, at the expense of His Imperial Highness. Only 50 copies are intended for commerce.

Basque Bible: BIBLEA, edo TESTAMENT Zahar eta Berria Duvoisin Kapitainak, latinezko Bulgatatik lehembiziko aldiko Laphurdiko eskarara itzulia. Luis-Luziano Bonaparte printzeak argitara emana: LA SAINTE BIBLE, traduite pour la première fois en langue Basque, Dialecte du LABOURD, par le Capitaine Duvoisin, éditée par le Prince Louis-Lucien Bonaparte, impl. 8vo. 1365 pp. double column, in five parts, £8. 10s 1859-65

"Mons. Jean Duvoisin, a retired Captain in the Customs' service at Bayonne, has received the decoration of the Legion of Honour for a translation of the Bible into the Basque language of Labourd in France. M. Duvoisin spent six years in the translation, and six years more were spent by Prince Louis Lucien in revision, and in settling the orthography of the Basque words. The printing of the Bible in the Guipuscoan Basque of Spain, of which the Prince is one of the collaborators, is also commenced under his supervision, and will be completed by him in five years.

"In the other dialects of the Basque, the Biscayan, the Souletin, high and low Navarrese, as well as in several of their subdivisions, there are versions of some of the books of the Bible, edited or translated for the first time by the Prince. The grammar and declensions of these dialects are very intricate."—The Times, Feb. 18th, 1865.

Basque Grammar: VAN EYS (W. J.) ESSAI de GRAM-

MAIRE de la LANGUE BASQUE, (Dialecte de Guipuzcoa), 8vo. deuxième édition revue et augmentée, sd. 6s Amsterdam, 1867

The Basque Language consists of two distinct Dialects, the one spoken in the south of France near Bayonne, the other, in the adjoining Provinces in the North of Spain; this latter dialect, by far the most important, is treated of here. The first grammar in that Language, that of Larra-mendi, "El imposible vencido, 1729," contains many mistakes which in the above work have been carefully corrected.

Bartsch, le Peintre Graveur, 21 vols. sm. 8vo. with 83 plates of Monograms, and the 16 EXTRA ETCHINGS, new issue, sd. £7. 7s Leipz. 1854-66

— the same, bound in 22 vols. hf. morocco, gilt tops, uncut, £10. 10s 1854-66

This work which is, beyond dispute, the most exact and perfect production of its kind, had been long out of print, and copies became so rare that one, in shabby German boards, fetched at the Rev. Dr. Wellesley's sale, Nov. 1866, £13. 5s; 1867, Carpenter's copy, equally poor, £14.

It is a most complete account of Painters' Etchings and Engravings from the earliest period. The descriptions are so minute that any plate may be immediately recognized. Vols. 1 to 5, comprise the Flemish and Dutch Schools; Vols. 6 to 11, the German School; Vols. 12 to 13, the Italian School; Vols. 14 to 15, Marc Antonio Finiguerra and his School; and Vols. 16 to 21, the suite of the School of Italy.

A very skilful and, indeed, invaluable production, illustrated with some curious facsimiles. Bartsch is himself an artist of no ordinary ability, and his engravings, especially after some of Rubens, are quite admirable.

"A literary performance, in the graphic department, of really solid merit and utility."—Dittin's Tour in Germany, vol. 3, p. 303.

WORCESTER CHINA MANUFACTURE.

Binns's Century of Potting in the City of Worcester, being the history of the Royal Porcelain Works from

1750 to 1851, to which is added a short account of the Celtic, Roman, and Mediæval Pottery of Worcestershire by R. W. BINNS, F.S.A., a proprietor of the Royal Porcelain Works and the Art director since 1852, 8vo. illustrated with many woodcuts, cloth, 16s 1865

— the same, LARGE PAPER, 4to. with numerous ADDITIONAL PLATES and PHOTOGRAPHS, a very elegant volume, hf. morocco, £8. 3s 1865

"Mr. Binns' book is an important addition to ceramic literature, and will always be a local treasure. Mr. Binns writes tersely and well, tells what he has to tell in good simple English, and there is method in his arrangement of the various phases of his subject. Commencing with a history of ancient pottery and porcelain, he gives us a succinct account of the various early receipts for making porcelain; and then after a passing notice of the various European manufactures in 1750, he introduces us to Worcester ware, which he traces through all its various peculiarities, styles, and changes. Meanwhile we congratulate him on the production of a valuable and interesting book, which we heartily commend to our readers."—Worcester Journal, September 16, 1865.

"'Worcester Potting' is a valuable addition to the History of Art Manufacture in England." The Reader, 2 Dec., 1865.

Botfield's Præfationes et EPISTOLÆ EDITIONIBUS

PRINCIPIBUS AUCTORUM VETERUM præpositæ, curante Beriah Botfield.—Also with the title: "Prefaces to the first editions of the Greek and Roman Classics and the Sacred Scriptures, London, 1861," 4to. (pub. at £5. 5s) half morocco, uncut, 20s Cantabr. 1861

A most important contribution to the Literature of Bibliography. Mr. Botfield's Introduction, pp. i—lxxvi. written in English, conveys to the reader the clearest notion of the History and Uncertainty of the Early Manuscript Literature and its transmission to the relatively speaking much more critical and certain Printed Literature.

The PRÆFACES extend from page 1—666; the INDEX editorum, from p. 667—674. Some of the Prefaces are in Greek: all have been reprinted with scrupulous accuracy.

Of each author the exact TITLE of the Editio Princeps is given, with a most accurate COLLATION, and the number of lines to the page, so important in editions issued without a date.

These prefaces were in almost all cases written by the first Scholars of the time, and contain a vast bulk of historical, paleographical and critical facts, which have hitherto been inaccessible to Scholars on account of the great rarity of these Editiones Principes: the aggregate value of a set of fine copies of them would be about £10,000. Few public and no private Libraries can boast of a COMPLETE collection of these Editiones Principes. Mr. B. Quaritch will be most happy to assist collectors in procuring any of the Authors they may desire to possess.

Lafuente, will be interesting as an illustration of this class of Spanish poetry, and the poems will further recommend themselves to the scholar by their unquestionable literary merit.

The fortunate researches into the remains of the Temples of Jupiter Panhellenius at Aegina, and of Apollo Epicurius in Arcadia, undertaken in 1811 and 1812, excited the greatest interest amongst the archaeologists of Europe. Amongst others of less pretensions, two publications, treating on these important monuments, were gladly hailed by the public in 1830 and 1833; the first by Prof. Donaldson (Antiquities of Athens and other Places in Greece), and the second by the French Commission (Expédition Scientifique de Morée) conducted by M. Blouet; but neither of these works (collected some years after the excavations), was attended with the advantages which the leisurely investigations of the original excavators naturally possessed. The more authentic record of these investigations, by those who participated in them, was therefore a desideratum, until Mr. Cockerell's important work paid the debt due equally to the public and to his worthy associates in those enterprises.

ICHTHYOLOGY OF INDIA.

DAY. The Fishes of Malabar, by Surgeon FRANCIS

DAY, F.L.S. and F.Z.S., MADRAS ARMY, Author of "The Land of the Permauls; or Cochin, its past and its present," &c. &c. 1 vol. royal 4to. with 20 plates, half morocco, £2. 2s 1865

The coloured copies are nearly all subscribed for; immediate orders are therefore required to secure a copy.

The species most adapted for eating, salting, or the manufacture of isinglass or fish oils are pointed out, as well as those which are indigestible or poisonous when employed as human food, or inflict irritating or venomous wounds. The work is illustrated by thirty-two highly finished figures engraved on copper by the Author.

Wouldst thou the young year's blossoms and the fruits of its decline ?

And all by which the soul is charmed, enraptured, feasted, fed ?

Wouldst thou the earth and heaven itself in one sole name combine ?

I name thee, O Sakoontalá ! and all at once is said."—GOETHE.

"The present translation of 'Sakoontalá,' by Professor Williams, is exceedingly creditable to his scholarship and taste, and is a great improvement upon the translation by Sir Wm. Jones. The manner in which it has been given to the public is well worthy of the merits of the original drama, which has been always held in the highest estimation by critics and scholars. The illustrations are of great beauty and of great accuracy, having been taken from illuminated MSS. in the Library at the East India House and that of the British Museum."—H. H. WILSON.

Higgins's CELTIC DRUIDS: or an attempt to shew that the Druids were the Priests of Oriental Colonies, who emigrated from India, and were the Introducers of the first or Cadmean System of Letters, and the Builders of Stonehenge, of Carnac, and other Cyclopean works in Asia and Europe, 4to. map and numerous lithographic plates of Druidical Monuments, bds. £1. 10s 1829

The most philosophical digest of the existing information upon the origin of Druidical Worship.

The author traces that, and all other ancient systems of religion, back to their primal source; demonstrating that the extraordinary race of Upper India who founded Buddhism, were also the founders of the Chaldean, Phœnician, Etruscan, Guebre, Cabiri, Druidical, and Brahminical Mythologies. Much also, that pertains to Mosaic and Christian doctrine, is shown to have had a similar origin. It is needless to say, that the work is not orthodox; religion has been surrounded with an infinite number of forms and symbols, and veiled in so many superstitious ceremonials, that every tendency to restore its primitive simplicity is pronounced pernicious and heretical. Higgins therefore, like other great and philosophical minds, will be looked upon as an infidel, a dangerous innovator, by devout religionists of whatever sect. One of his chapters is devoted to prove that the Pentateuch was never meant to teach Chronology.

Hobler's Records of Roman History, from

Pompeius to Tiberius Constantinus (100 B.C. to A.D. 582), 2 vols. roy. 4to. containing an account of 2139 Coins, with photographic frontispiece and several woodcuts, (pub. at £2. 2s) new in cloth, 18s 1860

Only 250 copies printed: the best assistance that could be had was afforded to the author by the members of the Numismatic Society.

WESTERN TROPICAL AFRICA, collected by the late DR. VOGEL, Botanist to the Niger Expedition of 1841; including SPICILEGIA GORGONEA, by B. P. Webb; and FLORA NIGRITIANA, by J. D. Hooker and Geo. Benthām; with a sketch of the LIFE of DR. VOGEL, and a Journal of the Voyage: edited by SIR W. J. HOOKER; 8vo. with 2 Views, a Map, and 50 Botanical Plates, (pub. at 21s) cloth, 7s 6d 1849

"Dr. Vogel formed his collections with uncommon energy, and the number of species amassed by him, in a short space of time, and under the most disadvantageous circumstances, reflects great credit upon his memory." "This work will be hailed by every friend of Botany, and by every one interested in the vegetable productions of Western Tropical Africa, as a Prodromus of a Flora of that region."—Preface.

Japanese Lyrical Odes; TRANSLATIONS of the HYAK NIN IS 'SHIU, by a CENTURY of POETS, into ENGLISH VERSE with Explanatory Notes, the text in Japanese and also in Roman letter, with a full Index; Catalogues of Books referred to, and Lists of Titles, &c. &c. by Dr. F. V. DICKINS, 8vo, pp. ix, 52, xviii, xvi, vi, xvi. Printed on toned paper (pub. at 10s. 6d.) extra cloth, gilt edges, 5s London, 1866

This is a sort of ancient ballad book of Japan, known and used in every Japanese household. Numerous commentators have explained the meaning and the puns contained in the Song. Although the famous Dr. Kämpfer brought a copy (still in the British Museum) to Europe about two centuries ago, Dr. Dickins has been the first to translate the book, which he met with in Japan in 1864.—See Leisure Hour for April: Jap. Poetry, by J. Summers, p. 222.

Maitland's LIST OF THE EARLY PRINTED BOOKS in the ARCHBISHOPAL LIBRARY AT LAMBETH, 8vo. xxiv and 464 pp. with numerous woodcuts of INITIALS, (hitherto rare, and sold as high as £3. 3s) half morocco, 18s PRIVATELY PRINTED, 1843

A most essential work for a Bibliographer's Library, giving a very careful account of nearly 1000 rare books and ancient MSS. There are in this List rather more than 400 foreign books printed before 1520, and of about 100, no other account appears to exist; and among the English books printed before 1550, amounting to about 200, there are about 30 or 40 hitherto undescribed.

The EXTRACTS from very rare Books and Manuscripts are very considerable, and enhance the value of this excellent and painstaking work.

Leake's Travels in Northern Greece, 4 vols. 8vo.

"Like all Col. Leake's works, this is full of research and novel information. The preliminary observations on the history and geography of Albania, are valuable, and throw considerable light upon a country very little known."—QUARTERLY REVIEW.

Lord Lyttelton's & Mr. Gladstone's Translations.

This new edition is carefully printed in sm. 4to. and contains in ADDITION to the matter of the first Edition, 1861, TENNYSON'S Ulysses, translated into Latin, by LORD LYTTELTON. HOMER'S first book, translated into English, by the Right Honourable W. E. GLADSTONE, M.P. (pub. at 9s) half morocco, 6s 1863

— the same, LARGE PAPER, impl. 8vo. hf. bound morocco, uncut, £2. 2s 1863
We find often that pure devotional spirit which breathes in that exquisite Christian lyric of Toplady's, 'Rock of Ages,' which at the last I know was so often on the lips of the Prince Consort. I will not quote the English, which must be familiar to many readers, but will give a part of the exquisite version of Mr. Gladstone, who has translated the lines after the rhymed Latin hymns of the Early Church:—

Nil in manu mecum fero,
Sed me versus crucem gero
Vestimenta nudus oro,
Opem debilis imploro;
Fontem Christi quero immundus,
Nisi laves, moriundus.

Dum hos artus vita regit;
Quando nox sepulcho tegit;
Mortuos cum stare jubes,
Sedens Judex inter nubes;
Jesus. pro me perforatus
Condar intra tuum latus.'

This is from a small volume of translations by Lord Lyttelton, and Mr. Gladstone, 'In memoriam duplicum Nuptiarum,' published by Quaritch, but which, from the limited number of copies printed, can have little more than a private circulation. If a man is so fortunate as to lay his hand upon a copy, it is the kind of book with which he may very happily lounge away a lovely summer morning. The intense appreciation and pure poetical spirit which they display render the work very enjoyable: in scholarship and classical finish the palm, very decidedly, belonging to Lord Lyttelton. Mr. Gladstone excels in versions from modern languages into English; let me give, as a specimen of this, his translation of some German verses from 'Der Freischütz,' which our poor invalid may well lay to heart.

'Though wrapt in clouds yet still and still
The steadfast sun th' empyrean sways;
There still prevails a holy will;
'Tis not blind chance the world obeys.
The Eye Eternal, pure and clear,
Regards and holds all beings dear.

For me too will the Father care,
Whose heart and soul in Him confide;
And though my last of days it were,
And though He asked me to his side,
His eye eternal, pure, and clear,
Me too regards and holds me dear.'

BIBLICAL ARCHÆOLOGY.

Madden's History of Jewish Coinage, and of Money in the Old and New Testament, by F. W. MADDEN, M.R.S.L., of the British Museum, Hon. Sec. Numismatic Society of London, one stout vol. roy. 8vo. 362 pp. with 254 Engravings of all the Jewish Coins mentioned in the Bible, and struck by the Jewish Princes and Foreign Rulers of Palestine, (pub. at 25s) hf. morocco, gilt top, uncut, 16s 1865

— the same, LARGE PAPER, demy 4to. hf. bd. morocco, £3. 3s. 1865
Only 30 copies have been printed; for these immediate application is necessary.

There has hitherto been no comprehensive English work on this extremely attractive subject,—“the Jewish Coinage,” which forms a very important PILLAR of the HISTORICAL TRUTH of the BIBLE. Orthodox Christians and Sceptics, alike will do well to read and refer to this unbiassed work, which states and illustrates numerous Biblical Events with the utmost impartiality. The Designs of the Coins were made by Mr. Fairholt from the Coins themselves, chiefly in the British Museum.

INTRODUCTION—Progress of the Study of Jewish Coins.

CHAP. XI.—Money in the New Testament.

CHAP. XII.—Weights.

CHAP. XIII.—Writing.

APPENDIX A.—The Talmudic writings on the Coinage of the first and second Revolts.

APPENDIX B.—Counterfeited Jewish Coins.

“The author travels over a large space, and not content with the simple examination of Jewish coins, he brings all accessible collateral information to bear upon it, in order to present the reader with a complete monograph. He has spared no pains, and the result is a credit alike to him and to the institution to which he belongs. Not alone to every numismatist, but to every student of Jewish history and antiquities, this will be a necessary book of reference. The illustrations, by Mr. Fairholt, are abundant, and we need scarcely say really well executed.”—London Review, July 16, 1864.

“An elaborate and well illustrated summary of the present state of our knowledge in respect to Jewish and Biblical numismatics.”—Times, Aug. 17, 1864.

“We hail the appearance of Mr. Madden's volume with much pleasure as a complete résumé of the whole subject. The publication of so large a number of excellent copies—many of very rare and hitherto unknown Jewish coins—would alone have been a great benefit both to students and collectors, while the letter-press description of these cuts leaves little to be desired in point of accuracy and clearness of definition. Mr. Madden's work has the merit of supplying a want in English numismatic literature.”—Athenæum, Aug. 13, 1864.

Nichols, Bibliotheca Topographica Britannica :

A LIST of the SOCIETY of ANTIQUARIES of London, from their revival in 1717 to June 19, 1796. Arranged in chronological and alphabetical order, 4to. hf. bd. uncut, £3.

London, John Nichols, 1798—facsimile reprint, 1866

This small volume of 84 pp. had become so scarce as to be worth about 20 guineas. Mr. Quaritch has had the above reprint carefully made by Whittingham. Only 20 copies were done, and half of them have been secured at once.

Numismata : DONALDSON (T. L.) ARCHITECTURA NUMIS-

MATICA, or Architectural Medals of Classic Antiquity, royal 8vo. xxxii and 341 pp. with 46 plates and numerous woodcuts, (pub. at £3. 3s) cloth, 16s 1859

Architectural medals have not hitherto received that attention to which they are entitled, from the valuable information which they contain. They reflect, as it were, the customs and habits of the ancients in reference to their buildings : they reveal to us observances and practices of deep historical interest, which had been otherwise imperfectly known, and of which they alone offer indisputable evidence.

REPORT AND PROSPECTUS OF THE ORIENTAL TRANSLATION COMMITTEE.

PATRON :
HER MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY THE QUEEN.

The Oriental Translation Fund was established in 1828 by several Oriental scholars and others interested in Eastern literature "for the translation and publication of such works on Eastern history, science, and belles lettres as are inaccessible to the European public in MS. form and indigenous language."

The object thus proposed attracted considerable attention, and received very liberal support. The Royal Family honoured the proposal with their special approbation. Their Majesties George IV. and William IV. consented to become patrons and subscribers. Her present Majesty, as well as His Royal Highness the Prince Consort, have graciously continued the same beneficial encouragement.

A Committee composed of scholars well known for their attainments in Eastern literature, was appointed to carry out the design of the Institution. Although from the distinct field of operations contemplated by this body, it necessarily acted as a separate society, yet it was regarded as an important branch of the Royal Asiatic Society, and was encouraged and aided by its support.

The Committee thus formed was successively presided over by the Earl of Munster, Sir Gore Ouseley, the Earl of Clare, the Earl of Ellesmere, Professor Wilson, and Beriah Botfield, Esq., M.P.

The advantages and support enjoyed by the Committee enabled them to assist the labours of many Oriental scholars, and to promote the cultivation, in this country, of Oriental Literature, by the publication of translations into European languages of various original works, thus affording material assistance to students of ecclesiastical and civil history, philology, and other collateral branches of useful knowledge connected with the East.

The Committee, invited and obtained the assistance of many eminent scholars, and during a period of thirty-two years have published or aided in the publication of more than seventy translations. Of these many are highly valuable, all are curious or interesting, and several of them are of such a nature that without the aid afforded by the Society, they could scarcely have been undertaken.

The Sanscrit translations include those of the Sankhya Karika, Rig Veda, and Vishnu Purana. Amongst those from the Arabic, are found the travels of Ibn Batuta, and of the Patriarch Macarius, Al-Makkari's history of the Muhammadan Dynasties in Spain, and the extensive Lexicon of Hajji Khalifa. There are also on the list translations from the Persian, Syriac, Ethiopic, Armenian, Chinese, and Japanese languages.

As the THIRD volume of IBN KHALLIKAN'S Biographical Dictionary, by Baron de Slane, is actually in the press, and the Manuscript of the FOURTH volume of that valuable work is far advanced, the Committee consider that the time has arrived for an endeavour to revive, invigorate, and extend the operations of this Society.

The Committee invite the support of all who feel an interest in this important subject of Oriental Literature, to enable them to complete the works still in progress, to take up many of the valuable unpublished works now at their disposal, and to continue their efforts in the course of usefulness so auspiciously commenced.

Macarius was the Greek Patriarch of Antioch, and travelled through all the provinces of Turkey, and through great part of the Russian dominions. His narrative is very valuable, as giving a faithful account of the manners and customs of the Turkish, Tatar, Slavonic, and Greek races; and, the political and statistical history of Moldavia and Wallachia, can nowhere be studied so completely as in these records. They are, indeed, according to the title, a "Treasury of Entertaining Narratives," and full of Geographical, Historical, Social, and Political information.

- A geographical description of CORÉE, LOO CHOO, and JESSE, or YEZO, translated from a Japanese work dated 1786, with facsimiles of the original maps. It contains vocabularies of the languages, and comparative lists of the Aino dialects. The history, customs, and legislation of the people, are also treated of; and this work will serve to correct all European accounts of the Three Kingdoms.

30. THE TUSFAT-UL-MUJAHIDIN; a History of the First Settlement of the Mohammedans in Mulabar, and of their subsequent Struggles with the Portuguese, translated from the Arabic, by Lieut. M. Rowlandson, 8vo. 4s. 1833

32. EVLIIYA EFENDI, Narrative of TRAVELS in EUROPE, ASIA, & AFRICA, in the Seventeenth Century, translated from the Turkish by J. von Hammer. 2 vols. 4to. in 1, £1. 4s 1834-50
- The writer was an enthusiastic Turkish traveller, and his description of the various countries he passed through, is remarkably faithful. Indeed, no other book of Oriental travels can be said to equal this. His account of the Turkish and Persian provinces, and Asia Minor, is all that remains; the narrative of his travels through Europe (Sweden, Holland, Germany, etc.) if ever written, has perished. He lived in the sixteenth century, and was in the service of some of the more ambitious Pashas of the Porte, so that his relation of contemporary affairs in Turkey is most ample and interesting.

35. ANNALES DES EMPEREURS DU JAPON, traduites par M. Isaac TITSHIM. Ouvrage revu, complété et corrigé, sur l'Original Japonais-Chinois, accompagné d'un Aperçu de l'Histoire Mythologique des Japonais, par J. Klaproth, 4to. £1. 1832
- A history of Japan, since the year 660 before Christ from a native source, and translated by a competent scholar, is a work of which the great importance cannot fail to be recognized. M. Klaproth has added a Supplement, the continuation to the present time of the annals, which ended in the original with the year 1800. This Supplement is also derived from native sources. Not the least remarkable feature of this volume is a Mythological History which Klaproth has added, and the elaborate Index which M. Landresse has joined to the work is of extreme usefulness.
36. HARIVANSA; ou, Histoire de la Famille de Hari; Ouvrage formant un Appendice à Mahabharata; et traduit sur l'Original sanscrit, par A. LANGLOIS. 2 vols. 8vo. £2. 16s 1833-34
- The Harivansa is a poem, which relates the history of the family of Krishna, and is deemed so important by the Brahmans that the book is held sacred. Those who read and listen to the reading of it, are supposed to acquire a sanctity which will have its reward in this life as well as the next. It forms what may be called an Appendix to the Mahabharata, but it also goes on to the origin of things, and unfolds a long course of history intermingled with the cosmogony and theology of the Indian mind.
37. THE DIDASCALIA; or, Apostolical Constitutions of the Abyssinian Church, translated from the Ethiopic, by T. Platt, 4to. 8s 1835
38. LES AVENTURES DE KAMRUP, par Tachoudin; traduites de l'Hindoustani par J. Garcin de Tassy, 8vo. 1834
39. THE CHRONICLES OF Rabbi Joseph ben Joshua Ben Meir, the Sphardi, translated from the Hebrew, by C. H. F. Bialloblowe, 2 vols. 8vo. £1. 1835
- The account of the Crusades, and of the events which followed them in the Holy Land, is a feature of special interest in this work. But the history of Europe, during the reign of Charles V. is the portion most largely treated on, and best shews the extensive knowledge of state secrets and motives which could be acquired by Jews, whose mercantile and financial resources put them in connexion with the rulers of kingdoms. The author of this General Chronicle, was born at Ariccia in 1496, but lived the greater part of his life as a Jew.
40. THE POLITICAL AND STATISTICAL HISTORY OF GUJERAT, translated from the Persian, by J. Bird, 8vo. 1833
41. LE LIVRE DES RÉCOMPENSES ET DES PEINES, traduit du Chinois, par Stanislas Julien, 8vo. 17s 1835
42. HAJI KHALFÆ LEXICON ENCYCLOPÆDICUM ET BIBLIOGRAPHICUM, edidit G. Fluegel, 7 vols. 4to. complete, cloth, £6. 6s Leipzig, 1835-34
- the same, 7 vols. impl. 4to. LARGE PAPER, cloth, £9. 9s 1835-34
- Sets completed at the same rate.
- This work is, without comparison, the most useful of all the Fund publications. It stands in the same relation to Oriental Literature as Watts' Bibliotheca and Graesse's Treasor do to that of the Western World. The agement is alphabetic, according to the names of poets, (an INDEX of AUTHORS being added at the end), and comprises descriptions of above 16,000 books in Arabic, Persian, and Turkish; with statements of the authors when the writers flourished, and many other useful particulars.

MUSTAFA ben Abdallah Kâtib Tchelebi, called Hadjî Leh, was a learned Turk, who, early in the seventeenth century, held a high official position under Orak IV. At a later period, he collected a large library, and wrote several works, chiefly historical; the greatest monument of his immense industry and erudition remains in the Bibliographical Lexicon, (Şifâ-Şanım). The Bibliotèque of D'Herbelot consists principally of an abstract from defective texts of work of Hadjî Khalfah; while Füglé's edition is based upon the most perfect and important copies in existence.

7. MAKRIZI, HISTOIRE des SULTANS MAMLOUKS de L'EGYPTE. Ecrite en Arabe par Taki-eddin-ahmed-Makrizi. Traduite en Français, par M. Quatremere. 2 vols. 4to. complete, £2. 2s 1837

Of Makrizi's great work on the history of Egypt and Syria (Solûk fi marifat Dûl el-Molûk) M. Quatremere has translated the important portion which relates to the Turkoman sovereigns called Mamelukes. Makrizi lived at Cairo in the fourteenth century, so that this work comprises a record of not quite sixty years. The subject is treated with all the taste, discrimination, and learning, which have placed Makrizi in the first rank of Arabic historians. The editor's notes add immensely to the value of the work.

48. RIG VEDA SANHITA, Sanskrit et Latine. Edité par F. A. Rosen, 4to. £1. 1s 1837

49. KUMARA SAMBHAVA, Sanscrit et Latine, edité par Stenzler, 4to. 20s 1837

50. PRACTICAL PHILOSOPHY of the Muhammadan People. Exhibited in its professed connexion with the European, so as to render either an introduction to the other; being a translation of the Akhlaq-i-Jalali, the most esteemed Ethical Work of Middle Asia, from the Persian of Fakir Jany Muhammad Asaad; with References and Notes, by W. F. Thompson, 8vo. 8s 1839

A most valuable work, the best Moorish account of the History of Spain, whilst under their rule. Indispensable to an Historical Library.

53. GARCIN DE TASSY. Histoire de la Littérature Hindoui et Hindoustani, 2 tomes, 8vo. 1839-47

54. EL-MAS'UDIS HISTORICAL ENCYCLOPEDIA, entitled "Meadows of Gold and Mines of Gems," translated from the Arabic by Dr. A. Sprenger, Vol. I. 8vo. 16s 1841

55. SAM VEDA. Translation of the Sanhitâ of the Sama Veda, by the Rev. J. Stevenson, 8vo. 7s 1841

56. SPECIMENS OF THE POPULAR POETRY OF PERSIA, as found in the Adventures and Improvisations of Kurroglou, the Bandit-Min-strel of Northern Persia; and in the Songs of the People inhabiting the Shores of the Caspian Sea. Orally collected and translated by A. Chodzko, 8vo. 12s 6d 1842

57. IBN KHALLIKAN'S BIOGRAPHICAL DICTIONARY. Translated from the Arabic by Baron Mac Guckin de SLANE, Vols. I and II, 4to. (to be completed in 4 vols.) £3. 3s; or, Large Paper, £4. 4s. 1842-45

The third volume is nearly ready, the fourth in preparation.

This was the first general Biographical Dictionary in the Arabic language; and it remains a wonderful testimony to the learning, genius, and industry of the author. The biographies are arranged in alphabetical order of names, and comprise distinguished individuals of every sect and nation in Islam, down to the thirteenth century, when Ibn Khallikan flourished. Moslem critics have blamed him for enlarging on the lives of poets and historical writers, at the expense of the learned doctors of law; but the very circumstance renders his book all the more valuable to the European reader. Even the poetical and elegant selections which fill these biographical notices, are so extensive, that an Anthology was culled from them by an ancient Arabic writer. The editor has added in his notes all fresh information that could be acquired regarding each name mentioned in the text.

58. HISTORY OF HYDER NAIK, otherwise styled Nawaub Hyder Ali, by Meer Hussein Ali Khan Kirmani. Translated from an Original Persian MS. by Col. W. Miles, 8vo. 10s 1842

59. THE DABISTAN; or School of Manners. Translated from the Persian, with Notes, &c. by D. Shea, and A. Troyer, 3 vols. 8vo. £1. 1s 1844

This is a work of great interest for all Oriental Scholars and Comparative Mythologists.

Sir William Jones describes this work as containing "more recondite learning, more entertaining history, more beautiful poetry, more ingenuity and wit, indecency and blasphemy, than" he "ever saw collected in a single volume." It contains an account of the old Persian, the Brahmin, the Buddhist, the Christian, the Sufi, and the Mohammedan religions, with their various sects; as well as a statement of their doctrines. It is most valuable for its exposition of the Zoroastrian creed, as this is based upon ancient Zend works now entirely lost.

60. HISTORY OF THE REIGN OF TIPU SULTAN, being a Continuation of the Neshani Hyduri. Written by Mir Hussein Ali Khan Kirmani; transl. by Colonel W. Miles, 8vo. 8s 6d 1844

Long out of print, a few copies have just been obtained:

Owen (R.) Odontography; or, a Treatise on the COMPARATIVE ANATOMY of the TEETH; their physical relations, mode of development, and microscopic structure in the VERTEBRATE ANIMALS, one vol. text, and Atlas containing 168 beautiful plates, engraved with marvellous minuteness, (pub. at £5. 5s) hf. bd. morocco,  £2. 2s 1840-45
 — The same, LARGE PAPER, INDIA PROOFS; together 2 thick vols. 4to. (pub. at £10. 10s) hf. russia, £6. 10s 1840-45

One of the great modern productions which mark the present wonderful advance of scientific knowledge. Dr. Owen stands on a pedestal of eminence which is rarely attained.

"The present work on the Comparative Anatomy and Physiology of the Teeth, considers— I. The Teeth in their relation to the Osseous System, and the intimate structure of their component tissues; II. The Teeth, regarded as parts of the Digestive System, and, besides their structure, their various configurations and proportions, in subserviency to the habits and food of the different species; III. The development of the Teeth considered in connection with that of the epidermal appendages of the Tegumentary System, in consequence of a close analogy in the form, structure, temporary duration, and reproduction of the formative matrix.

"The views of the structure and development of the Teeth, and the consequent deductions as to their place in the system of tissues, their physiological relations, and their value as zoological characters, are fully and connectedly treated of in this work.

"The Dental System is in this work traced from its more simple to its more complex conditions, but this progress is partially subordinated to the limits of zoological arrangement; for, although the tooth of a Myliobates or a Labyrinthodon be, in structure, more complex than many Mammalian teeth, yet this complexity is associated with other characters, such as mode of attachment, frequent shedding and renewal, &c., which indicates an essentially inferior grade, and connect them, respectively, in closer natural relationship with the more simple teeth of other species of Fishes and Reptiles. A distinct Part, or division of the Work, is, therefore, appropriated to the Dental System of each of the three great Classes of Vertebrated Animals which possess teeth.

"In the Mammalian series the course of progressive complication of the teeth is closely followed, irrespective of the general grade of organization of the species, and the Human dentition falls, accordingly, into the middle of the series. Guided by the evidence of the teeth I have sometimes deviated from the accepted Zoological systems, as will be seen in the last Chapter, devoted to the complex dentition of the great Family of Hoofed herbivorous quadrupeds, and especially in the value there assigned to the Ruminant modification of the Ungulate type.

"In each class, the chief characters of the teeth of extinct species are described in connection with those of the allied existing forms. For so vast is now the extent, and so rapid the progress of Palæontology, and so important are the links in the chain of Being thus recovered, that no treatise on the Comparative Anatomy of the enduring parts of animals can fulfil its expected purpose, if it be restricted to the description of such parts in existing species alone.

"With regard to the Teeth, some of the most interesting and extraordinary modifications were peculiar to species that have long since passed away from the stage of animated existence; and, indeed, no comprehensive view could be obtained of the dental tissues without a knowledge of those intermediate conditions which they present in fossil teeth. I need only refer to the Acrodus, the Sphærodus, the Saurocephalus, the Dendroilus, the Labyrinthodon, the Ignavodon, and the Megatherium, in illustration of the value of Fossil remains, and of the microscope, as an instrument in the determination of their nature and affinities.

"One consequence of an attempt, like the present, to determine the true nature and mode of development of a class of organs by tracing the modifications of such through the entire range of the series of animals to which it is peculiar, is, that, from the length of time required to complete and arrange the extended series of observations, partial glimpses and illustrations of the main conclusions sought to be established are published by authors who are excited to pursue some limited branch of the subject, and have leisure for following it out.

"The present work would, however, have been very incomplete, if I had not been privately aided by the liberal contributions of teeth of rare fossil and recent animals, which were not available for the purpose of microscopic examinations when present in public collections.

"My grateful acknowledgments are more especially due to the PRESIDENT and COUNCIL of the ROYAL COLLEGE OF SURGEONS: for to them I owe the appointments which have made the pursuits most congenial to my tastes a duty, and at the same time have supplied the best means and opportunities of fulfilling it. In whatever degree, therefore, I may have contributed in this or previous works to the advancement of Comparative Anatomy, or may have aided in its application to collateral sciences, I can only regard myself as instrumental, in such measure, in carrying out the great objects which the College of Surgeons had in view in accepting the important trust of the Hunterian Museum, and which the College has ever since most strenuously promoted."—Preface.

"The most popular, useful, and elegant book in Persian Literature. This edition is superior to all others in having a Vocabulary, so copious and so rich in all points, that it might justly be called a Persian Dictionary."

PRINSEP'S Essays on Indian Antiquities,

Historic, Numismatic, and Paleographic, with his USEFUL TABLES illustrative of Indian history, coinage, weights, measures, etc. edited with Notes and additions by THOMAS, 2 stout vols. 8vo. 53 plates of early Indian and Bactrian Coins and Antiquities, (pub. at £2. 12s 6d) cloth, 30s

Mr. Edward Thomas, late of the Bengal Civil Service, deserves the thanks of all Oriental Scholars for this first collected edition of Prinsep: his notes and additional matter are very considerable. These volumes form a complete Chronology of India, based upon the most authentic records, viz. the Coins of all the rulers. The reproduction of the "Useful Tables" is a boon to all the possessors of the "Bengal Journal" to which they form a necessary adjunct.

PRICHARD'S ETHNOLOGICAL WORKS :

 The GENUINE work, with 62 COLOURED plates, and many woodcuts, 2 vols. royal 8vo. (published at 38s) offered for 28s.

This is the GREAT TEXT BOOK of ETHNOLOGISTS. The remarkable series of coloured plates accompanying this work forms a complete Pictorial Gallery of every variety of the Human Race scattered over the Globe. Advocates of the "One Pair Theory" will find no corroboration of their doctrines in the facts set forth in Dr. Prichard's learned work. However, if we cannot call all the Races of the World "brothers," we may surely treat them as "friends," and make ourselves acquainted with their leading physical and mental characteristics.

SHAKESPEARE, the FIRST EDITION of

— The same, folio, red morocco extra, gilt edges, £4. 10s 1865

To Shakespeare critics this is the most essential edition. Perfect copies of the original issue have become so expensive, that only the most wealthy collectors can enjoy the luxury of possessing it. This facsimile edition has been most accurately made,—it is sure to rise in price, as the few remaining copies will soon be bought up.

The above was originally issued in parts, and in that form cost subscribers £8. 8s. Mr. Q. having secured the few remaining copies of the edition, is now enabled to offer them at a greatly reduced price.

A paragraph from a recent bibliographical article in the "Cornhill Magazine" for October, 1867, exhibits at a glance the value of this reprint in a pecuniary comparison with the work of which it is a fac-simile copy in every detail: "The first folio edition of the WORKS OF SHAKESPEARE (1623) is a rare treasure. The Grenville copy, said to be the most beautiful known, was bought in 1819 for 116 guineas. The Duke of Roxburgh's copy fetched 100 guineas. At Mr. Baker's sale a copy, described as the only one containing the two cancelled leaves in As you Like It, fetched £163. 15s. But Mr. Daniell's copy went far beyond these prices. Miss Bardett Coutts gave for it no less than 682 guineas."

To this may be added, so important is this work to all students of Shakspeare, that the facsimile copy now offered for sale, of which only a limited edition is printed, which must soon be exhausted, will itself, as the imperfect reprint of the first folio, issued some years ago, command before long a greatly advanced price.

NOTE. The present work should not be confounded with another republication, not facsimile, but in smaller type and inferior size to the original, known as Booth's reprint.

Spanish Grammar: ALONSO'S Elementary Grammar and Guide to Conversation for the Use of Travellers in Spain, 12mo. 176 pp. cl. 2s 6d 1867

In publishing this "Handy Book," I have endeavoured, as far as it has been in my power, to attend exclusively to the necessities of the traveller, who is ignorant of the language and customs of the country, and wishes to make himself understood in the easiest manner possible.

The plan followed, has been: an extensive explanation of the Spanish alphabet, and the manner to accentuate the words, in order to read and pronounce with facility. An elementary notion of Grammar, with a list of particles and adverbs indispensable for conversation, and an exercise for translation for those who wish to make a further study of the Spanish language.

A copious collection of Dialogues applicable to the different necessities of the traveller in Spain—in hotels, travelling in diligence and on horseback, theatres, museums, visits, etc. I have added to each of these groups the list of words which are necessary in each one; and lastly, a series of words which are useful at every moment—the days of the month, the seasons, &c.—which cannot be placed within the Dialogues.

Spanish Theology: Claret (A. M.) Llave de Oro,

o serie de reflexiones que para abrir el corazon cerrado de los pobres pecadores, ofrece á los confesores nuevos el Excmo. é Ilmo. Sr. D. Antonio Maria Claret, Arzobispo de Caba, seguida del Apparatus et praxis formæ pro doctrina sacra in concione proponenda, auctore R. P. Richardo Aradekin, Societatis Jesu, 1 vol. 12mo. hf. bd. mor. Barcelona, Libreria religiosa, 1860

"Le 'Llave de oro' est un livre écrit par l'actuel Confesseur de la Reine d'Espagne; depuis son apparition cet ouvrage a produit des controverses très vives, et par consequence il fut retiré du commerce. Aujourd'hui il est presque impossible d'en trouver un exemplaire même en Espagne."

Mr. Quaritch expects copies shortly, various customers having charged him to procure the book. Mr. Q. has a copy in his private library.

Miss Edwards in her recent work, "Through Spain to Sahara," calls it "a coarse work." In the Athenæum of Dec. 28, 1867, the Rev. Canon Dalton, who evidently read the book, protests against the character drawn by Miss Edwards of Padre Claret.

In the Athenæum of Jan. 11, 1868, Miss Edwards replies:—"With regard to 'La Llave de Oro,' I refer the curious to the work itself. The Rev. Canon Dalton naively quotes Lady Herbert as an authority against me. But is it not her Ladyship who talks of 'Spain's Sainly Queen?' Quid multa? It is not given to every one to see the rulers of Spain through rose-coloured spectacles."

In the Athenæum of Jan. 18 (page 94) Canon Dalton attacks Miss Edwards for having formed an opinion about the "Llave de Oro," from the testimony of intelligent Spaniards, and recommends her to "hear both sides of the question;" the advertiser recommends Miss Edwards to leave this subject alone, as she has said enough. The work is only fit for the libraries of collectors of curious books, it being of the same character as the celebrated volume "Sanchez de ucto Matrimonii sacramento disputationes," printed at Viterbo, 1754, and in other editions.

Texier and Pullan's Byzantine Architecture :

being a Collection of Monuments of the Earliest Times of Christianity in the East, accompanied by Historical and Archæological Descriptions. By Charles Texier, Member of the Institute of France, Honorary Fellow of the Royal Institute of British Architects, and of the Royal Academy of Sciences, Munich : and R. Popplewell Pullan, F.R.I.B.A., Architect to the Budrum Expedition, Agent for the Dilettanti Society in Asia Minor, folio, about 120 pages of text, with 12 fine engravings, 17 Chromo-Lithographs, and 60 plates, (pub. at £6. 6s) extra cloth, 32s 1864

This work has already achieved for itself a foremost position amongst the great standard books on Architecture. Executed in the most complete and elaborate manner, and displaying a thorough knowledge of the subject, it does credit to the learning and accomplishments of the authors. Copies are certain to rise in price, as soon as the edition has been dispersed.

Thorpe's Northern Mythology ; the Popular

Traditions and Superstitions of Scandinavia, North Germany, and the Netherlands, a View of German Mythology, or Popular Belief, from the North of Norway to Belgium, and from the Earliest Times to the Present, selected and translated, 3 vols. sm. 8vo. (pub. £1. 4s in cloth) hf. morocco, 18s 1852

"The particulars which he supplies are full, and it can only be rarely that, on such a subject, we possess the assistance of a man so well skilled in the languages of the various countries, respecting which he writes. Mr. Thorpe is known to be a scholar of first-rate attainments in this department, and we are glad to see that, although the commencement of his undertaking is full of learning and research, he has not disdained, in the continuation of his task, to supply matter that must sooner or later become popular."—Athenæum.

Valdés. The Life and Writings of Juan de

VALDÉS, by BENJAMIN B. WIFFEN, with VALDÉS' "Consideraciones," translated from the Italian, the editio princeps of 1550, by JOHN T. BETTS, 1 vol. 8vo. 582 pp. cloth, 14s 1865

The LIFE of VALDES, by Mr. WIFFEN, is a literary masterpiece, which could only be produced by a man thoroughly conversant with the History of these Reformers of the Church. In giving the characteristics of Juan Valdes, Mr. Wiffen says : "He seemed to possess more of the Saxon or Teutonic element than is common to his countrymen : this is shown in his practical character, in its love of national liberty, in its love of religious freedom, and in its exemption from superstition, the thrall of a tyrannous imagination applied to religion."—Life, page 177.

"Mr. Wiffen's Introduction is of great interest in relation to Henry VIII and Wolsey's fall, and especially as regards the conduct of Charles Vth towards the Pope in defence, or his exculpation for the sack of Rome by Bourbon."—Spencer Hall.

"In all the writings of Juan de Valdés, in which he deals with historical events, there are not only the veracity and good sense which characterise every work of a sterling author, but elucidations which clearly manifest his diligence and fidelity in the investigation and verification of facts."—John Betts.

Worcester (Marquis of) Century of Inventions :

the Life, Times, and Scientific Labours of the second Marquis of Worcester; to which is added a Reprint of the Century of Inventions, 1663, with a Commentary thereon, by HENRY DIRCKS, C.E. 1 vol. 8vo. 650 pp. portraits and woodcuts, (pub. at 24s) cloth, 16s 1866

"Mr. Dircks has produced a work of singular merit; the historical part is full, accurate, well arranged bristling with facts and correspondence, the only authentic memorial in existence of one of the most remarkable men of a remarkable age. In the mechanical and scientific part Mr. Dircks is professedly at home, his descriptions are perspicuous, and his judgment of the merits of the different articles in the Century of great authority. It is in many respects a unique book, and must have a place in every complete library."—Daily News, April 13, 1866.

Waterhouse's Natural History of Mammalia,

2 vols. stout large 8vo. 41 fine engravings, finely COLOURED, and numerous woodcuts, (pub. at £3. 8s 6d) cloth, 32s 1846-8

Vol. I. Containing the Order MARSUPIATA, or Pouched Animals, with 22 illustrations engraved on steel, and 18 engravings on wood.

Vol. II. Containing the Order RODENTIA, or Gnawing Mammalia, including Index to the Technical Names, and Index to the English and other Local Names, with 22 illustrations engraved on steel, and engravings on wood, sold separately for £1. 4s

The Natural History of Mammalia embraces an account of the structure and habits of all the known species of Quadrupeds or Mammals here described; to which are added observations upon their geographical distribution and classification. Since the fossil and recent species illustrate each other, notices of the leading characters of the Extinct Species are also included.

The genera, and many of the species, are illustrated partly by engravings on steel, and partly by wood engravings. The modifications observable in the structure of the skulls, teeth, feet, and other parts, are almost entirely illustrated by wood engravings.

BOOKS WANTED TO PURCHASE

BY

BOOKSELLER, 15 PICCADILLY, LONDON.

Old Libraries bought for Cash at the maximum market value, without any deductions or delays.

The danger of selling by auction,—rather than disposing of Libraries to respectable dealers—has recently been pointed out by a leading article in the "Times," Sept. 26, 1866, from which the following is an extract :

"An auction is the most unfair of all sales, and is the most ruinous method of disposing of any sort of goods. As matters are now managed, no one will resort to an auction who can dispose of his goods by any other means."

Any Gentleman having some of the books of this List for sale at a fair value, will oblige by stating to Mr. Quaritch their titles, dates, condition and price. Offers of Books WITHOUT a price, are declined; and need not be made. When Owners of Books offer them above the market value, they receive no answer.

On désire acheter les Livres suivants. Les personnes qui en aient à vendre, sont priées de faire savoir à Mr. Quaritch le titre exact, la date, la condition et le prix de chaque ouvrage proposé.

£10 REWARD. A Mystery. A valuable volume of ITALIAN DRAWINGS, consisting of Ornamental Letters, by Vichomercato, temp. 1450, 1 vol. folio, bound in vellum, which my packer says he put into a small box, along with other MSS. and books, sent by steamer, July 3, 1867, to Ireland, has not reached its destination.

I am at a loss to know what has become of this volume: whether the box has been opened during the transit, or whether the volume was mis-packed.

My packer is most positive that he placed it in the box.

£10 reward will be given to the person who restores this volume to me:—and no questions asked.
